

Marshfield Wins Contest 34 to 7

Injured Indian 11 Outclassed By Bay Team

Substitute Quarterback Coen Plays Fine Game For Roseburg Ball Club

The Marshfield Pirates made Roseburg's Indians walk the plank to the tune of a 34-7 score in a district clash at Coos Bay last night. Barney Holland's smashing ground gains and Ron Robbins' sizzling aerial attacks was no match for a weaker Roseburg club.

Mickey Coen did a superb job of quarterbacking his first time in the starting lineup. Defensively, Coen's tackling job was hard to beat.

Jerry Miller was another Marshfield man who came in for a fair share of the laurels. Holland kept short and long tosses and the speedy end was always equal to the occasion.

Roseburg's Bob Scott did a creditable job of kicking Roseburg out of danger, while right half Frank Weber earned his share of plaudits for a brilliant running attack.

Leads on Ground
Marshfield led on the ground with 14 first downs as against seven for Roseburg. Holland completed seven out of nine passes, for a gain of 90 yards.

Coen connected three out of 10 times for a 41 yard gain.

Quarterback Coen reported to have had the wild kicked out of him in the middle of the first quarter, stuck it out in spite of a zap that he was somewhat dazed the rest of the half.

Marshfield scored in every quarter, while Roseburg's lone touchdown came after the half.

The host club started its drive late in the first, from its own 38. After smashing to Roseburg's 14, quarterback Barney Holland passed to end Gerald Miller, who caught it in the end zone for a touchdown. Stan Gottschalk missed the extra point try.

Marshfield scored almost immediately after the second quarter got under way, again from its own 38. Ron Robbins ran 43

Gorgeous George-Tex Hager Bout To Highlight Mat Bill

Gorgeous George, the one and only, will make his first appearance in several years at the Roseburg mat show in the main event against Tex Hager. George is back in Oregon to renew old friends and take on a few of his old opponents, and he has brought with him his ever-present valet and his wardrobe of beautiful robes.

In the semi-final, Georges Dusetta will meet Maurice LaChapelle and Jack Kiser will match holds with Pete Bartu in the opener.

yards to Roseburg's 10. A five yard penalty set Marshfield back, but Holland's pass to Bob Grey erased the deficit, as Grey scrambled across the goal line. Gottschalk converted, and the Pirates led 13-0.

Marshfield threatened briefly in the last of the second quarter. The Indians drove to Marshfield's eight, but Robbins intercepted Bob Scott's pass, intended for Dale Black.

A Marshfield clipping penalty put the ball on their five, but Ken Scott ran it from there to the 14 as the half ended.

Roseburg kicked in the third quarter and in two plays, Marshfield brought the ball back to its own 40. Then Holland passed to Miller, standing on Roseburg's 38. Robbins forged ahead from the 38 to the 27, off right tackle.

Two line backs by Ken Scott and Wayne Thompson put the ball on Roseburg's 18, then Robbins crashed through left guard to the two yard line, Thompson battled to the one-half yard line, then carried it across, going over left tackle. Score: 20-0.

Stage Drive
Roseburg's drive began to spark with Weber taking the ball on the kick, bringing it back to the 25. Bill Van Horn, made a dazzling run around right end to the Marshfield 27, dodging players all the way, and jumping over one, before being stopped. Van Horn again went off right tackle for a four yard gain, then Van Horn swept around right end to the Marshfield 28—another spectacular sweep by Van Horn.

Weber ran it to the 11, then Scott smashed through center to the Medford one-half. Scott again plunged through for the touchdown. Weber's kick for extra point was good and the score read 20-7.

Marshfield's fourth scoring drive started from Roseburg Indian's 34. Robbins carried it to the 22, then Ken Scott ran four yards to the 18. Barney Holland passed to Miller, who was standing on the four, then Ken Scott plunged to the one.

Robbins met a solid wall of Roseburg beef, but smashed to the one-foot stripe. Ken Scott went off right guard for the tally. Gottschalk converted, and the score read 27-7.

Marshfield's final touchdown drive was launched when Nasburg caught Bob Scott's punt on the Roseburg 30; ran it to the Indians' eight. Nasburg plunged to the Roseburg two on a successive tally, then Holland TD'd on a quarterback sneak. Gottschalk again put it through the posts, raising the score to 34-7.

