Longshoremen Ask Judge Change At The Dalles

THE DALLES, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Efforts to get rid of longshore pickets here by court injunction were halted Tuesday when Longshoremen asked for a different judge.

The port of The Dalles had asked that CIO longshoremen be restrained from picketing or otherwise interfering with port activities.

Leo Levenson, attorney for the longshoremen, filed an application asking that a different judge than Circuit Judge Malcolm W. Wilkinson be assigned. The application was a straight request, without any reason given.

Its effect was to halt all proceedings until the state supreme court acts on the application.

Pickets continued to stroll in front of the Port commission's riverfront terminal.

The longshoremen, who prevented unloading of a Hawaiian pineapple barge, last week said they no longer had a dispute with the pineapple company but were holding the Port commission unfair in failing to hire CIO longshoremen for deepwater cargo unloading. Locally hired non-union workers had initiated the barge unloading effort last month.

So many of the fairer sex have requested pictures of Bob Moon, emcee of the week-day "Ladies First" ailer (11:00-11:30 a. m.), that something had to be done about it. Moon celebrated his 30th birthday on Monday, October 31. To anyone sending a birthday greeting to the youthful emcee, the net will mail a double photo—one as he looks today, the other as he looked 30 years ago. Listeners should mail their requests to Bob Moon, "Ladies First," Mutual-Don Lee Broadcasting System, Hollywood 28, California.

A hankering to sing and to be heard or seen, plus help from a friendly usher at Don Lee who furnished a left-over ticket to the TV version of "What's the Name of that Song?" proved out for one Hollywood show-business aspirant. Combined, they spelled success for Tony DuGuy, 28. After one audience participation showing on the show, he was signed for a series of eight western movies by Republic Pictures and Lippert Productions, Alice Coulter, of the Vitt Agency, was televising that night and immediately began checking on Tony. He was signed for pictures—but, typically, not in a singing capacity. He'll play "heavies" in the westerns.

Carlton E. Morse's "I Love a Mystery" is gaining avid listeners as an across-the-board evening whodunit. It's strictly a translation of the soap-opera into the thriller-diller classification, grooved for a masculine market. First episode on KRNR was Monday, October 17, with a trio of heroes, who, in the space of fifteen breathless minutes had involved themselves in enough adventure to easily absorb an hour's activity. The chapter ended of course with a dyed-in-the-wool cliff-hanger finale. The whole affair left the cast breathless. Producer-writer Morse got across some differentiation of character among his three insurance investigators: Jack Packard plays a suave leader; Jim Bowles, a westerner with an eye for femmes, and Tony Randall, a not-very-bright strongman. "I Love a Mystery" is a Monday through Friday feature on KRNR . . . 10:30 to 10:45 p. m.

Lady Retrieves Auto Unit, But It's Manhole Cover

OTTAWA, Canada, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Mrs. Fred Browne said she stopped and got out when she heard a clanging noise under her brand new car.

The car seemed to be running all right without the big steel disk lying on the road but she decided to take it home for her husband to look at.

"I just tugged and pulled," she said, explaining how she loaded it into the car trunk. "I guess I was so scared I'd wrecked the car that I could have lifted almost anything."

Hubble took one look at the big steel disk and suggested she take the manhole cover back to the city works department.

Iceland Vote Returns Show Communist Loss

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Oct. 26.—(AP)—First vote returns in Iceland's general election Tuesday showed a loss for the Communists, who had campaigned against this island nation's membership in the North Atlantic pact.

The Communist party, which held 10 seats in the last 52-member Althing (parliament), lost one seat to the Progressive (agra-

Truman Urged To End Coal Strike

(By the Associated Press)
Soft coal retailers said Tuesday that thousands of people in hundreds of cities are unable to buy fuel for home heating.

They urged President Truman to act immediately to end the coal strike. They said the coal "emergency" is greater than that in the steel strike.

A strongly worded telegram, dispatched to the President by J. Atlee Schafer, president of the American Retail Coal Association, declared that "a national emergency in the bituminous coal consuming area exists right now," and if the government fails to take immediate effective action to end the strike, "tragic consequences for the people of the United States" will follow.

The word at the White House was that the President still had no plans to intervene in the disputes.

CLAM DIGGER'S HEAVEN
SEASIDE, Oct. 25.—(AP)—The beaches here are providing a clam-digger's heaven.

Minus tides, occurring after nightfall, are exposing clam-filled sands that enable amateurs to dig the limit of 36 within a few minutes.

Lighting their way with gas lanterns, commercial diggers have been taking out catches up to 100 pounds. The unusually low tides will continue through Wednesday.
