

House Applauds Conviction Of Red Leaders In N. Y.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15—(AP)—Applause greeted an announcement on the House floor Friday that the 11 communist leaders had been convicted in New York. The announcement was made by Rep. Quinn Tamm, who said: "The verdict firmly establishes the fact that the communist party has for its purpose the overthrow of the government by force and violence."

At the Justice department, Attorney General McGrath described the outcome as "gratifying." He sent his congratulations to the government attorneys who handled the case, and issued a statement saying: "Whatever the outcome of this case might have been, American jurisprudence would have to record that few juries have been called upon to exercise greater patience and fidelity to the in-

The Right Honorable Hector McNeil, leader of the British delegations to the United Nations, will be tonight's guest on "Meet the Press" at 8:30. SUNDAY: "Mutual Chamber Music Ensemble" replaces Ray Bloch at 3 p. m. . . . Oscar Wilde's "The Happy Prince" will be radio adapted for "The Family Theater" at 4:30, starring Vincent Price . . . "Chicago Theater of the Air" returns to KRNR Sunday night at ten.

As chief engineer, Leroy Hiatt was a most methodical and well-organized staff officer, with an eye toward directing the best in service to where it was needed most. Now, as station manager, this thought-pattern remains unaltered. Needless to say, a terrific reorganization has come about as a result of his weighty appointment to station manager.

Working on a "blue-print" based on the theory of "pleasing most of the people most of the time," Roy has made definite program revisions and additions . . . for you, the listener! situations of law and justice." The long-drawn out trial was started under the direction of attorney General Tom Clark, who now sits on the Supreme court. A major attempt of the prosecution was to obtain a clear-cut ruling by the courts that the communist party in the United States advocates the violent overthrow of the government.

Civilian Board Advised To End Army-Navy Spat

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1—(AP)—Two key congressmen proposed today that President Truman name a civilian board to referee the bitter row over defense plans which has erupted in the armed forces.

Their suggestion closely paralleled one already offered Mr. Truman by the army-navy union, an organization of present and former servicemen. The lawmakers' proposal came on the heels of the president's new conference statement yesterday that he sees no need to change the fundamentals of present defense policy.

Nevertheless, said Reps. Brooks (D-La.) and Price (d-Ill.), there is a disagreement and it should be settled. The two lawmakers are members of the House Armed Services committee.

They brought up the plan after listening for more than a week as the navy fired repeated charges that the fighting power of the fleet is being weakened, while the air force gets funds and favors and builds B-36s to carry out a kind of warfare that the admirals called wrong. Previously the air force had made the giant intercontinental bomber sound like a good thing to a lot of congressmen.

Brooks suggested to a reporter that the civilian board be named to find out who is right and settle the trouble that has boiled up in the armed forces. Price nodded agreement.

They figured impartial civilians could do a better job than in committee. Many members have served in one or the other of the armed forces and on the old House military and naval committees which now are combined.

The navy sent in its top officer, Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, to wind up its case yesterday. The Marines take over Monday. Then the big brass and civilian chiefs of the army and air force, and Secretary of Defense Johnson get their chance to sound off.

livered at the re-opening of parliament by Communist Minister of Justice Cepicka and Father Josef Palihar, a suspended Catholic priest who serves in the communist-led government as minister of health.

Both accused Msgr. Beran and his bishops of using "illegal pamphlets" to incite the nation's Catholic priests against the church control bill.

The Minister of Justice warned that when the church control measures become law the government would tolerate no opposition to them.

PRAGUE, Oct. 15—(AP)—Czechoslovakia's communist-dominated parliament Friday adopted by unanimous show of hands two bills aimed at imposing strong state control over religion, especially the Roman Catholic church.

The measures were: 1. A church control bill which would make all clergymen and bishops civil servants paid by the state and grant the government full control over all church appointments, finances and administrative affairs.

2. A bill for the establishment of a new cabinet ministry to supervise church affairs. Both laws become effective Nov. 1.

The parliamentary action was preceded by two hours of speeches sharply attacking the Vatican and the Roman Catholic hierarchy which is headed by Archbishop Josef Beran of Prague. The bitterest attacks were de-
