

Roseburg Beats Grove Lions 31-0

Visitors Prove No Match For Indian Team

Strengthened Locals Hit Pay Dirt Early On Plunge By Scott

By DAN MINDOLOVICH
The Indians of Roseburg stamped to a 31-0 victory over the Cottage Grove Lions, to win their third game this season, at Finlay field last night.

After a scoreless first inning, Cecce Sherwood's Indians crossed the goal line with a minute and 15 seconds gone in the second stanza. From that time until the final gun, the game was pretty well in Roseburg's pocket. The Indians scored three times in the second quarter and once each in the third and fourth.

Fullback Bob Scott ran across the goal line with a minute and 15 seconds gone in the second stanza. From that time until the final gun, the game was pretty well in Roseburg's pocket. The Indians scored three times in the second quarter and once each in the third and fourth.

Quarterback Ronnie Strickling, back in the fray after a siege of sickness, held the ball as Frank Weber sent it through the posts for the only conversion of the game.

Barry Kenny launched an evening of beautiful kicking by holing the ball from the 49 to Cottage Grove's 18. But the visitors could get no farther than their own 22 before Gasper had to punt.

Then Roseburg ripped back and in two plays had the ball in the end zone, with Van Horn carrying it across on a 44-yard sweep through right tackle. Weber's conversion try failed.

Three-Star Wrestling Card Offered At Armory Tonight

The coveted Pacific coast light-heavyweight wrestling crown will be at stake tonight at the Roseburg armory, where a capacity crowd is expected to witness a three-star program.

Tony Ross, the Salem villain, will defend his newly-won title against the challenge of Al Szasz, the sensational Hungarian who is rated as the favorite with Douglas county mat followers. Szasz' whip wristlocks will more than match Ross' back-breakers, according to local ringbirds.

The Yaki Kid, talented young Yaqui Indian, will return from the Sonora hills of Mexico to start a six-month engagement in the United States, and will meet Pierre Labelle, ace French-Canadian, in the semi-final attraction.

A grudge match, between Yaqui Joe, manager and tutor of the Kid, and Leo Karlinko, the "Mad Russian," who staged a blistering brawl before veterans at the Roseburg hospital some months ago.

The opener gets under way at 8:30 p. m., with Elton Owen as referee for all three bouts.

promised land came as the clock showed 3:32 left of the half.

Gasper had kicked to his 45 and Van Horn hustled it to the Cottage Grove 33. A pass from Ronnie Strickling slipped through Frank Olsen's mitts, but on the next play, Scott scrambled over left guard for 10 yards and a first down. Van Horn slashed over right tackle for another 13 yards, and a first down, then Scott crunched through for a one-yard stab. Again Van Horn took the leather and stomped down field dodging and jumping all the way for his second and Roseburg's third touchdown.

Fail to Gain
In the third quarter, the visitors controlled the ball for four plays after which Roseburg took it—and kept it—until they scored their fourth touchdown.

The Indians garnered five first downs on the touchdown try, penetrating from their own 28. Fullback Scott was the wheel in the march, ticking off 22 yards in four stabs, then galloping across from the one-foot mark to put his team ahead 25-0.

Scott had plenty of help, however, with Ronnie Strickling taking to the air for two perfect connections. Dale Blanch took one aerial blast for an 11-yard gain, then Frank Olsen made good on an earlier bobbie by grasping the air-borne spheroid for a 26-yard thrust.

Roseburg's final tally came on the first play in the fourth quarter. The touchdown situation was manufactured in the dying minutes of the third, when Barry Kenny romped off 15-yards going around left end after Lloyd Stumbo took Gasper's kick from his own 42 to the visitor's 43.

Then Strickling went into action again, throwing from his 30 to Blackie, who rattled to the Cottage Grove one-yard line.

Strickling Scores
The gun put the ball on the opposite end of the field, as the quarter ended, and Strickling took it across on a quarterback sneak.

At this point, Cecce Sherwood let everyone, who hadn't, get in the act.

The advantage shifted from one team to the other during the remainder of the game, with neither team getting closer to touchdown territory than his opponent's 24.

The game was marked with some jolting penalties, although none figure in the scoring. Cottage Grove took a 15-yard setback when a long pass from Mickey Coen to Gregor Walworth failed to click due to a Cottage Grove interference. Roseburg received an equally severe setback for roughing a passer.

Late in the fourth quarter, the game took on humorous proportions when both teams intercepted the other's passing effort. Right half Boggs, snipped Mickey Coen's toes, then Gasper's pass was taken by Coen. Coen's next aerial try was snagged by Hayes, who managed to hang onto the ball.

