

Labor's Drive For Pensions Will Force Govt. Adoption Of Townsend Plan, Solon Says

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Downey (D-Calif.) predicts that labor's drive for pensions will force the government to adopt the principles of the Townsend plan.

Downey said that Senate advocates of more liberal old age pensions will seek next year to write the Townsend plan into the house-passed social security bill.

Arthur De Mott Assumes Position As Navy Recruiter

Arthur DeMott, aviation electronics chief, has assumed the position of Navy recruiter in Roseburg. He comes here from San Diego, where he also was in the recruiting service.

DeMott succeeds William Forhan, who was transferred to carrier based sea duty recently.

With DeMott's assignment here, came the announcement that the Navy recruiter is authorized to spend up to 75 per cent of his time in recruiting men for the Naval Reserve program.

Advantage of belonging to the Naval Reserve, he pointed out, is that it gives anyone who is Navy-minded a chance to start his retirement program, should he intend to join the regular navy later.

Naval reservists are also given regular advancement in ratings and a priority on enlistments when openings in the regular navy occur, DeMott said.

DeMott is making his home temporarily on S. Pine street, with his wife and a two-month-old daughter.

"I am still convinced," Downey said, "that the fundamental principles of the Townsend plan are right."

The principles, he said, are to have a "flat sum of $75 to $150 a month paid as a matter of right, and not charity, to every unemployed person at age 65 in the case of men and at age 60 to 62 in the case of women."

Such a plan, he said, involving expenditures of $7,000,000,000 to $8,000,000,000 a year, "could only be financed by a widely spread tax extracted from the wealth of the nation."

"Labor's push for pensions, with various unions competing for the best type of pension, inevitably will drive the government to some plan such as this," Downey said.

The house-passed social security bill would broaden the coverage and increase benefits of the present old age and survivors insurance.

Financed, as the present system, by payroll taxes, the tax on employer and employee would be increased from the present 1 per cent each to 1 1/2 per cent in 1950, 2 per cent in 1951, 2 1/2 in 1952, 3 in 1956, and 3 1/4 in 1970.

Downey said this still would require needy retired persons to depend upon state old age pension systems for additional funds to meet necessary living expenses.

More Members Desired By Retail Credit Assn.

Members of the Retail Credit association will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Umpqua hotel Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.

All current members are asked to attend and to bring a prospective member as a guest.

Robert Rennie, president, reminded present members that the organization is still in the growing stages. Before the RTA can do the job for which it was formed, Rennie said, its membership must be enlarged.

The Retail Trade association extends membership to every retail merchant in the area who grants credit to customers.

Patrolman Prevents Serious Fire At Plant

Merchant Patrolman W. I. Hebard revealed that quick action by his son, Kenneth, also a merchant patrolman, may have prevented a serious fire at the Cooper Implement company late Friday night.

Discovery of burning paint thinner at the plant sent young Hebard speeding to the Roseburg fire department, where he made the report. Firemen brought the blaze under control after removing the paint tank from the building.

TYPHOID CASES REPORTED

EUGENE—(AP)—A third case of typhoid near here brought a warning from health authorities today for 25 families northwest of here to take inoculations. The most recent case was that of a 14-year-old boy. All have been in the same area, where about 75 persons get their water from wells.

KIDS AND DOGS were much in evidence at Nielsen's Market Sunday and competition was rough in the annual Mutt Show. Mutts, mongrels and pedigrees were mixed together in grand confusion as 97 dogs competed for prizes in ten classes. Pictured at upper left is one of the winners, "Pudgie", a combination pekinese and toy terrier, whose ability to perform tricks gave her a first in that division and brought smiles to the face of her young master, David Vineyard. Picture at right shows one cold little entrant who slept through the whole competition. The little girl is Linda Carnahan, aged 6. The sleeping beauty is month-old "Tagalong", whose breed was given by her mistress as "just puppy." Lower photo shows two entrants' regard for their competitors. "Yatz," German boxer held by Brice Nielsen and his master, Robert McDermott (center), quizzically looks down his nose at one of the smallest dogs entered, a toy terrier and chihuahua mixture appropriately named "Tiny," held by her master, Tom Keel. CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 20 — The field of 23 candidates for homecoming queen has been cut down to five now, with the remaining freshman women consisting of the homecoming court. Among those remaining in the race for homecoming queen is Joan Rutter, a 1949 graduate of Roseburg high. She is representing Snell hall, one of the women's dormitories on the campus.

The homecoming queen will be chosen Thursday night, but her identity will not be disclosed until Oct. 28, when she will be introduced at the midnight show in connection with the homecoming. The queen and her court will also be introduced during the half-time entertainment of the OSC WSC football game and at the student body dance, both on Saturday.

The Rook rally squad was chosen at a freshman class meeting Wednesday with Joan Rutter as a member. She was the yell queen for Roseburg high in her senior year. The yell squad will make its debut Friday afternoon. Jack Mathis, also of Roseburg, goes into the defensive lineup against the University of Portland Freshman for the "Rooks" second game of the season.

Bill Brady, Marilyn Moser, and Dick Horne make up the lead parts in the speech department production, "Storm in a Teacup," scheduled for Nov. 10, 11 and 12. E. S. Cortright, director, announced.

Brady is a 1949 graduate of Roseburg high. He will play Mr. Thompson, the pompous proctor. "Storm in a Teacup" is a satire on politics and revolves around Patsy, a dog, and the plight into which he is thrown. Patsy symbolizes the individual in conflict with the totality of government.

S.A.L.E.M.—(AP)—Oregon's total employment is still at near-record low levels, but unemployment is serious, too, the state unemployment commission reports.

On October 1, the commission said, there were 36,000 jobless persons in the state, compared with 21,000 a year ago. And the commission said the number of unemployed probably is considerably greater now than it was on October 1.

It blames the decline on shut-downs in the lumber industry and the end of the harvest season.

Have You Rheumatism or Neuritis?

Read This

About eight years ago I was living in San Diego. At that time I was 78 years old and in a critical condition. My legs were badly swollen, ankles had sores on them and between my toes on both feet were raw sores. I tried many remedies and Doctors and got no relief. I finally heard of a Doctor in the Medical Building who said that he had been with the Mayo Bros. for six years. He told me right away that my trouble was poor or no circulation in my feet, and also told me that he could help me.

I was put to bed for three weeks with my head six inches below my feet. At the end of the time my sores were all healed and I was very grateful.

He then told me that I would have to sleep the rest of my days, with my head below my feet. I did this for more than a year. It was a misery but it kept me out of trouble.

One evening after I was undressed I got to looking at my feet, all red and slightly swollen. The idea came to me, "why not slick your feet straight up and massage them." I laid back on the bed, stuck both feet straight up and commencing at the toes I used both hands, putting on pressure downwards clear to my body for about ten minutes. My feet and legs had become perfectly white, showing that all of the blood had been worked out of them, and when blood came back it no doubt was the same kind of blood as surged in the rest of the body.

I have followed this method for about three years every night and while my feet still get red and slightly swollen I have had no sores on them. Before I had this treatment I had on both feet soft and hard corns. They are all gone. There is no doubt about stale and poisonous blood settled in the feet, poor circulation or non causing. Such misery as Rheumatism, Neuritis, Arthritis, Varicose Veins and hardening of the Arteries and in many cases Gangrene and perhaps amputation of the feet.

I told a friend who had a bad case of Diabetes and he got relief right away.

This idea is no cure but if you follow it faithfully, it will keep you out of trouble.

There is another cause of Rheumatic pains which also comes from the feet. It is the falling of the metatarsal arch. Poor circulation may be the cause of this.

A Friendly Old Timer.
