

Glendale Wins 6-Man Grid Crown

Yoncalla Loser In Finale Of County, 26-12

Dense Fog Over Field Handicaps Play, Makes It Difficult For Spectators

By WARREN MACK
News-Review sports writer
Glendale copped the county six-man football championship by defeating Yoncalla, 26-12, last night in a game played at Drain's "Soup Bowl"—so named because of fog so thick the contest often resembled a game of "blind man's buff."

The game came very near being called off, visibility was so poor. But after a 40-minute discussion by officials, representatives of the two teams and various county school principals, the game got under way with one of the weirdest opening kick-offs in county football history.

Yoncalla failed to receive and both teams lined up—only to find that the kicker couldn't see the opposing team's backfield men, and vice versa. However, the officials signaled the beginning of the game and Glendale got off a nice kick—just a little disconcerting to would-be tacklers as they saw the ball sail over their heads and vanish into the gray mist.

Had it not been for the officials' whistling, many of the spectators lining the field would never have known the game was underway.

Glendale Master Evident
The fog lifted occasionally just enough to let fans get a glimpse of the opposite side of the field—and enough to allow Glendale's John Harbor, 200-pound sophomore quarterback, to bull his way over for the lone first quarter score.

Mouchette and Chandler ran the Glendale total to 20 in the second quarter, following a touchdown by Yoncalla's St. Wise. Only in the third quarter did either team fail to score, but Mouchette made it 26 for Glendale seconds after the fourth quarter opened. Dan McDonald pushed across Yoncalla's second touchdown, following a sustained drive up the field.

The win gave Glendale the right to meet Coos River, Coos county champs, for the district playoff. In view of last night's discouraging experience with the weather, officials of Coos River and Glendale agreed that the district championship game be played in the afternoon, Nov. 12 was tentatively scheduled as the playing date, with the game likely to be played at Coos Bay.

GRAY GHOSTS were exactly what these Glendale and Yoncalla football players resembled last night when they tangled in the fog on Drain's football field to vie for the county six-man championship. Top photo shows Glendale's husky quarterback bearing down on a Yoncalla tackler who seems to be set to meet all of John Harbor's 200-plus pounds. Lower photo, Yoncalla's Dan McDonald retaliates with a touchdown as fog-bound Glendale's players look on in bewilderment. Glendale won the "Soup Bowl" classic, 26-12.—(Staff pictures).

Kramer Widens Lead Over Gonzales in Tennis Tour
WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 3 — (AP) — Big Jack Kramer, the king-pin of professional tennis, widened his exhibition match series edge here last night over Pancho Gonzales, new pro recruit.

The champion went three up on Gonzales, trimming the 20-year-old Californian, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

The pair now have met five times on their scheduled world tour of 85 cities. Kramer has won four matches and Gonzales one.

In a preliminary match the veteran Frankie Parker took an 7-5.

Kramer and Parker took an easy 6-4 one-set victory over Segura and Gonzales in doubles.

Drain High Football Team Downs Creswell
The Drain high school football team overcame a 19-0 first quarter deficit to wallop Creswell, 32-19, yesterday in a game originally scheduled to take place Friday.

The two-day county high school teachers' study workshop, being held in Springfield today and Friday, was given as the reason for the change in schedule.

ADVICE FROM GOVERNOR BAKER — (AP) — Water power development and natural resource conservation are the basis of getting more jobs in Oregon, Gov. Douglas McKay said here.

"We will attract industry when we get out of the power shortage," he said. The governor said he didn't think this would be very soon.

He urged Oregonians to seek opportunity rather than security. He said the state should process more of its farm products and increase lumber fabrication operations.

RHS Indians In Top Shape For Cavemen

Friday Night Football Battle Will Highlight Homecoming Of Grads

The Roseburg high school Indians will play host to two groups of guests at Finlay field tomorrow night, as they clash with the invading Grants Pass Cavemen in the annual homecoming tilt.

Not only will the opposing team be very much in evidence, but the Indians will also be up to their season best in performance before their fathers and older brothers—the alumni of R.H.S.

The game, which begins at 8 p.m., will highlight homecoming festivities which include a special presentation by the Senior high school band during half-time and the annual homecoming dance in the girls' gymnasium following the game.

Last night, following a rugged practice session that lasted well over two hours, Coach Cece Sherwood pronounced his boys in top condition to meet the formidable Grants Pass eleven.

"I think the kids are ready," Sherwood said following last night's scrimmage.

