

Czechoslovakia Churches Go Under Govt. Control

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Czechoslovakia's churches Tuesday came under the control of the country's Communist government despite a year's bitter fight by the Roman Catholic hierarchy.

At one minute after midnight the new church control law became effective, giving the government power over all church funds, the naming of pastors and priests and church administrative functions.

All priests and pastors become civil servants on the government payroll. They must swear allegiance to both the Czech republic and the Communist-dominated "people's democratic regime" to get their pay.

her annually.

During the war years Liberty's lamp, which throws its beam twenty miles across the waters, was darkened. But when the boys came back home her torch glowed as a beacon again for them—by day and by night.

She stands 151 feet, has a right arm 12 feet thick. She never went in for a boyish figure—she is 35 feet thick at the waistline, and weighs 450,000 pounds. Thirty people can stand in her head.

An odd fact: in all these years no one has committed suicide by jumping from this inner perch. This might be because no one ever wanted to desecrate Miss Liberty. Or it could be because nobody but a midge could crawl through the windows in her crown.

IT'S NOT UNFAIR. IT JUST SMELLS—If these pickets outside a varnish factory in Los Angeles win their battle it will be by a nose. Their complaint is that "this joint stinks." The teamsters' union members donned gas masks and took up picket signs to demand that the smog control board "do something" about the stench created by the plant.

Birthday Salute To United States' No. 1 Glamour Girl—Statue Of Liberty

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—Happy birthday today to America's most glamorous girl!

She's 63 years old, but isn't looking forward to her old age pensions. She still carries a torch for every man in the land, and she is true to each one that has stayed true to her.

A chubby lass who always wears the same old-fashioned dress, she has welcomed more people to New York than Grover Whalen. She never lifted her skirts for a cheesecake photo, but she has posed for more snapshots than Greta Garbo ever hoped to avoid.

This national sweetheart—the number one U.S. pinup girl—is Miss Liberty, the statue that stands gazing seaward from Bedloe's island, a 15-acre welcome mat outside the golden floor.

Every year she has a birthday party and, of course, she also will this troubled and uneasy year. Mayor O'Dwyer and the French ambassador will be there to make speeches, and a lot of other people. It would be a pleasant change if Miss Liberty made a speech herself for a change.

She's a strong silent woman. She's had quite a time of it—some career—our girl. She has greeted more than 60,000,000 immigrants to our shores, and ought to know how these newcomers felt, entering the land of opportunity.

Perhaps she had an even harder time getting set up here than the average immigrant.

Creation of French Brains

The idea of the Statue of Liberty was conceived by a French historian in 1876 on the 100th anniversary of American independence. She was modeled by Frederic Auguste Bartholdi, a young Alsatian sculptor.

She was a million-dollar baby. It took the French people four years to raise $700,000 by popular subscription to build her. But it was nine years before the American people got around to taking her as a gift and raised $300,000 for a pedestal to put her on her feet. The campaign was put over the top by Joseph Pulitzer's New York World.

The first rivet was put in place on July 12, 1886, and President Cleveland formally welcomed Miss Liberty to citizenship on Oct. 28th of that year.

She immediately took the country by storm and over the years has become a great national shrine. Some 500,000 tourists visit