Coen launched a passing attack that got the ball from the Indians' 19 to the 45, but the final gun broke up the party.

Score by quarter:

Cottage Grove Edges Warriors 13 To 6 Friday

Cottage Grove edged out the Warriors 13-6 in a tight Valley league football battle that saw neither team score after the half.

Drain's repeated drives to the Cottage Grove goal line ended in a blank wall, as the visitors would recover and kick out of danger.

Don Cellers, ace Drain quarterback, played a beautiful passing game, connecting eight out of nine times. A 35-yard toss by Cellers to Bill Duncan resulted in the only Warrior touchdown.

Cottage Grove's centers came in both quarters of the first half, with Hillaker taking a long pass from McBee for the first tally. Malcomb ran over the second counter, pushing from the Drain three on a quarterback sneak. McBee also made the extra point on a rushing attack.

Although Drain led statistically, with 311 yards gained as against 212 for Cottage Grove, the Douglas county club failed to win the ball game.

Cellers' brilliant passing attack resulted in five first downs for the Warriors, in which 112 yards were gained. Cottage Grove's 28 yard gain through passing proved to be a touchdown loss.

Referees in the game were Doug Craven, Virg Parker and Miller.

Irish, Tulane Battle Is Top Grid Contest

Southern Cal. To Meet Of In Big Clash

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK, Oct. 15—(AP)—There will be other college football games in the country today, but most of the attention will be focused on the battle of the twelves—Notre Dame and Tulane.

The Irish, tied only twice in their past 31 games, will rule a two-touchdown favorite when they step onto the turf at South Bend, Ind. Tulane has captured 12 straight since losing its first game of the 1948 season.

Only tight certain is that the ranks of the major unbeaten and United eleven will be depleted. Notre Dame and Tulane are among the 18 major teams which boast perfect records.

Tulsa dumped Villanova out of the select circle last night with a stunning 21-19 upset triumph.

Mythical Champ
The Notre Dame-Tulane victory may emerge as the mythical national champion since both figure to win their remaining games.

Notre Dame plays out its stein against Navy, Michigan State, Iowa, Southern California, Southern Methodist and North Carolina, while the Green wave tangles with Auburn, Mississippi State, Navy, Vanderbilt, Virginia and Louisiana State.

The Big Ten has a good program featured by the Ohio State and Michigan State. The chances are good that the victor in this one will come out on top in the conference.

Michigan, upset victim of Army last week, will be out to reinstate itself at the top of the heap at the expense of North western. Indiana takes on Iowa in another Big Nine encounter.

Ivy League Attacks
In the East, most of the attention will be centered on the Ivy league. The top attraction will pit Cornell against Yale, while in other games, Columbia tangles with Pennsylvania and Princeton entertains Brown.

Army should have no trouble knocking off Harvard, which has yet to win a game.

On the Pacific coast, California, present favorite to take conference honors, goes in against Southern California. If the Bears can overcome Southern Cal, they would only have to beat UCLA to virtually clinch top honors.

Stanford, upset last week by UCLA and Michigan visit the Washington before, meets underdog Saturday at Seattle in a game the weatherman says will be played in the rain. Washington, which got by Utah in its opener, dropped the next three to Minnesota, Notre Dame and Oregon State.

Other Pacific Coast conference games include Washington State at Idaho and Montana at Oregon State.

The top southern game of the day will pit North Carolina, the nation's sixth ranking team—and undefeated—against Wake Forest, which so far has been a disappointment. Other southern games send North Carolina State against Duke, Tennessee against Alabama and Auburn against Georgia Tech.

Other games include:
Fair West—Idaho State at Montana State, Colorado at Oregon, Santa Clara at UCLA, Colorado Mines at Colorado A. and M. (night), Denver at Utah (night), New Mexico at Hardin-Simmons (night), Utah State at Wyoming.

Riddle High Defeats Camas Valley By 44-6
Riddle high school defeated Camas Valley 44-6 at Riddle Friday afternoon, in a fourth Douglas county six-man football clash.

Four of Riddle's six touchdowns were made in a ground attack. Dick Mann, Riddle drop kick specialist, connected four times in six conversion tries.

Camas Valley's lone counter came on a long pass and fumble recovery as the whistle ended the first half.

