TWO WOMEN CONDUCT TEXTILE DEMONSTRATION AT MELROSE UNIT MEETING

Mrs. Clarson Chitwood and Mrs. A. G. Herman conducted a demonstration on textile painting at the Melrose Home Extension unit meeting, Oct. 7 at the grange hall. Sack lunch and visiting was enjoyed at noon. During the business meeting committee chairmen and project leaders were appointed.

A Christmas party with a gift wrapping project was planned for Dec. 9 with a potluck luncheon at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Chitwood. Those attending are asked to bring a gift to wrap and wrapping material. Also bring a wrapped gift for exchange.

Those present were Mrs. Chitwood, Mrs. Herrman, Mrs. R. E. Dowener, Mrs. H. P. Conn, Mrs. D. N. Buesenbark, Mrs. J. R. Fenn, Mrs. G. E. Handy, Mrs. G. Ransome, Mrs. M. E. Jacobson, Mrs. E. R. Fenn and Mrs. Lewis, a guest.

COMMUNITY AWAITING FALL FLOWER SHOW AT METHODIST CHURCH

The Roseburg Woman's club fall flower show will be an event of the coming week. The dates for the show are Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 25 and 26 at the Methodist church with the committees being headed by Mrs. P. E. Beaver.

The public is invited to participate by entering exhibits of fall flowers, shrubs, cacti, potted plants, dried arrangements, bulb plant and candy sale. Committee chairmen said at the Woman's club meeting Tuesday that it is too late for perfect specimens of flowers but "anything colorful will be appreciated."

Those desiring to exhibit may telephone the chairmen of the various departments. Mrs. Foster Butner is chairman of decorative arrangements, fruits, flowers and foliage, telephone 51-F11.

Mrs. Velle Broadway, chairman of potted plants, may be reached at 12-Y. Mrs. Glen Wimberly is chairman of decorative shrubbery arrangements and specimens, telephone 566-J. This shrubbery should have a card giving name and small description of each. Mrs. Beaver said one of the objects of the show is to acquaint the public to shrubbery names. It is felt that this knowledge will be appreciated by the many newcomers to Roseburg and vicinity and those planning to landscape their homes.

Mrs. J. J. Kester heads the cacti, succulent and miniature arrangements. There are several fine collections of cacti and succulents around Roseburg. Those exhibiting are asked to place the name of each, if known. Mrs. Kester's number is 1141-J.

Mrs. Horace Berg is chairman of the special table. Heading the decorative dried arrangement division is Mrs. Jack West. This division offers many opportunities for arrangements. The chairman's number is 871-R.

Mrs. W. L. Carter is in charge of the bulb and plant shrubbery sale. Donations in this department are wanted. Those donating are asked to write the name and description on offerings.

A candy sale is being held in connection with the flower show and is in charge of Mrs. L. G. Twohy. Those wishing to donate candy are asked to call 360-L.

Mrs. Vernon Keel has announced that birds of various kinds, canaries, etc., will be on exhibit only the first day and evening of the show unless the weather is mild. Anyone having a bird they wish to exhibit may contact Mrs. Keel at 79-J.

This show is an annual event sponsored by the local Woman's club and draws attention from residents throughout the county. Newcomers to Roseburg will be particularly interested in viewing the large variety of flowers and shrubbery which are acclimated to southern Oregon weather.

DAUGHTER FINDS FATHER—Mel DeCovey, cafe owner at San Jose, Calif., and his daughter, Mrs. George R. Schwoob, Butte, Mont., are re-united after 31 years. They were separated in the flu epidemic of 1918 and believed each other dead. Grandpa now has two granddaughters, Marjorie 14, (in rear) and Lorna, 5, on his lap.—(AP Wirephoto).

Low-Cost Meats Sunday Treats

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Here are two less expensive meat recipes for Sunday dinner: Roast Shoulder of Lamb With Vegetable Stuffing.

