Authoress Says Her Book Was Dictated By Priest Who Died 9 Million Years Ago

LONDON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—British author Frances Dale did the typing, but she insisted today that her last book really was written by a priest who has been dead thousands and thousands of years.

He lived, so said his ghost, on the continent of Atlantis which sank in the Atlantic ocean a long time ago.

So certain is the 40-year old writer that the book which fairly flew from her finger tips is none of her work that she told her astonished publisher that she will accept no royalties. Just a typist's fee is all she wants.

"I can't explain it," said Miss Dale, who has written numerous novels, children's books and a cook book. "But a voice inside me said 'write this down' and I just typed with exhausting speed. How that chap could dictate!"

The voice, she explained, identified itself as being that of a priest named Armatius, and he warned of dangers confronting civilization. She said she understood him to say he'd been dead nine million years. Too much materialism and selfishness are what's wrong in this age, said the old Atlantean. Miss Dale put it all down, and the book is a collection of thoughts about modern morality.

"I don't pretend to understand it," said publisher Andrew Dakers. A lot of people believe in the story of Atlantis. Some Britons even have tried to promote an expedition to the middle of the Atlantic to take soundings there.

thinking they can prove the continent actually existed and actually sank.

Doukhorbor Area Power Lines Are Blasting Targets

TRAIL, B. C., Oct. 25.—(CP)—Police reported Monday an attempt was made early Sunday to blow up seven power lines near Brilliant, B. C., in the heart of the Doukhorbor country, 20 miles north of here.

Charges of gunpowder were inserted in holes bored in the poles. One pole was blown from its base, and six others damaged but not felled by the blasts.

The lines carry power from the Kootenay river dams of the West Kootenay Power and Light company and the Consolidated Mining and Smelting company.

The brilliant plant was closed while the blown pole was replaced, but there was no serious interruption in the power supply to the big industrial plants near Trail.

Brilliant is the headquarters of the Sons of Freedom, radical branch of the Orthodox Doukhorbors whose leader Peter (the lordly) Verigin was killed in a train bombing 25 years ago at Farron, B. C.

The Kootenay valley has been the scene of many Doukhorbor acts of violence, including fire raids which took heavy property toll. For these, the Sons of Freedom were blamed.

A strange religious sect, the Doukhorbors came from Russia early in the century, seeking a haven from religious persecution.

Fears of new violence in the valley have been expressed recently as the Orthodox Doukhorbors prepared to observe the death of Verigin. He died Oct. 29, 1924.

NITRATE FROM NORWAY
SEATTLE, Oct. 25.—(AP)—The Pacific northwest's first postwar shipment of calcium nitrate from Norway will arrive late this week aboard the motorship Abraham Lincoln.

Before the war, the product was widely used throughout the area by fruit, berry and truck farmers.

The day lily's name springs from the fact that each flower lasts only a day.

Jaycees Favor Community Chest Drive Exclusively; Hear Talk By Rev. MacArthur On European Tour

The Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce last night adopted a resolution endorsing the current Community Chest drive. The resolution further stated that Roseburg Jaycees would "refuse to participate in or contribute to any other drive that could generally be included within the scope of the community chest."

The resolution read: "Whereas, it is the opinion of the Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce that to fulfill the charitable needs of the community all organizations should align themselves and their energies with the COMMUNITY CHEST; and—

"Whereas, this same feeling has been expressed through ballot to the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce in which One Hundred Seventeen (117) members reported 85 percent in favor of a one-package deal through the Community Chest; therefore be it—

"Resolved, That it is our desire to endorse and actively participate in the current Community Chest campaign and to refuse to participate in or contribute to any other drive that could generally be included within the scope of the Community Chest."

Announcement was made by Chairman Keith Custer of plans for the forthcoming fourth annual Neevallah parade, to be held on the streets of Roseburg the night of October 31.

Custer said the Knights of Pythias drum and bugle corps and one other band would participate in the annual costume parade.

European Conditions Told
Reverend Walter A. MacArthur's description of conditions in Europe, as he saw them in a recent tour of eight countries, covering a period of 11 weeks and in ity program makes England a sorry picture. He told how the debris is cleared in London, but lack of money to rebuild presents a problem here.

"Thought provoking is the plight of children of Europe," Rev. MacArthur said. "Malnutrition and other diseases have transformed Europe's children into a tubercular, dirty and wretched group."

The youngsters have never seen soap. He cited the case of a boy who contemplated his dirty hands before sitting down to a meal. He noticed they were dirtier than his younger brothers'.

"They should be dirtier—you're two years older than I," the younger brother retorted.

Color slides of scenes in Europe supplemented Rev. Mr. MacArthur's talk.

Chairman Warren Ward announced the first of a series of Jaycee-sponsored forum broadcasts is scheduled for airing over station KRNR tonight. The topic will be a discussion of the garbage rate structure in Roseburg.

Representatives from the local garbage company are scheduled to be queried by Jaycees during the broadcast.

Four Suits For Money Are Filed

The following money suits have been filed in circuit court:

Western Equipment company vs. Orlen C. Davis. Plaintiff demands judgment for $250 and interest, plus $75 attorney's fees, for money allegedly due from defendant for machinery purchased. In addition, the plaintiff asks full recovery of goods sold, or collection of unpaid balance due, plus interest.

Loran O'Neal vs. Roseburg Lime Products company. Plaintiff demands judgment for $4,658.61, plus interest and costs, for an alleged balance due on services performed.

Alan C. Williamson vs. Ralph L. Tozier. On the first cause of action, plaintiff demands judgment for $3,750, plus interest and $400 attorney's fees, for alleged default on payment for services rendered. The sum of $799.41 and interest is asked in the second cause of action. In addition, costs and disbursements are asked on both causes.

Loren Dale Raymond vs. The London Assurance, Inc. Plaintiff demands judgment for $47, plus interest and $200 attorney's fees. He alleges the defendant corporation has not reimbursed him for damage done to an automobile owned by the plaintiff and insured by the defendant.
