

State Treasurer May Have To Dig In His Own Purse For Boosting Self

SALEM, Oct. 18.—(AP)—It looks like State Treasurer Walter J. Pearson is going to have to dig down in his pockets for $160.83 to pay for a piece of printing which he had the state printers do for him.

Governor Douglas McKay refused to approve the bill today, and Secretary of State Newberry, who is in Ontario today, isn't expected to, either.

The state printer, on an order from Pearson, printed 10,000 copies of a statement called "The Finances of the State of Oregon." The half-sheet contains a picture of a state check for $1,994,920, signed by Pearson. Below the check, it tells what Pearson's duties are.

The governor said he refused to approve the claim because "that isn't a legitimate expense of the state." Newberry's assistant, William E. Healy, said he didn't think his boss would approve it. Healy said it looks like a political campaign statement.

Pearson defended the document, asserting it helps people gain a better understanding of their state government. They have been handed out at democratic party booths at the state fair and other places. The Capitol guide also keeps a supply on hand.

Pearson is the only democratic member of the board of control. Governor McKay and Newberry are the other two members. It takes votes of two members to approve printing bills.

Manifold Duties Cited

The document also contains this information: "The above check was signed for you by your state treasurer as one of the many huge financial transactions annually involving approximately $300,000,000 of state funds and securities."

"Your state treasurer is your representative in: Disbursing all funds authorized by law, designating state depositories for safekeeping of state funds, collecting interest earned by the state, compiling statistics of indebtedness of the state and its subdivisions, enforcing the inheritance and gift tax laws and collecting the taxes due therefrom."

"Your state treasurer also represents you as a member of: The State Board of Control, the State Bond Commission, the State Banking board, the State Land board, the State Reclamation board, the State Printing board, other boards and commissions."

"Realizing that the business of the State of Oregon is your business, your state treasurer welcomes your inquiries and suggestions, and extends to you an invitation to visit him whenever possible."

"Compliments of Walter J. Pearson, state treasurer."

Representative Of Apple Growers Shabbily Treated At Conference

By CHARLES D. WATKINS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—(AP)—A representative of American apple growers says he was "treated as some sort of a pariah by representatives of the State department" during a trade agreement conference at Geneva, Switzerland.

Rep. Horan (R-Wash.) put into the congressional record a copy of a letter from Walter Hebert, of Yakima, Wash., named by the Pacific Northwest fruit industry as its representative to the conference.

Hebert told Horan he realized he had no official status at the conference but went there in an advisory capacity at the request of the American apple industry.

"I was first 'put in my place' by Mr. Winthrop G. Brown (a State department representative at the conference) when he learned of my presence," Hebert said. "He told me at a private dinner party given by one of the United States Department of Agriculture men in no uncertain terms where I could go—which was any place outside of Geneva."

The United States department of Agriculture boys arranged for me to have lunch with him the next day and he reiterated his statement that my presence was not wanted and no one would be allowed to advise with me on any matters under negotiation."

Snub Is Explained

Hebert said Will Clayton, representing the State department, arrived a few days later and after several tries he got a brief appointment with Clayton.

"He told me at a private dinner terms that I should not have come to Geneva without first having asked him," Hebert said. "Mr. Clayton told me they could not recognize any representatives from industry—because they would have thousands of people in Geneva trying to influence them in the negotiations."

Hebert told Horan he believed that before anything can be done by Northwest apple growers to prevent importation of Canadian apples, legislation must be enacted which will compel the State department to "recognize the ill effects of unrestricted imports on our domestic economy."

"We must stop the State department from dominating our trade policies," Horan told a reporter. "We must force them out into the open."

Oaks Amusement Park At Portland Hit By Fire

PORTLAND, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Several thousand dollars worth of skating costumes and other equipment were damaged Thursday in a fire at the Oaks amusement park.

The fire broke out in a wooden building used as a warehouse and containing warehouse space, concessions, and a small apartment. Firemen prevented the flames from spreading to the skating rink nearby.

The cause of the fire was not determined.

Automobile Production Cut Impends If Twin Steel, Coal Strikes Are Not Ended Soon

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Major automobile producers are planning cutbacks unless the nation's first twin steel and coal strikes are settled soon.