Big Deals Feature Baseball League Following Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 15—(AP)—The World Series may be over, but baseball refuses to be crowded out of the sports pages.

For the second straight day, all three New York clubs put over deals in strengthening for next season.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, as has been their custom, were the most opulent dealers, bringing up three promising minor league farmhands to replace Marv Rackley and Dick Withman, a couple of expendable outfielders sold to rival National League clubs.

Dodger Boss Branch Rickey, who two days ago pocketed a reported $100,000 from the Chicago Cubs for pitcher Paul Minner and first baseman Preston Ward, sold Rackley to Cincinnati for $50,000 and Withman to the Philadelphia Phils for $25,000.

In unloading these second line performers, Rickey was in position to bring up catcher Steve Lembo and second baseman Everett (Rocky) Bridges from Montreal, and first baseman Dee Fondor from Mobile. All are considered first prospects.

The New York Yankees brought up Paul Hinrichs, a right-handed bonus pitcher from Kansas City, at the same time sending relief pitcher Ralph Buxton down to their American association farm club and releasing veteran Hugh Casey.

Casey, who celebrated his 36th birthday yesterday, was handed his unconditional release. He was picked up Sept. 4 after the Pittsburgh Pirates let him go. He appeared in four games with the Yankees during the last month of the season. He had a 1-0 record.

The New York Giants purchased Louis Slesater, a left-handed bonus pitcher from Jacksonville of the South Atlantic league.

Central Point Victorious Over Sutherlin 20-6

Central Point slashed through a weaker Sutherlin eleven to take Coach Orrin Hills' gridlers by a 20-6 score at Sutherlin Friday.

The Pointers gained 180 yards rushing, while Sutherlin was held to 94. Each team made six first downs.

Paradoxically, all touchdowns were made on fumbles, in an otherwise well-played game. Coach Hills remarked that the game should have been scoreless, but for the fumbles.

The visiting Central Point eleven made the first touchdown, with Robinson running over for six points after a Sutherlin fumble was snagged.

In the second quarter, Central Point's Johnson took a pass in the end zone for six more points. Ahorn's kick for extra point put the visitors ahead 13-0.

A pass to Walker netted Central Point its third touchdown as the half ended. Ahorn's kick was good again, putting the score at 20-0.

Sutherlin scored its lone tally in the final quarter, when a Central Point pass attempt was intercepted by center Jack West, who ran the ball 50 yards to paydirt.

Pat Valentino KO'd In 8th By Charles

Referee Jack Downey finished the ten count.

It was Charles' second successful defense since he beat Joe Walcott to win N.B.A. recognition as successor to Joe Louis last June. The titleholder stopped Gus Lesnevich in August.

The crowd was the largest to see an indoor fight in California. The gate receipts of $167,870 also established a new mark for the state.

The Associated press score sheet and most of the boxing writers had the champion out in front at the start of the eighth.

Referee Downey and Judge Frankie Carter, both San Franciscans, had Valentino in front by a single point. Judge Frank Manfredo of Fresno had Charles ahead by two points after the seventh.

Charles had the option of a $40,000 guarantee or 35 per cent of the gate receipts, which would give him about $45,500.

Valentino worked for a flat $5,000 guarantee.

Charles crushed Valentino's title hopes with a smashing right to the jaw. The challenger who had exchanged blow for blow in furious rallies, went down with a thud. He fell back again as

The stage was being set again. And PEACE was due to play. The audience had taken seats. And everyone was gay.

Though everyone seemed gay and bright. And knew that PEACE was fair. Her understudy had a had. Was having an affair.

PEACE was always late, of course. But everyone in every way. Until a message came that said— "A blockade on the line."

The overture was played and then. The whispering began. One said that PEACE was always slow and Un-American.

"That's a lie, and well they knew it." Another had his say: "Sure we want her in every way. Every sort of way."

"She's holding up the show too long. It's her male understudy, he's the one who's most to blame."

"A lot of things she'd like to do. Her understudy fights. He hinders her in every way and stands up for HIS RIGHTS."

"Her train is overloaded now. With stuff that should come through. There's lots of people waiting and this stuff is overdue."

"Her understudy seems to be. He is he you hate so much that you keep him on the pan!"

"You really don't know who he is! The Noramen called him Thor. Just think a minute—see the right. His hateful name is WAR."
