Benefit Dinner Dated At Church

"All you can eat," is the promise of Roseburg Junior Woman's club chairman Lorraine Crocker, to those who attend a benefit spaghetti dinner tonight from 6:30 p. m. at the First Christian church.

Those planning to attend the Grants Pass-Roseburg football game are invited to come early, Mrs. Crocker said.

A full course dinner accompanying the spaghetti fare will cost adults $1 and children 50 cents.

Proceeds from the dinner will benefit boys at the state industrial school at Woodburn and the Roseburg community hospital.

A turkey, donated by Lawson's Jewelers, will be given away as a special prize. The spaghetti is being donated by a nationally famous pasta products firm.

Tickets to the benefit dinner may be purchased either at Lawson's or members of the Junior Woman's club.

Birth Of Reformation Observed By Lutherans

St. John's Lutheran church of Sutherlin held a special Reformation day service Sunday morning at its place of worship, the Sutherlin Scout hall. Rev. Richard E. Graef spoke on the topic, "Martin Luther and the Modern World." Special music was provided by Mary Lynn Dies. Members of the church celebrated the Lord's supper.

This service commemorated the Protestant reformation, which started Oct. 31, 1517.

Pastor Graef directed the thought of the congregation to the basic tenets of the Protestant reformation and to examine their usefulness as a philosophy of life in the modern world.

Tatum, Fugitive Arizona Convict, Caught In Texas

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 4.—(AP)—Jack Tatum, 28, wavy-haired desperado who dodged a storm of bullets and broke jail at Phoenix, Ariz., faces a trip back to the same barred lodgings.

Unarmed and broke, he surrendered meekly late Tuesday to BI men who spotted him on a little-traveled downtown street.

Tatum and four other prisoners started the break in the Maricopa County jail early the morning of Oct. 22. Only Tatum finished it.

Two of his buddies, Edward Corcoran, 3, and Charles Edward McEwen, 32, died on a stairway. They were shot by a crippled watchman, Tom Stowe. The other two, Dinzal McDonald and John Bridges, staggered out of a cloud of tear gas with their hands up.

Tatum made it to the ground floor and slid out a window.

Proposed Revision Of Mining Laws To Be Eyed

PORTLAND, Nov. 4.—(AP)—A Pacific northwest regional committee will be appointed to make further studies of proposed revision of United States mining laws, Daniel L. Goldy says.

Goldy, regional bureau of land management administrator, said appointment of the committee was proposed at the regional conference on revision of the laws at Spokane Oct. 17-18.

Committee members will be named after consultation with mining, lumber, livestock, recreation and wildlife groups, he said. They will continue discussions, started at Spokane, of land use and conservation problems arising from present laws governing the location and patenting of mining claims on public lands.

Goldy said basic mining laws of this country have not been changed since 1872.
