Terrace Ballroom Scene Of Elks Club Annual Masquerade Dance

The Elks club Terrace ballroom was filled with costumed Elks, their ladies and partners at the Halloween masquerade Saturday, October 29. Vic Rice and his orchestra furnished music for the October social event.

The ballroom had been decorated for the Teen-age dance the night previous, and was colorful with black and orange streamers, Halloween pictures of goblins, ghosts and black cats. Members of the orchestra were also in costume adding merriment to the occasion.

A grand march preceded selection of outstanding costumes and many were grouped into the center of the dance floor for the benefit of the three judges, Del McKay, Albert Fliegel and Fred Lookwood acted as judges and selected fifteen as winners.

A cash award and dance tickets were given the best costumes, individual and group with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones receiving the grand prize award. Mrs. Jones wore a pale blue French gown depicting Marie Antoinette and her husband was garbed as Louis Sixteenth, complete with powdered wig.

The modern rubber masks added much gaiety to the evening and the unmasking followed the announcement of awards by the judges.

The ballroom was crowded for the occasion and proved to be one of the best attended dances in recent months at the temple.

VETERANS HOSPITAL HALLOWEEN PARTY IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

The Veterans hospital recreation hall was the scene of a Halloween party for the patients Monday night with nearly 400 attending. The decorations were in keeping with the Halloween motif and local civic clubs and veterans organizations operated booths adding a variety of festivity to the occasion.

On both sides of the large floor the booths were arranged and were operated by the volunteer members of the organizations for the patients.

Having booths at the affair were special services in charge of Lucille Ellis; American Legion Auxiliary, Nelle Ulrich; Elks, Fuller Johnson, Frank Wickham; Business and Professional Womans club, Vera McClintock Jones; Disabled American Veterans auxiliary, Nancy Wull; American Gold Star Mothers and Navy Mothers, Martha Wells, Cora Rogan; Zanta Leola Gorton; Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, Cora Carlson; Cooties, Mr. Hoover, Mr. Denton; fortune telling, Mrs. Ethel Minturn; and American Red Cross.

Adding music to the occasion were two quartets from the S.P. U.B.S.Q.U.A. (barber shop quartets) who sang during the evening. Participating in these quartets were Ernie Lentz, Dick Meek, Jim Walford, Jack Gorty, Lawrence Rand, Art Kruger, Emmet Mead and Cliff Kinch.

Students of the Ulah Rhoden Studio of Dance presented several numbers. Taking part were Carolee Rutherford, Margaret Taylor, Lillian Archibald, Ingrid Lendberg, Frieda Fullmer, Carol Lynn Cass, Helen Cass, and Sally Hill.

The supper was furnished by Mabel MacRae's Down Beaters.

COMMUNITY CONCERT IN GRANTS PASS TONIGHT FEATURES PIANO QUARTET

The Philharmonic piano quartet, four young American artists, will be presented in Grants Pass tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the first of that city's community concerts. Local residents are reminded that their season tickets will be honored at the concert.

The doors open at 7:45 o'clock at the Lincoln school auditorium. The quartet includes Ada Kopetz, Bertha Minkin, John Scales and Max Walmer. Their program will include piano works of 12 of the world's greatest composers, including Brahms, Stravinsky, Rachmaninoff, Ravel and Liszt. Opening selection will be Overture to "Russian and Lundmilla" by Mikhail Glinka and closes with Johann Strauss' Suite from "Die Fledermaus."

The concert will be played on four grand pianos.

I. O. O. F. DINNER HONOR COUPLE FOR LONG SERVICE

REBEKAH MEETING FOLLOWS CHILL DINNER AT HALL

After enjoying a chill supper, members of the Roseburg Rebekah Lodge met in regular session at the I.O.O.F. hall on Tuesday, Oct. 25th with Mary Alice Mortenson, noble grand, and Golda Nickell, vice grand, presiding. The following served as officers pro-tem: Mrs. Evelyn Fredrickson, musician, and Mrs. Ruth Plumer L.S.N.G.

Mrs. Stella Gilbert, formerly of Keystone lodge, Wapita Washington was admitted to membership by transfer.

The amendment to the by-laws to increase the dues to $3.00 a year was passed unanimously.

The commission for Mrs. Nancy Wolfe of Winchester as assistant advisor to the Theta Rho Club was received.

The following were nominated for officers for next term: noble grand, Golda Nickell; vice-grand, Mrs. Oille Krueger, and Mrs. Lotus Graves; recording secretary, Mrs. Nora Fraundriener; treasurer, Mrs. Minnie South; financial secretary, Mrs. Faye Clark. Nominations will be reopened at the next meeting.

Oliver Plumer announced the new color scheme for the lodge room. It is contemplated that the decorating will be completed prior to the next meeting.

The Philaterrian Lodge invited the Rebekah to a dinner at the I.O.O.F. Hall on Nov. 10th at 6:30 p.m. The Philaterrian Lodge will provide the food and all Rebekahs are invited. A social is planned later in the evening.

It was announced that the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon will pay her official visit to the local lodge on December 13th, at which time the degree will again be exemplified. As a consequence degree staff practice will again be resumed at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 9th, and every Wednesday thereafter until Dec. 13th.

