

RHS Favored To Win Tonight Over Bulldogs

Visitors' Record So Far Not Good, But Local "11" Not Up To Full Strength

Some live-wire gridiron action is slated for tonight at Finlay field, when the Bulldogs from North Bend tussle with the Indians of Roseburg in a district clash starting at 8 o'clock.

On paper, the Indians should take this one, but there's no telling what the final score will be if the near cellar-dwelling coast city club decided—all of a sudden—to come up for air.

North Bend—under Coach Ben Holcomb—has had tough sledding most of the season and is about due for a win. Roseburg's Cece Sherwood knows this only too well and he isn't too happy about the prospects.

Numerous injuries and illnesses leave gaping holes in the Roseburg line, while the visitors will be backed with experienced and lettered players.

With such heavies as Don Parr and Diz Burnett expected to be out for tonight's tussle, Sherwood may rely on an aerial blast by Quarterbacks Ronnie Strickling and Mickey Coen to turn the trick tonight.

The visitors also favor the air lanes for touchdowns and fans are warned to be prepared to suffer a stiff neck from watching

Papooses Battle Medford Gridders Here Saturday

The Papooses of Junior high meet Medford in a gridiron clash at Finlay field Saturday at 2 p.m.

The visitors will be out to give Coach Hod Turner's boys a very bad time of it again. Last week Medford beat the Papooses by a decisive 38-12 score.

The Roseburg eleven will try to make up in spirit what they lack in size. Coach Frank Purdy, who is assisting Turner, said the Medford junior high school team is "bigger than the Indian variety."

They hope to repeat this weekend—only this time, the Papooses vow to stay ahead!

Charles Cancels Tour To Accept Movie Offer

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Ezzard Charles has a chance to appear in a motion picture and has canceled his northwest tour to become an actor.

Friend Sommers, advance man for the National Boxing association's world heavyweight champion, said four appearances were canceled. Charles was to box in Spokane Nov. 2, Vancouver, B.C., Nov. 3, Seattle Nov. 4 and Boise Nov. 7.

"CHUMMING" OUT

TUCSON, Ariz.—(AP)—"Chumming," the practice of placing in the water fish, parts of fish, or other material for the purpose of attracting fish to a particular area, has been banned in Arizona by an order of the Arizona Game and Fish commission.

Chumming is prohibited in many states, and growth of the practice on heavily fished waters of the state brought forth the regulation prohibiting it in Arizona.

Because of his early efforts with KDKA, Pittsburgh, the late Dr. Frank Conrad still is rated as the "father of broadcasting."

Grid Gossip In Northwest Loop

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Oregon State college gridders show for the equalizer against Washington State college Saturday, but Coach Kip Taylor is unhappy.

The OSC mentor doesn't like the rain which seems certain to hang on until game time. "It'll ruin our aerial game," moaned Taylor.

An Oregon State victory Saturday would even the series between the two schools at 18 wins each.

Sutherland, Coquille Grid Teams Slated For Clash

Sutherland's high school Bulldogs tangle with the Coquille Red Devils in a grid test between a powerful 'A' school and a weak 'B' school fielding its first 11-man football team this year. The game will be played at Sutherland, Saturday, at 2 p. m.

Coach Orrin Hills related his boys are not too optimistic about this one, but they intend to put everything they have into it, with the hope of scoring a possible upset.

Possible starting lineup:

Sutherland	LE	Coquille
Beamer	LT	Schweinfurt
Enyart	LG	Scolari
Norton	C	Groves

California Is Rated To Win Over UCLA

Victory Would Cinch Rose Bowl Bid; O. S. C. Will Battle Cougars

By BOB MYERS
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Once again the over-worked crucial boys up in the athletic affairs of the University of California and the tightening race for the Rose Bowl in the Pacific Coast conference.

The unbeaten Bears play UCLA and the contest, the top one in the conference this week, may be a wilder thing than the Bay people suspect.