There's no indication of a settlement in the walkouts which have idled around a million workers.

Only direct government intervention seems likely to end the stalemate which is costing an estimated $38,600,000 a week in lost wages.

The loss to business firms is staggering but there's no way of arriving at the exact amount. As one example, the coal-carrying Baltimore and Ohio railroad said strikes had cost it $1,500,000 already this month.

President Truman is keeping a close watch on the situation. He said today he has no present plans of stepping in.

Ford, General Motors and Chrysler—the auto industry's "big three"—are agreed shut-downs are in prospect by mid-November if the twin walkouts continue.

General Motors will feel the pinch by the end of the month as will Chrysler.

Ford, which makes about half its own steel, will be forced to shut down most operations by about November 11 if the strikes last on. Its assembly operations could continue until November 13, a GM spokesman says some of its auto plants may go on a four-day week by October 31.

Hundreds of smaller industries face shutdowns for lack of steel.

"The zero hour is now at hand for many steel users," says the Iron Age, metalworking trade weekly magazine.

Huge Cost In Material

The twin strikes are costing the nation 1,400,000 tons of steel and 11,000,000 tons of coal each week.

Last Monday from 16,000 to 20,000 CIO United Steelworkers struck nine plants of the Aluminum company of America. That costs the nation around 7,750 tons of aluminum each week and is a body blow to fabricators who had thoughts of switching from steel to aluminum.

Cyrus S. Ching, top U. S. mediator, scheduled another meeting with U. S. Steel corporation today in New York to try and work out a plan to get big steel and steelworkers' President Philip Murray back to the bargaining table. The steel walkout is in its 20th day and the soft coal miners have been idle since September 19.

Mon C. Wallgren Approved For Federal Board Despite Sen. Cain's Bitter Attack

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—(AP)—The Senate Wednesday approved President Truman's appointment of Mon C. Wallgren as a member of the Federal Power commission.

Confirmation of the Wallgren nomination came after Sen. Cain (R-Wash.) tried vainly to head it off.

The vote was 47 to 12.

It climaxed an eight-month effort by the president to place Wallgren, former Democratic governor of Washington and former Senate colleague of Mr. Truman, in a federal job.

Cain, who called for hearings on the appointee's qualifications for the job, told the Senate that the nomination amounted to "government by crony."

It was the second time this session that Cain had made a bitter attack on Wallgren.

He began his address shortly after the Senate confirmed the nomination of James Mead, former Democratic senator from New York, to the Federal Trade commission.

Rapping Mr. Truman for naming so many former Senate associates to key government places, Cain said of the Wallgren selection:

"I feel sick when the Senate is asked to advance the cause of government by crony when we have so many other and more imperative obligations to meet."

Cain led the fight against Wallgren last March when the Senate armed services committee bottled up his nomination to the National Security Resources board. He argued then that Wallgren lacked the necessary experience for the job.

He charged yesterday that Wallgren "did not tell the truth" at hearings on the Resources board appointment. Because there have been no hearings this time, Cain said he had "no way of knowing whether he (Wallgren) would tell the truth or understand the duties for which he is being considered."

Hilton Hotel Chain To Include Portland

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Hotel magnate Conrad Hilton is planning to build hotels in Portland, Ore., Oakland, Calif., Dallas, Tex., and New Orleans.

A spokesman for the Hilton organization, Fred Joyce, said Hilton believes these cities "need a new hotel." Details are not expected to be ready for announcement for several months, Joyce said.

The Hilton chain recently bought control in the Waldorf-Astoria. It also owns the Stevens and Palmer house in Chicago, the Mayflower in Washington, Town House in Los Angeles and 11 others.

STARS AND BARS UP AGAIN

BALTIMORE.—(AP)—The famous motorist in this northernmost southern city is replacing the foxtail on his antenna with a new emblem—the Confederate flag. The hawk of balloons and other novelties is adding quantities of one-foot square Stars and Bars to his line of goods.

No one seems to be able to explain the sudden popularity of the Confederate banners here although they did return to a certain prominence in 1948's political campaign as the emblem of the States Rights Democrats. A wholesale dealer in flags here says his business in the Confederate banners has increased by about 200 per cent in the past six months.