The halftime entertainment was provided by grade school footballers, with two games going

Opening Of Game Bird Season Lures Army Of Hunters

PORTLAND, Oct. 22.—(P)—Oregon's nimble hunters turned their attention from deer to upland game birds and waterfowl yesterday.

The season opened on ducks, geese, pheasant, and quail simultaneously at noon today, with good shooting prospects.

Thousands of hunters jammed the Klamath Falls region, ready to start firing on the marshes and grain fields at the stroke of noon.

The State Game commission reported an unusually heavy concentration of ducks and geese at Chewaucan, the public shooting grounds near Paisley.

The best pheasant season in years was predicted by game officials. They expected the biggest kills in Umatilla and Malheur counties.

The quail situation looked encouraging, too. Enough of the birds were reported to enable the state game commission to raise the bag limit from five to eight a day, and from 15 to 24 for the season.

Oregon has a split waterfowl season this year: from Oct. 21 to Nov. 9, and again from Dec. 19 to Jan. 7.

The quail season runs from Oct. 21 to Oct. 30 in Eastern and the pheasant season varies: Oct. 21 to Nov. 9 in Malheur county; Oct. 21 to Oct. 30 in Eastern and Southern Oregon; and Oct. 21 to Oct. 26 in Western Oregon, including Klamath county.

The summer lake area has an extra long pheasant season: Oct. 21 to Nov. 9, and Dec. 19 to Jan. 7.

The band formed a fiddle, while the majorettes, dressed in their pneumonia leathers, formed the bow. To the tune of "Turkey in the Straw," the girls did the rear marches, while the bandmen and ladies kept time by bobbing up and down, in unison.

Lineup:
Cottage Grove: McFee, F.; Wick, C.; Chapman, M.; McBe, J.; Bue, R.; Walcott, W.; Gasper, W.; Hilliker, W.; Wolford, I.; Hayes, R.; Mooney, M.; Martin, S.; Stuart, H.; Gidner, W.
For Roseburg: Barrow, Coen, Stumbo, McKinney, Ellis, Weber, Rauchert, Laws, Wadsworth, Rowe, Scorer. Officials: John Tomen, Doug Caven, Bill Evans.

U. S., and Tito Slurred

MOSCOW, Oct. 22.—(P)—The Russian government newspaper, Izvestia, Friday printed a cartoon picturing Yugoslavia's Premier Marshal Tito as a dog being led into the U. S. Security council by the United States. The dog firmly gripped a dollar in its mouth. A verse accompanying the cartoon said:

"Here for the sake of clarity is pictured an entrance to the Security council and how Tito is being led into it. Tito—the American hireling."

SCHENECTADY, N. Y.—(P)—General Electric company production can't keep up with current consumer demand, GE President Charles E. Wilson reports. Wilson said in a report to stockholders that irrespective of the steel strike "we will be unable to meet all production requirements for the balance of the year."

He reported a five percent increase in net sales for the first nine months of the year. The total was $1,190,372,464 compared with $1,137,935,052 for the same period last year.

Grid Greats Will Be Tested In Tilts Today

Oregon-Southern Cal. Contest To Be Watched; Gophers Meet Wolverines

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(P)—After the happenings of the past two weeks when the elite were tumbled on all sides, the kingspins of college football—what remains of them—were looking to today's games with anything but optimism.

For example, in what easily could turn out to be the top contest of the day, undefeated, untied Minnesota continued its quest for a Rose Bowl spot by visiting Michigan at Ann Arbor. The Wolverines, rated at the top in pre-season forecasts, still are dangerous even though they have suffered two straight defeats. Gopher Coach Bernie Bierman regards this one as probably the toughest in his march to the bowl.

Then there is the case of California, which is shooting to represent the Pacific Coast conference in the Rose Bowl. California meets the University of Washington, and must hurdle this one to keep its top record clear. In addition, there is another stumbling block.

UCLA, which also boasts a clean conference record. The Uclans meet Washington State.

Other coast conference tilts pit Oregon against Southern California, Oregon State against Stanford and Idaho against Montana. Besides the Minnesota-Michigan game, action in the Big Ten includes Northwestern-Iowa, Illinois-Purdue and Ohio State-Wisconsin.

In the east, the top games will send Army against Columbia at West Point and Princeton against Cornell at Ithaca. N. Y. Army is supposed to win as it pleases over Lou Little's Lions, but Cadet Coach Earl (Red) Blaik has not forgotten that the same situation existed two years ago. Columbia won that one.