The chill supper was deemed a success as a small amount was added to the treasury. The committee who supplied and served the food were: Mrs. Mary Curtis and Mrs. Golda Nickell, co-chairmen, Mrs. Mary Meyers, Mrs. Mina Coom, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dent, Mrs. Louise Young, Mrs. Alice Goff, Mrs. Nora Fraundriener, Mrs. Mary Alice Mortenson, Miss Stella Finnell and Mrs. Hattie Guerin.

Telling the Biblical story of one of the characters of the tableaux in the modern version was done by Mrs. Ethel Bailey, under good of the order. Exemplifying the tableau were: Mssrs. Oliver Plumer, Paul Krueger, Jack Dent, Mrs. Lena Poole, Mrs. Kathryn McMillan, Mrs. Ruth Plumer and Mrs. Ona Williams. Climaxing this more serious business, Mrs. Blanch Marr gave a hilarious and entertaining version of an old witch hunting her cat. She brought a stray cat out of hiding and heard cat calls from all around the hall before locating the missing feline.

A free-will offering was collected for the benefit of a Rebekah member.

It was voted to make the Homecoming meeting on Nov. 8th a 6:30 pot luck dinner meeting. Lodge will follow at 7:30 p.m. On the committee to assist in the serving are: Mrs. Hattie Guerin, Mrs. Bertha Bayless, Mrs. Susie Jackson, Mrs. Hazel Reid, Mrs. Virginia Marr, Mr. Raymond Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGeheey. It was decided that the lodge will not send gifts to the Odd Fellows Home in Portland this year.

Members who are interested in assisting in getting other members who do not frequently attend lodge, out to the homecoming meeting are requested to call Mrs. Faye Clark at 923R for the name and address of such a member. They are then expected to contact that member and urge their attendance and arrange assistance or transportation if needed.

Rebekahs are requested to remember the homecoming dinner and meeting at 6:30, Nov. 8th, Degree staff practice Nov. 9th, and the dinner by the Philaterrian Lodge Nov. 10th.

It will take from two to six hours to defrost quick-frozen evaporated chicken if the package is left at room temperature.

BARBARA WOODARD

Barbara Woodard, daughter of Mrs. Corinne Woodard, celebrated her sixth birthday at a very charming party Saturday afternoon at her home on South Stephens street.

"Pass the Ring" and "Pin the nose on the Pumpkin" were played. Lovely gifts were presented to Barbara from: Donna Snyder, Sue Ann Huggins, Jo Ann Gardner, Donnie Whittenburg, Billy Gilmer, Dennis Wright and Stevie Newcomb and Mrs. F. D. Woodard.

The lighted birthday cake, decorated in the Halloween motif with an inscription, "Happy Birthday Barbara," was baked by Cleo's bakery. It was served with ice cream by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Gartner and Mrs. Lora Newcomb.

COSTUMES LIVE! TEEN-AGE DANCE IN TERRACE ROOM

Teen-agers enjoyed a masquerade at the Elks temple Terrace ballroom Friday night in a Halloween setting complete with hob-goblins, cornstalks and costumes of every description. Music for the evening was furnished by Vic Rice and his orchestra. A juke box added music during intermission.

Chaperones for the Halloween dance were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spouta, Mrs. Cecil Hayes and Mrs. Willis Fritts. Patty Pinninger was chairman of the masquerade.

Decorations for the evening were arranged by Miss Pinninger, Janice White, Roy Shephard, Fred Foy, Beatrice Friedlund, Peggy Frenette, Sandra Rapp, Linda Beatty and Jeanette Kallvoda.

MISS HELEN CASEY GUEST SPEAKER AT CANYONVILLE CLUB

Miss Helen Casey of Roseburg was guest speaker at the Canyonville Woman's Civic Club meeting last Thursday night. She described her two-month acael tour of South America. She brought many souvenirs from her various stops and had these on hand to add interest to her talk. The ladies expressed their gratitude to Miss Casey in making it possible for the local club to hear her very interesting talk.

Mrs. Dorothy Chappell, club president, presided at a short business meeting announcing the first and third Tuesdays of each month have been selected as the regular meeting nights for the club. The turkey dinner originally scheduled for Nov. 19 has been temporarily postponed because of conflicting dates.

There were ten members present and twelve guests.

The hall was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and Halloween colors. The refreshments were carried out with the Halloween motif being used when Mrs. Mary June Blinham, Mrs. Yerna Worrall and Mrs. Olive Homme served hot cider and cookies.

DR. CHESTER L. WARD HONORED AT DINNER AND BREAKFAST HERE

A dinner was given, Friday evening, November 4th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Jones, 526 So. Main street, in honor of Dr. Chester L. Ward, Registrar of Hill Military Academy, Portland, Oregon. Saturday morning Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Amon, 302 N. Jackson were hosts to Dr. Ward at a breakfast party. During his stay in Roseburg Dr. Ward will be the guest of his son, Warren Ward, who is the Commercial Manager of the Mutual Radio Station in Roseburg.

Seated at one of the individual tables at the Elks club Halloween dance were these four Elks club members before the unmasking. They are Roy Byrd, Mrs. Byrd, Mrs. Bob Nicholson and Bob Nicholson. The Terrace room was filled with similar groups in one of the seasonal dances sponsored by the local temple.