California has won five straight games this season in its bid for a return engagement in the Rose Bowl New Year's day. Two of the triumphs, over Southern California and Washington, are of the all-important conference variety.

The UCLA's have not been beaten in four conference engagements, their single loss to independent Santa Clara meaning nothing in the rich Rose Bowl scheme of things.

Thus the "stop Cal" campaign here dominates the coast scene, but there are other tussles of interest on tap.

Southern California's Trojans, praying for a UCLA win over Cal because they get a crack at the UCLA's Nov. 19, figure to hand unhappy Washington its fourth defeat of the conference race. This one is at Seattle.

Stanford can look for a rough afternoon at Palo Alto with Santa Clara.

Oregon State and Washington State, each with two wins and three defeats, play to see which one will emerge with a .500 average.

Oregon, which whipped USC for the first half and then folded up completely, travels into Big Ten territory to play Iowa; Idaho takes a breather with Portland University at Boise, and Montana engages eastern Washington at Missoula.

Off their records, California is favored to get past UCLA. The Berkeley Bears whipped Santa Clara, 21-7, and Santa Clara blanked UCLA, 14-0. California has far the better offensive and defensive record and much more depth of material, particularly in the line.

But the Bruins have generated a lot of the stuff known as spirit and on occasion have shown tremendous fondness for solid blocking and tackling. They have done far more than expected—and some 70,000 homecoming day witnesses may get more than they expect in a football game.

This observer, with a peculiar taste for banging his head against rigid objects, predicts wins by Southern California over Washington, Iowa over Oregon, Oregon State over Washington State, Santa Clara over Stanford, Idaho over Portland, Montana over eastern Washington, and—swinging way out like the daring young man—UCLA over California. Next stop—the State nut-house.

Kiser-LaChappelle Mat Bout May Steal Saturday's Show

Jack Kiser, the handsome and muscular Portlander, meets Maurice LaChapelle of France in a semi-final match at the Roseburg Armory Saturday that might well steal the show over a one-way grudge battle between Leo Karlinko and Frankie Stojack. The two latter matmen will vie in the headliner.

Grants Pass Is Favored In Title Game With K-F

By MATT KRAMER
Associated Press Staff Writer
Grants Pass, aiming for a second straight State high school football title, will take the big test in district competition tonight.

A Klamath Falls team that overwhelmed Medford two weeks ago, 21-6, meets the defending champs on the Grants Pass field. Grants Pass barely got by Medford, 7-6 last week, but nevertheless is a slight favorite to down Klamath for the district 2 crown.

The close race in district 4 will be highlighted by a trio of games. Salem, Albany and Eugene are in the running there. Albany gets the toughest test this weekend, playing Springfield. Eugene is expected to coast by its cross-town rival, University high, and Salem to gallop past Corvallis.

In district 3 Marshfield, the favorite, meets a weak Coquille team.

Dolly Varden Trout Of 32 Pounds New Record

SANDPOINT, Idaho, Oct. 28.—(AP)—A world's record was claimed today for a 32-pound Dolly Varden trout caught in Lake Pend Oreille yesterday by Nelson L. Higgins, Pullman druggist.

Field and Stream magazine lists the world's record for the species at 29 1/4 pounds. That fish was caught in Lake Pend Oreille June 10, 1947, by R. C. Horst of Hayden Lake Idaho.

Higgins' catch measured 50 1/2 inches long with a girth of 29 3/4 inches. It was landed after a 20-minute struggle on a salmon plug, 100 yards of wire line and a large trolling reel.

Aged Man Shot In Row With Hunting Partner

PORTLAND, Oct. 28.—(AP)—A .410 gauge shotgun blast in the face put a 58-year-old man in a hospital with serious but not critical injuries Wednesday.

He is Sidney Carrick, Sheriff's deputies questioned William B. Schaeffer, 65, at whose home the shooting took place.

Preliminary sheriff's reports said the two men had quarreled over division of hunting gear they had used on a recent trip.

The shotgun charge hit Carrick just under the right eye.

There's music, food and fun inside.
