CHILDREN'S DAY IS SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16TH

Beyond remembering our children with useful gifts, Sunday, October 16th, is being set aside to call attention to the basic educational, health, welfare and recreational needs of all children and to discuss better ways of meeting these needs. Realizing that the youngsters of today will be our country's leaders tomorrow, it is for us, now, to help them by participating and aiding those civic and private organizations which cater to our children's needs.

Looks like this gal is packing to go back to school after a weekend at home. Bet that dress is one of the pretty two-piece outfits from LUV-NE'S, at only $9.95 and $10.95. One we saw is black jacquard taffeta with self-buttons up the waist. There is one in the window in dark green that has a tiny collar and mother of pearl buttons. One just like it in navy, if you'd rather. Luverne's is the shop for those practical little dresses that are styled just right for college or business girls. Drop in at 124 North Jackson and take a look around—you'll see what we mean.

The answer to any Twenty Questions you may have about Christmas gifts for a lady is a Ronson lighter from ASHCRAFT'S. Precision-made is the enchanting new "Herringbone," a midget-sized lighter for a little gal. It has a satin-finish plate for her initials. "Orchid" is an exotic number in black enamel with flowers painted on the front. It, too, has the initial plate. Does she fancy lizards? Give her a Ronson in red or green lizard to match her shoes, purse or belt.

CLEO'S QUALITY BAKERY wants us to remind you that now is the time to place your special orders for decorated cakes and cookies for your Halloween party. For kiddies' parties, Cleo will bake sheet cakes with chocolate frosting, decorated with Jack-O-Lantern faces. Cookies, too, if you like them better with holiday ice cream. And of course, no Halloween party would be complete without doughnuts—spiced, frosted, or plain, to go with apple cider. Cleo will have them for you, too. Just follow that delectable fragrance—it's Cleo's good baking that you smell, coming from 414 N. Jackson, just a few steps past the theater.

To return a smile for a frown takes character of a high degree.

Hey, fellas, pheasant season opens next Friday, at noon. Are you planning to be out there at 12:01 sharp, to shoot the first one of the season? Then you'd better be seeing J. V. SPORTING GOODS for the shotguns and shells you'll be needing. Waterproof shell vests will keep your ammo dry, and waterproof hunting coats and rubber boots will keep YOU dry. If it's ducks or geese you're after, Decoys that would fool a duck or goose for sure are waiting to help you lure your game within range. J. V. has everything you need for successful hunting.

Here's a good Dear Decoy—a new plastic-covered basscock from JOSSE'S. It's built around a metal record-holder, and the inside of the top may be used as a serving tray or coffee table.

LESTER'S GIFT SHOP announces a re-deal on the Bid-Away, this week and subsequently. Now, you can get any item in the store that you want put on the Bid-Away by bidding half the retail price on it. Les will put any three items on auction each week, and the highest bidder above the half-price mark gets it. How about Christmas gifts from Lester's? Permanent tumblers are in again, and all kinds of building kits for models of railroad cars and autos. Some very simple ones are fine for younger children, who have to stay indoors so much these days. These model kits are a swell solution if your kid has the measles or chicken-pox—they are one way you can keep the youngsters quiet without making them unhappy!

A lot of people who have a reputation for wit just have good memories. How about that, you Toastmasters and Toastmistresses?

We've got good news, this week, for all the girls who carry slim pocketbooks and only eat out occasionally—the ICE CREAMERY is serving a creamed dish every day, now. Vary your lunches or suppers with creamed oysters or chipped beef, made with peas and white sauce and served on toast. They are only 35c. Other hot dishes for winter lunching are beans, chili, and spaghetti. Eat at the Ice Creamery when you eat out—it's right downtown, near your favorite stores. Convenient to the city bus, too, for after-show snacks, hot fudge sundaes or hot chocolate with marshmallows.

Get it with a cover that features hunting scenes—tell him to rest his weary feet on this one, and your dear-hunting problem is half solved. You can get the same metal hassock with plain beige or green plastic cover, too. There is a child's size Duran hassock for Junior, in red or green, and a big oblong davenport-size model in tan or red. These plastic-covered hassocks are a godsend to the harried housewife, because they are all washable.

The modern girl's problem is how to keep the wolf AT the door.

This is none too soon to be ordering your Christmas cards. Do you want to send cards that will be prized by everyone on your list? Send photographic cards from CLARK'S. They will make your cards from your own negative, if you wish, at prices that start as low as $4.50 a dozen. A special folding card that holds a 3x5 inch portrait is only $6 a dozen, including the portrait, suitable for framing. It's one you'll want to send to Grandma and Grandpa or close friends. No greeting that you could send would be more gratefully received than one with a picture of you or your family.