(Serves 6-8 with left overs)
One medium onion, diced, 1-2 cup celery, chopped, 3 tablespoons green pepper, chopped, 3-4 cup raw carrot, grated, 2 cups soft bread crumbs, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1-2 teaspoon thyme, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 1-4 cup melted fat, 4 pounds shoulder of lamb (cut with "pocket" for stuffing).

Combine first 10 ingredients. Fill pocket of meat with stuffing. Fasten together with skewers or tie securely with cord. Brush with additional fat. Season with 2 teaspoons additional salt and 1-4 teaspoon pepper. Roast in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) allowing 45 minutes per pound.

Pan-Roasted Potatoes
Peel 8 medium potatoes and boil 10 minutes. Arrange around roast in roasting pan and bake 40 to 60 minutes, or until tender, turning occasionally and basting with fat in pan. Plan so that the meat and potatoes are done at the same time.

De Luxe Meat Loaf
(Serves 6-8)
One pound veal neck or breast, ground, or chuck beef or lamb shoulder, ground, 1-4 cups rolled oats, 2-4 teaspoons salt, 1-2 teaspoon celery salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon powdered sage, 1 cup milk, 2-3 cup canned tomatoes, 1-4 cup minced onion, 1 egg, well-beaten, 1-3 cup apple jelly, 2 teaspoons hot water, orange sections (optional).

Combine all but last 3 ingredients; pack into greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for one hour. Turn out onto baking pan. For a dressed-up Sunday touch, turn the loaf out onto a baking pan and glaze as follows: cook the apple jelly and hot water until smooth, then spoon some of this glaze over the loaf. Return to oven for 10 minutes longer. Remove and garnish with orange sections if desired. Spoon more glaze over orange sections and loaf.

SOUTH DEER CREEK GRANGE HOLDS MEETING AND PLANS DANCE
South Deer Creek Grange held a regular meeting Saturday at the grange hall with Master S. W. Van Voorst presiding. Plans were made for a costume Halloween dance to be held, Oct. 25. The public is invited. Ladies of the grange are asked to bring two pumpkin pies and sandwiches.

The Home Economics club will meet with Mrs. Arthur McGehey, Nov. 4. All members are requested to attend.

Pumona Grange will meet Oct. 29, at the Evergreen grange hall.

Grandmother, 70, Enrolls As Freshman At College

LA GRANDE, Oct. 20 —(AP)—Mrs. Grace Wright Powers, 70-year-old grandmother who has just enrolled as a college freshman, explained today that "I like school."

Until she registered at Eastern Oregon College of Education this fall, Mrs. Powers hadn't been inside a classroom since 1894. That was when she was a pupil at Union Ore.

GRANGE WILL HOLD SOCIAL NIGHT
Social night is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 22 at 8:30 o'clock at the Riversdale grange for grangers and their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hess are chairmen of the social time.

For a quickly assembled supper dish, split frankfurters lengthwise but not entirely through, and broil. Fill with hot potato salad sprinkled with finely minced parsley or with paprika. Tomato halves, broiled with the frankfurters, are a good accompaniment to this dish. For dessert, serve sponge cake squares with green applesauce and custard sauce.

Rice, cooked so that the grains are separate but tender, is delicious in a salad. Mix diced chicken, cooked drained green peas, and finely diced celery with the rice, and moisten with boiled salad dressing well-seasoned with mustard and sugar. Serve on salad greens and garnish with hard-cooked egg, green pepper, and tomato.

Send along a hot nutritious vegetable cream soup in a vacuum bottle when your youngsters take their lunch to school.

"It's education for my own enlightenment," she said. "I like school very much—and always have. But I've been too busy to go to college until now."
The white-haired lady, who books under arm, trudges twice a day up the steep hill to the campus, is taking Oregon history, typing, essentials of speech, American Literature, and English composition.
She hopes to use most of them in writing the story of her father, Dunham Wright, an Oregon pioneer who lived to the age of 100.

"Cinch Cake Mix is the finest I have ever used."
