a worried mind—and with good cause.

His prize quarterback won't be making the trip! Ronnie Strickling, who has done a creditable job of calling signals this season, is laid up with an infected throat.

Coach Sherwond said the youthful gridder has received more injections of penicillin during the past few days than most quarterbacks deserve.

The Indians, who play a formidable Marshifield team tonight at Cook Bay, will have to depend upon the quarterbacking of Mickey Coen, who has seen some action this season, but who lacks the experience of the alling Strickling.

Gorgeous George To Take On Hager In Return To Mat Here

Gorgeous George, the man with many robes, a fine valet to clear the ring of germs and care for him, will be in Rose-burg Saturday night, returning to old fighting grounds where he first got his start in the grappling game that has sent him up to great heights as one of the top performers in the world.

He wants to renew old friends and whip some of his old opponents in this area, but when he last met Tex Hager, the Cres-well flash defeated him. He is going all out to do it again Saturday night; but George has put on a little weight since then, picking up a great deal more finesse, and some new tricks to spring on

Odds Favor Ez To Beat Valentino In Battle Tonight

By RUSS NEWLAND

By RUSS NEWLAND

Boxing could crown a new heavyweight champion tonight but probably will not. The odds today were 1 to 5 that Ezzard Charles would successfully defend his N.B.A. title against the challenge of Pat Valentino in their 15-round fight at the San Francisco Cow palace.

However, the 29-year-old Valentino may be a fairly strong challenger. He lost close decisions to Jimmy Bivins and fought two draws with Joe Maxim, both of whom extended the titleholder pienty, although defeated.

Aside from the remote possibility he could become the upset victim of Valentino's punishing body attack, Charles figures to win rather handily. He is the superior boxer, much faster than his rival, and has proved he can take and knockdown punch and come back to win Charles is expected to weigh about 180 and his rival about 185.
