

Canyonville To Vote Tuesday On City Officers

By MRS. H. M. ANDERSON
New-Review Correspondent

A great deal of interest is being shown in tomorrow's election in Canyonville. An entire new slate of city officers is to be elected, with aspirants for each office. Citizens are to choose a mayor, three councilmen for a two-year term, one councilman for a one-year term, and a new recorder and treasurer.

The incumbent city treasurer, Leila Hamlin, is the only candidate for re-election who has no opposition. But there is a contest for all other offices.

Mayor Albert Mault, seeking re-election on a write-in basis, is opposed by "Pop" Green, whose name will appear on the ballot. Mault was nominated at a recent caucus meeting, but declined. Many citizens later persuaded him to try for re-election.

Green, owner of a paint store and second hand shop has been a resident of Canyonville the past three years. He declares it is his intention to "try to get the city out of debt, save the taxpayers money by running the city in a business-like manner, as he would run his own business."

Mault states that he desires the city to have a "clean, honest, well-governed administration, that city streets be kept safe and respectable for all citizens to walk, that the people as a whole, rather than a few, be the beneficiaries of his administration."

Candidates for the council include John Hamlin, incumbent; Clifford Beals, George McClane, Sr., Clinton Atherton, and C. F. Ferguson, all seeking a two-year term, and Emmett Moyer and Bill Cox, one-year term.

Laura Goodell is the only non-nominated candidate for city recorder. She is opposed by "Hi" Haah, incumbent city recorder, who is running on a write-in basis.

hopeless beyond this week. Some officials favored Mr. Truman's naming a fact-finding board with power to recommend settlement terms. Such a method, which is outside the scope of the Taft-Hartley act, was adopted in the steel strike.

But other officials talked of possible use of the Taft-Hartley act powers to obtain strike-ending court injunctions.

The coal strike is now in its 49th day, the steel strike in its 37th.

Of the two stoppages, the worse effects have come from the coal mine walkout, which curtailed train service and created fuel shortages for many householders. But lack of steel has hit manufacturers.

Favorable Signs
Steel settlement prospects looked brighter with the return to Pittsburgh of Philip Murray, president of the CIO and the striking steelworkers union.

Murray, busy with the CIO convention at Cleveland last week, now can give full time to pressing on the rest of the industry the peace terms already accepted by Bethlehem Steel Corp., second largest steel producer.

The Bethlehem settlement provided for a $100 minimum monthly pension including government social security benefits, along with a social insurance program. It did not include a wage increase.

An offer has been made to Murray's union by Republic Steel Corp., third largest steelmaker, but its terms have not been disclosed. Charles M. White, Republic president, said it is "not the Bethlehem plan."

Attorneys for the company and the union met yesterday to iron out language of the proposed agreement, indicating that settlement was near.

U. S. Education Week To Have Special Programs

this broadcast was in error. Also, each of the schools will feature the week on their respective afternoon broadcasts.

According to Mrs. Sam Warg, P.T.A. chairman in charge of the local observance, parents will be especially welcome to visit the schools their children attend. Teachers are making a special effort to receive the visitors.

P.T.A. groups meeting tonight will observe the week, and Roseburg ministers are asked to use the topic in some form in their sermons next Sunday.

PREPARES FOR STORK
LAUSANNE, Switzerland, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Rita Hayworth, the movie star who became a pinup by marrying Aly Khan, has come to Lausanne for the birth of her baby expected in the next few weeks.

Rita and Aly arrived from Paris Sunday and went into seclusion in a hotel suite.

Tuesday's Elections To Be Eyed For Trends

Thomas E. Dewey, has made President Truman's "fair deal" program an issue by his attacks on it. He has come out for a modified version of the Taft-Hartley act.

The president spoke out against Dulles Saturday night in a radio broadcast urging the election of Lehman.

New Jersey Labor Splits
Across the river in New Jersey, labor has split apart in the hotly contested race for governor. The AFL has endorsed democratic State Senator Elmer H. Wene, who is trying to unseat republican Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll.

The CIO, on the other hand, has issued a report criticizing Wene severely, linking him with the old Frank Hague organization of Jersey City. However, the CIO hasn't backed Driscoll.

Labor also has split in the mayor's race in Detroit, one of the local elections that will be watched closely for possible national trends.

There the AFL is backing Albert T. Cobo, republican city treasurer, who led all of the candidates in the September primary. The CIO is supporting George Edwards, who has democratic ties. The issue will be decided on a non-partisan ballot.

O'Dwyer Faces Fight
The New York results—expected to indicate what the state's trend may be in 1950 when the six-year senatorial term and the governorship will be at stake—may be influenced greatly by what happens in the New York City mayor's election.

In that contest democratic Mayor William O'Dwyer has tried to make President Truman's program an issue. The republican-liberal-fusion candidate, Newbold Morris, has attacked O'Dwyer largely on local issues. Rep. Vito Marcantonio, American labor party candidate, may influence the result if he collects enough votes.

