Proposal Given Husband Marked In Death Scheme
BREMERTON—(AP)—A 34-year-old husband, whose wife is charged with attempting his murder to put an end to what she called his persistent love making today dusted off an offside proposal of marriage.
The husband, Wilford Platt, showed reporters a letter which he received from a New York City woman.
"Wilford," it read in part, "I would never get tired of your love making."
Platt has said he wanted his wife back despite her signed statement that she had a $324 down payment on an unfulfilled plot to have him killed.
"I'm not interested in any proposal unless the woman has enough money to help me get my wife out of jail," he said.
The letter had been misdirected to Mrs. Margaret Platt, held on $3,500 bond. It was opened by sheriff's deputies as routine and forwarded to Platt.
The writer described herself as "38 years old, a pretty widow for 14 years, with a grassy figure."
Mrs. Platt will be arraigned next Monday.

Truman Policies Lashed By Senate Minority Leader
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—(AP)—President Truman's domestic and foreign policies were assailed bitterly before the national Retail Lumber Dealers association here by Senator Wherry (R-Neb).
"President Truman's technique leads down the road to communism because it attempts to buy freedom with material things," Wherry said.
The Senate minority leader in the 81st Congress criticized the reciprocal trade agreements act, tariff cutting, foreign aid and administration spending.
Wherry likened the "promises of today" to the "medicine men" of the gold rush days of '49 in California. The '49ers, he said, called the promises of their day a "gold brick," but today "it is the welfare state."
"All the gold dug by the '49ers," he continued, "would not pay the first installment on the welfare state. And the direction America is being led, to bankruptcy more devastating than the atomic bomb."
Wherry said the principles on which the country was established "are being blacked out." He added: "Socialism and its front-runner, Communism, are spreading their evil doctrine over other parts of the world; and the backwash is infiltrating right into the heart of our government."
On foreign aid, Wherry said: "America has poured $35,000,000,000 in cash and goods into Europe, under 23 money spending schemes, and those countries are still crying for more . . ."

To Visit Auxiliary
Mrs. Grace Drew, Chairman, president of the state of Oregon Eagles auxiliary, will pay her visit to the Roseburg Eagles auxiliary at a special meeting to be held Tuesday night, Nov. 15, at eight o'clock at the Eagles hall. The officers have requested every member to attend the affair.
