Teddy Bear's Return Ends Tot's Long Crying Spell

DETROIT, Oct. 19.—(AP)—The Robert W. Wolfe family arose refreshed Monday morning after the first good night's sleep in weeks. Six-year-old Judy, with her Teddy bear back, had stopped crying. Judy lost "Jimmie" the bear while the family was vacationing in the West. Since she was one year old, Jimmie had been her constant and beloved companion. Each night the parents had lain awake listening as the little girl sobbed herself to sleep. Then her father wrote pleadingly to the automobile club of Michigan. Could they find a 10-inch, frayed Teddy bear lost somewhere in the West? Auto club agents sprang to the search and retraced the route taken by the Wolfes. At Denver they found Jimmie, cuddled in the arms of another little girl. Sunday night Judy went to sleep contentedly. Jimmie was in his accustomed place as a pillow under her head.