Elsewhere in the state, democrats are confident of electing Mrs. Edna F. Kelley in the Tenth congressional district to fill out the unexpired term of the late democratic Rep. Andrew L. Somers.

Republican George H. Fancher is given slight chance to win in the heavily democratic Brooklyn area.

The republicans also concede difficulties in a special House race in the Fifth California district, which they have held for about 40 years.

The late republican Rep. Richard J. Welch had won both party nominations since 1926. But here again labor is active, with the AFL offering a candidate from its own ranks in democrat John F. Shelley.

Shelley is opposed by republican Lloyd Cosgrove on a ballot that doesn't carry party designations. The winner, however, is expected to affiliate in Congress with the party that backed him.

Virginia is electing a governor in a race that doesn't have much outside interest. The politicians all expect democratic State Senator John S. Battle to win handily over republican Walter Johnson.

However, local races in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Tennessee will be watched closely for possible 1950 trends. Involved are mayor's elections in Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Louisville and several cities in Connecticut.

New Sales Manager Named By Oil Company

The Union Oil Company of California announces the appointment of John H. Fisher as district sales manager of the Medford district, according to F. K. Cadwell, manager of the north-west territory. He will supervise sales and operations for the company throughout southern Oregon, which will include the Roseburg territory, with headquarters in Medford.

Mr. Fisher was graduated from University of California and has been with the company 14 years. He has supervised sales at various points through central California and his most recent assignment was district representative at Oakland. He succeeds W. V. Criddle, who has been transferred to Sacramento, and who is well known in Roseburg. Mr. Fisher is a veteran of World War II, where he served as a lieutenant colonel in the army infantry.

Chest Drive Launched For Goal Of $26,000.

Geedes concluded his appeal to the chest workers.

Details Explained
Presiding at the breakfast this morning was Harrison Winston, president of the Roseburg Community Chest board of directors. He made introductions of Sam J. Shoemaker, director, and Marlen Yoder and Rollie Quam, co-directors of the campaign.

They explained details of the chest drive, in which members of five men's and two women's service clubs will canvass the city's business establishments, in an effort to contact all citizens at their places of employment.

Clubs participating include the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, Active, Junior, Chamber of Commerce, Business and Professional Women's and Junior Woman's. The men's groups are each taking over a zone of the central business district, or outlying areas. The women's groups are contacting public employees and hospitals.

Each soliciting team received its money envelopes and prospect cards at the breakfast this morning. The first money turn-in will be tonight.

"This campaign is going to be a success. Let's go out and put this thing over by tomorrow night at the latest!" appealed Shoemaker.

The breakfast this morning was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harding and Ernest Butler, owners and managers of the hotel, in addition to a substantial cash contribution. Community Chest officials stated.

CVA Scored By GOP Of Oregon; Officers Named

SALEM —(AP)—The Oregon Republican clubs took an expected swipe at the CVA and elected Leonard Lindas, Oregon City, president here.

In the unanimous balloting, Leelan Lamond, Portland, was re-elected secretary; Boring was elected treasurer, and Don Eva, Portland, sergeant-at-arms.

In assailing the Columbia Valley administration, the Republicans took advice given by speakers yesterday and endorsed the corps of engineers' 308 report for Columbia basin development.

Existing agencies, the resolution said, have proved their competence in starting and in completing projects. The Republicans called for orderly development of the basin "by these agencies in conformance with the co-ordinated 308 report."

The CVA proposal as now drafted was assailed because, the resolution said, it makes a three-man board not responsible to the people, only indirectly responsible to Congress, and responsible only to the President as the directing body.

Would Alter Election Laws
Another resolution called for amendment of the state's election laws to provide that county and district conventions be called after primary elections to replace candidates who led the field but failed to get at least 35 percent of their party's votes. It also calls for state central committees to name national convention delegates and the national committeeman and committeewoman. They now are elected by the people.

Rep. Walter Norblad said the 80th Congress lowered taxes and provided money toward reduction of the national debt. Many of its members were defeated by "misrepresentation and misinterpretation" by the President, Norblad said. He added that the 81st Congress had established a high record for spending and added to the deficit.

"If we can't start to reduce the debt now, when will we do it?" he asked. "It is sheer cowardice to pass the burden to our children. This deficit will not only add to our tax burden but to the burden of the future generations."

DOGS DISPOSED OF

Five or six dogs found on the city's streets during the past week were disposed of today by the city's dogcatcher E. W. Naas. City Recorder William Bollman reported.

He said the dogs are kept five days after being caught, to give the owner plenty of time to claim the dog. After that, anyone who will pay the cost of maintenance may choose any dog in the kennel. Cost of maintaining the dog is 50 cents per day and 50 cents impounding fee. Also, if the dog does not have a license, the new owner must purchase one at $2 for a male or $3 for a female.
