Word has been received of the death of William "Gus" Grubbe Monday. Mr. Grubbe was a brother of the late Edwin Grubbe. Mr. and Mrs. William Binder and family went on a trip last week. They left Thursday and drove to Portland via the coast route, visiting the sea lion caves and the aquarium. Friday they took in the Pacific International Livestock show. Saturday they motored up the Columbia river highway to Bonneville, where they watched a ship go through the locks. Sunday they stopped in Salem and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hancock.

Mrs. Kate B. Cain has returned from Roseburg where she has been visiting her niece and nephews Mr. and Mrs. George Rooke. Later this week Mrs. Cain will return to Blue River where she is employed.

Mrs. Tom Blossom Kelley and daughter, Sharon of Richmond, Calif. are visiting at the William Cheever home.

Mrs. Arthur Clemo was called to Albany by the death of her mother-in-law Mrs. Clemo, Sr.

Mrs. Kenneth Madison taught the fifth graders Wednesday, so Mrs. Huckens could attend Mrs. Clemo's funeral at Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Grubbe and daughters have returned from a hunting trip to Timber, Ore. They brought back a three-point and a four-point buck.

Harry Smith is visiting his mother Sarah Jane Smith.

Mrs. Reed Moore is reported feeling miserable at home. She was in an accident last week and was badly shaken up.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Swift and family have moved to Reedsport where Mr. Swift is employed at the Reedsport market.

Mr. and Mrs. George Costa who have been living at Sawyer Rapids have gone to Washington for the winter.

Mrs. Jim Haines has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Fay Madison at Tillamook.

Joan Rutter is Finalist As Homecoming Queen

Joan Rutter, popular Roseburg Miss, is on her way to capturing new laurels at Oregon State college. She was recently selected as one of five finalists to run for homecoming queen at the Washington-OSC football game, slated for Oct. 29.

Pictures of the finalists will hang in a prominent place on the campus to give students an opportunity to make their choice. Although the queen will be chosen Thursday of next week, her identity will be secret until the night of the game.
