Confidence Game Costs Widow $2775 in Savings

PORTLAND, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Police reported a widow claimed the lost savings of $2,775 to two young women in a confidence game.

They said Mrs. Kate Ransom told of cashing bonds to post the money as evidence of "good faith" in order to share a larger amount the girls claimed they found on the street.

ROMAN ROADS IN ENGLAND

CHESTER, England.—(AP)—Two roads built by Roman legions in the 1st Century A.D. have been uncovered by archeologists excavating the site of an old Roman fortress here. The roads, one above the other, are almost directly below a modern street.

A worn coin of the Roman Emperor Vespasian and fragments of pottery found in the excavation helped the archeologists estimate when the roads were in use.

The Romans first built a fortress here about A.D. 48. Named Deva, it became an important military and commercial center and later was the permanent headquarters of one of the legions Rome stationed in Britain.

Major Springer Separated From Graves Command

PARIS, France, Oct. 21.—Major George E. Springer, of Route 2, Roseburg, Oregon, who has been chief of the operations, planning, organization registration command, European area, will be separated from the service in Paris, it was announced here. Major Springer has accepted a position with the AGRC in a civilian status.

Major Springer graduated from the University of Illinois in 1931, where he gained his bachelor of arts degree. Later, in the army, he completed courses at the U. S. army field artillery school and the U.S. army command and General Staff college.
