By JOHN B. HIGHTOWER WASHINGTON,—(P)—The United States intends to keep troops in Japan for many years after the end of the allied occupation. Diplomatic authorities said that decision has been reached by officials.

officials.

The next step must be consultation with Britain and other nations. U. S. planning has progressed far enough so that Secretary of State Acheson will be able to assure British foreign minister Bevin of U. S. readiness to start such talks in the near future.

The major provisions of the

The major provisions of the pact as now drafted by the state department call for:

1. An end to the allied occupation commanded by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, as soon as the treaty is signed and ratified.

A peace conference probably will be held—with or without the Communist nations—toward the middle of next year, unless unforescen delays occur. Simultaneously, the American government will negotiate a military treaty with Japan.

As presently conceived this military pact will provide for U.S. land, sea and air bases in Japan for five to ten years.

Their primary purpose responsible informants said, would be to secure the islands against any Communist attack from the security of the secu to secure the islands against any Communist attack from the As-latic mainland. The move also would make Japan an American bastion in the cold war.

George Newma Moday filed suit asking judgment for $700 al leged due for back wages, plus interest and $250 costs, from M. D. Sutherland. He said there was no comparison between the 80th Congress and the Sist.

"In the 80th Congress for the first time in almost two decades we kept the country in the black." he said. "At the same time we took over 7,000,000 lower income people off the federal tax rolls, and that means more take home pay in the envelopes."
