Junior Varsity Defeated, 7 To 0, By Myrtle Creek

Myrtle Creek varsity eked out a 7-0 win over Norm West's junlor varsity gridders, Saturday at Myrtle Creek.
Fullback James Holder made the touchdown from the two-yard line, after Bob Wilder's pass to Philip Gormely, good for 30 yards, put the hall in position for the scoring play.
Roseburg's Coach West sent in nearly three full teams, but no Roseburg combination proved effective against the Viking eleven.

The Roseburg team showed considerable i m provement in tackling while Neil Sheets and Lloyd Stumbo, both halfbacks, reportedly turned in nice performances offensively.

The Roseburg Warriors managed to get inside Myrtle Creek's 20 yard line at least twice, but a solid host club line caused the Roseburg attack to flounder and peter out.

The Warriors travel to Eugene for a 3 p.m. game Tuesday, while Myrtle Creek rests up until Sa-turday, at which time they in-vade Coach Orrin Hills' stamp-ing grounds at Sutherlin.