Another eastern game attracting considerable attention is the Philadelphia affair between unbeaten Pennsylvania and twice-beaten Navy. The Middies have faced some tough opponents, and a Penn victory would bolster their rating.

In the Big Seven, four teams that have lost a conference game start to go into action. Oklahoma plays Nebraska and Missouri travels to Iowa State. Undefeated Kentucky takes on Southern Methodist, which will be without the services of the injured Doak Walker. Tulane, co-leader in the Southeastern conference with Kentucky, plays Auburn.

Capot, Coaltown Meet

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.—(P)—Capot and Coaltown—magic names of the turf—meet next Friday in the $15,000 winner-take-all Pimlico special. Greentree trainer John Gaver quickly affirmed the speedy Capot would be at the post after Baltimore farm informed the Maryland jockey club last night that Ponder would not be entered.

Grid Gossip In Northwest Loop

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 22.—(P)—There was joy (junior grade) in Vandalville today. Idaho's Frosh football team made it a gold star season by whipping their traditional yearling rivals from Washington State college, 13-7.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 22.—(P)—If their Frosh team is any signpost, watch out for the University of Portland Pilots on the gridiron next year. The Pilot Yearlings romped to an easy 40-0 win over the Oregon State Rooks yesterday.

Jack Owens tossed three touch-down passes. Bill Brief bucked across two more and Bill Connolly ran 33 yards for the sixth tally.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 22.—(P)—Lewis & Clark's rugged Pioneers made it a disheartening Whitman college homecoming yesterday by trouncing the Missionaries, 32-7, on Borleske field.

SEATTLE, Oct. 22.—(P)—The Oregon Ducks and Washington Pups, both unbeaten in two starts this season, clash this afternoon in the Washington stadium. Oregon edged the young Huskies, 25-24, in their football duel last year.

Del Baker Eyes Offer Of Major League Return

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 22.—(P)—Baker Thursday turned down an offer to manage Pacific Coast league baseball clubs for a big time farm team job with the chance to return eventually to major league management, the Sacramento Union says.

The Union reports Baker's new affiliation—"a key job in a major league chain"—will be announced in about 10 days and that it will carry a salary of at least $17,500 a year. Baker turned down here. It speculates that he will turn up with the Boston Red Sox system.

Bakers Thursday turned down an offer to return as pilot of the Sacramento baseball club. The Union said he also has turned down a bid to manage the Seattle Rainiers.

Vandalism Taboo Put On OSC-Oregon U. Students

CORVALLIS, Oct. 22.—(P)—The men's deans at Oregon and Oregon State approve of school spirit, but want the lads to take it easy on their rivals. OSC Dean Dan W. Poling and Oregon director of Men's affairs Vergil S. Fogdall announced a "peace pact" aimed at discouraging vandalism prior to the annual civil war football game. The teams meet Nov. 19 at Eugene. Students involved in any damage to property or individuals will be suspended, they said.

Felton's Decision Over Gavilan Gets Severe Criticism

DETROIT, Oct. 22.—(P)—East side Detroit, which gave Joe Louis and Sugar Ray Robinson to the boxing world, had a new fist star today—a clever young Negro welterweight named Lester Felton.

Felton's star was beclouded, however, by circumstances surrounding his upset victory over the highly regarded Kid Gavilan of Cuba in a 10-round fight at Olympia last night. Upstart followed.

The 20-year-old Detroit was awarded a severely criticized split decision after he outran Gavilan for practically the entire 10 rounds before 13,184 fans who paid a gross gate of $29,790. Gavilan at 145-14 had a half pound advantage.

Gavilan, ranked as the No. 1 contender for Robinson's welterweight crown, was a 3-1 favorite at ringside, but he spent practically the whole fight in a futile effort to corner Felton.

Felton used to be one of Gavilan's sparring partners in New York and the experience he gained in those hours in the gym paid off for him in a big way.

He scurried backwards, flicking out a long left to bother Gavilan considerably, and it was only in the 8th and 10th that the Detroit stolid stood for some toe-to-toe slugging.

The scarp was supposed to be just another stopover for the busy little Gavilan who beat Beau Jack at Chicago Oct. 14 and has a date to meet Steve Belloise in a 10-rounder at Cleveland Oct. 31.

Western League Baseball May Come To Eugene

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 22.—(P)—Eugene's school board will meet Monday night to consider leasing the stadium here for a Western League baseball club.

Frank Burrell, a San Jose, Calif., businessman, has asked to lease the park so that he can bring the Bremerton Franchise to Eugene.

Joe Gordon of the Cleveland Indians has also been conferring with the school board on negotiations.