Team at Full Strength
Sherwood seems to be right—if physical condition of his squad in any indication. For the first time in many weeks, the chances are excellent that every man on the varsity squad will be in uniform come game time. Only player likely to miss action is Jim Shrum, still suffering from a mid-season leg injury. For once, Roseburg's veteran line will be intact from end to end and the backfield, consisting of Ronnie Strickling, Barry Kenny, Bill Van Horn and Bob Scott, also promises to be in top shape.

Grid Gossip In Northwest Loop

SEATTLE, Nov. 3 — (AP) — Coach Odell is going to sacrifice the sharpness gained by physical contact work in order to have his University of Washington gridgers at top physical condition for Saturday's meeting in Portland with the Oregon Ducks. He ordered the entire squad to leave their pads in the dressing room yesterday and sent the team through a two-hour dummy scrimmage session against Oregon defensive patterns.

"We can't be down for this one," said Odell. "We have to be up—like we were against U.S.C. And we must have fast speed. Oregon is a very fast team, offensively and defensively. We are sacrificing some things by not scrimmaging. I hope we get what we want Saturday."

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 3 — (AP) — The passing arm of Quarterback Earl Stelle may not be limber but it will be automatic Saturday when the Oregon Ducks host the Washington Huskies in Portland's Multnomah stadium.

The eagle-eyed Stelle tossed the ball on almost every play last night as Coach Jim Aiken devoted the entire workout to stepping up the aerial offense. Johnny McKay, glue-fingered left halfback, was a major target.

COURT ADMITS ERROR
DALLAS, Texas. — (AP) — District Judge Dallas Blankenship, checking a list of persons summoned for jury duty, called R. J. Dixon.

"I'd like very much to serve, judge," said the smiling Dixon, "but I'm pretty busy this week."

Judge Blankenship took one look and quickly excused the prospective juror. It was his fellow jurist, District Judge R. J. Dixon.

Worst Fog In 25 Years Hits Columbia Region
ASTORIA, Nov. 3 — (AP) — An ocean fog rolled in here last night, halting shipping at the mouth of the Columbia and forcing highway traffic to slow speeds.

Two freighters were held outside the river bar and three in the harbor here. Others were reported fogbound at upriver points.

Capt. Vernon Leback of the pilot schooner, Columbia, said it was the worst fog he could recall in 25 years. The blanket stretched the length of the Oregon coast. It had moved in on North Bend, Coos Bay and Newport earlier yesterday.

California's Bears Head For Easy Win

Cougars Rated Losers In Coming Game; Stanford Will Battle Trojans

By RUSS NEWLAND
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3 — (AP) — California's Bears figure to notch another football victory this weekend, Washington State, the waiting rival, hardly rates in the same class with the Pacific coast conference's only undefeated, untied club.

Cal Coach Lynn Waldorf says he respects the W.S.C. passing attack. The Bears possibly are due for a letdown after knocking over seven in a row, but quarterback Bob Celari should hold them on the victory highway without too much trouble.

The league's big battle will take place at Los Angeles—Stanford against U.S.C. Trojans. This one brings together the runners up in the championship race. Each has lost one game. Southern California bowed to California 10-16. Stanford went down, 7-14, before U.C.L.A.

Despite the conference defeats, Stanford and Southern California remain in the title scramble. U.S.C. probably will be the 16-point favorite when they meet Saturday.

This crystal ball gazer has seen both teams. Southern California is the solid pick, with Jim Powers' passing as the threat. Stanford has the play patterns, speedy personnel and spirit to become a great club. In the belief the team will reach its fullest potentialities, we're crawling out on the limb for this one to name Stanford as the winner.

This week's selections:
California over Washington State by 18.
Stanford over U.S.C. by 1.
Oregon over Washington by 6.
Oregon State over Idaho by 18.

Criticism Levelled At Pioneers Of Oregon
PORTLAND, Nov. 3 — (AP) — Hardware and farm implement dealers were told here yesterday that the hardy pioneer wasn't such a blessing as history pictures him.

Speaking on conservation, Thomas Kelly, Milwaukee, Wis., said the pioneers "destroyed more potential wealth than they created." He noted progress to correct erosion, but he said the newer generation still doesn't fully recognize that natural resources made the United States the world's richest nation.

Mel R. Myhra, Fargo, N.D., president of the National Retail Farm Equipment association, predicted farm buying would remain brisk. He said farmers have a huge cash reserve and still need things.
