HALLOWEEN MASQUERADE PARTY IS LARGE AND DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Edenbower Boy Scout troop No. 133 held its annual Halloween masquerade party at the Edenbower Gym on Friday evening with about 250 children and parents in attendance, all dressed in costumes appropriate to the ghostly occasion. The hall was lavishly decorated with orange and black streamers, corn stalks, jack-o-lanterns and Halloween skeletons and plaques.

Judging of costumes began promptly at 7:30 with Darley Ware, Albert Stingley and Mrs. Carol Singley acting as judges. Prizes were awarded to boys and girls in each age group for the most interesting costume.

A short skit, "Franksters At Play," was presented by Scouts Don Ware, Ronnie Sanders, Tommy Paulson, Milford Biddington, Jim Busser, Ronnie Barnes and LeRoy Sargent. Tommy Kimball, Tenderfoot Scout, played several accordion solos.

Following the program three comedy films featuring Abbott and Costello, Woody Woodpecker and Chimps the Chimpanzee were shown. Scout Master Clair Pettit acted as Master of Ceremonies and picture operator.

While the parents retired to the dining room for pie, doughnuts, cookies, coffee and cider, the youngsters threw darts at balloons, bobbed for apples and played apple string pull. These pastimes netted them a prize with every attempt and soon each boy and girl was loaded down with apples, suckers, balloons and comic books. Eventually the children found their way to the dining room, bringing to a climax a very eventful evening.

This is the second annual Halloween party the Edenbower Boy Scouts have sponsored for the benefit of all children who care to attend. It was even more successful than the first and a great deal of credit is due the boys who worked so hard in its preparation and execution.

Epidemic Of Smashups Hits Columbia Highway

BRIDAL VEIL, Ore., Nov. 8.—The new Columbia river "water level" highway was a "madhouse" of accidents Sunday, police said, with five smashups in one 20-minute period.

The worst was a head-on crash in which eight persons were injured. Most seriously hurt was Brendon McLoughlin, 32, Vancouver, Wash., who was riding in a car driven by Lee Johnson, 33, Pasco, Wash. McLoughlin had a hip dislocation and internal injuries. Johnson suffered a compound knee fracture.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Elliott said balmy weather drew such heavy traffic along the scenic gorge highway that in some sections there were accidents every 15 feet during the day and early evening.

Financial Expert Says Living Cost To Decline

PORTLAND — (P)—A decline in the cost of living next year is predicted by Arthur C. Babson, the vice-president of a stock and bond advisory service.

The Massachusetts man told an audience here that business should be "remarkably well sustained" in Portland, however. He estimated that Portland business would decline 3 to 5 per cent below this year, compared to a nation-wide average of 5 per cent.

Babson foresaw a strong demand for lumber, furniture, canned goods, clothing, paint, flour, cereals, creamery products, and woolen goods—all items produced in this region.

H. Clyde Baldwin, investment analyst for the Babson organization, predicted that the stock market in 1950 would fluctuate broadly within the range recorded in the last three years.

"We believe that many good common stocks are already sufficiently low, and may be held with confidence," he remarked.

Pineapple Barge Going Back With Lumber

THE DALLES, Ore., Nov. 8.—The barge that brought the "hot cargo" pineapple here in September was scheduled today to haul lumber back to Hawaii. R. M. Botley, president of Isleways, Ltd., owners of the pineapple still being unloaded, said a million board feet of lumber would be shipped to the islands. He said loading would start Wednesday.

A CIO longshore spokesman indicated there would be no trouble here, but questioned

State Pays Treasurer's Disputed Printing Bill

SALEM—(P)—With a big grin on his round face, State Treasurer Walter J. Pearson announced that the state had paid the $160 bill for printing Pearson's statement of the duties of his office.

This is the bill which Governor McKay had refused to approve. It caused a quarrel between McKay and Pearson at last week's board of control meeting.

The claim was honored by whether Hawaiian stevedores would handle the lumber if non-union workers loaded it here.

Meanwhile, 16 longshoremen charged with rioting here Sept. 28 are free under $2,500 bail each. Judge Ward Webber said they would be arraigned later on the indictments. All were arrested in Portland and Vancouver last week.

retary of State Newberry, who ruled that his office could pay it without approval of the board of control.
Pearson is a Democrat, while Newberry and McKay are Republicans.
Pearson said Thursday that if the state hadn't paid it, he wouldn't have paid it, either.
