SKYBLUE BLUEBIRDS ENJOY MEETING

The Skyblue Bluebirds met Tuesday at the Church of God with the leader, Mrs. Frank Walker, and the president, Brenda Findlay, in charge.

Plans were discussed for future projects and the group learned the song, "Come Follow Me." The members added another page to their scrapbooks.

FASHION SHOW TO BE ENJOYED AT MEETING

A fashion show will feature the W. C. T. U. meeting Wednesday, Nov. 16 at the Christian church parlor at 2 p. m. The show will include old and new styles. Mrs. Fred Southwick is in charge of the program and will include special music.

Members are asked to note the change in meeting place which was first scheduled for the Ackert home.

PRATT'S ENTERTAIN AT SUNDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Pratt of Rice Valley entertained friends at Sunday dinner. Enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perlin and sons, Larry and Michael, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swan.

THREE EVENTS HELD AT COMMUNITY CLUB

Activities at the Winchester Community club recently have included a Halloween party for all children in the vicinity; a Halloween dance for members and guests and a turkey dinner last Friday night.

Louise Ketcherside and Barbara Reber were in charge of the children's Halloween party and the hall was decorated in keeping with the day. A large group attended and treats were enjoyed.

At the members social night a Halloween dance was enjoyed with those attending in costume. Ansel Ketcherside and Walter Reber were hosts for the evening. Ansel Ketcherside won first prize for costume with Bob Ratliff second. At the turkey dinner Thelma Spedel and Louise Ketcherside were in charge. The club extended thanks to all who participated and assisted in the above events.

DESSERT SUPPER HELD AT CHASE HOME BY PAST N.O.B. CLUB

The Past Noble Grand Club of Sutherland held a meeting last Wednesday evening, when Mrs. Lucille Chase entertained at a dessert supper at her spacious home on East First Avenue. Bouquets of fall flowers were placed about the room. Covers were placed for: Mrs. Belle Cook, Mrs. Charlotte Parker, Mrs. Helme Burns, Mrs. Anna Hall, Mrs. Alma Anderson, Mrs. Ruth Manning, Miss Luella Pleuaur, Mrs. Eunice Beck, Mrs. Meda Schrack, Mrs. Cora Allen, Mrs. Phreda Wahl, Mrs. Bertha Barge, Mrs. Florence Cook, Mrs. Nellie Peterson, Mrs. Velma Brauninger, Mrs. Maude Culver and a guest, Mrs. Ruth Waugh and the hostess, Mrs. Chase.

The business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Peterson. Committees were appointed to decorate and help serve the noon dinner at the District Rebekah Convention which will be held in Sutherland on Thursday, December 8th.

It was voted to adopt a sister at the I.O.O.F. Home and to send her a box and letters in order to get acquainted. The next meeting will be on November 30th instead of December 7th, as that date falls the day before the District Convention. It will be a Christmas party and the exchange of gifts, not exceeding $1.00.

Names were drawn for the Christmas baskets, which the club has had as their project for many years. The penny prize was won by Anna Hall, furnished by Mrs. Olga Bielman. The door prize was won by Mrs. Culver.

MRS. THEL ALLEN TO BE GUEST SPEAKER AT WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Thel Allen of Myrtle Creek will be guest speaker at the Roseburg Woman's club Tuesday at the First Methodist church at 1:30 p. m. She will talk on "The Art in Pottery Production" and show pottery from the first operation to the finished product.

It is hoped that arrangements can be completed whereby Mrs. Wilson can give a demonstration on the pottery wheel. The difference between pottery, china and porcelain will be explained. Oven glazing and other pottery's phrases will be discussed. Mrs. Earl Plummer is in charge of music.

RIVERSIDE P.T.A. HAS INTERESTING MEETING MONDAY

Riverside P.T.A. held an interesting meeting at the schoolhouse Monday evening with a large attendance of members. Mrs. Clifford Baxter, president, was in charge. Earl Ladd explained the three-point grading system on report cards figuring on the individual basis. The audience participated in "What's in a Mark?" and showed how they would grade different students. Mrs. Woodford's room won the prize for the membership drive. An entertaining musical program was enjoyed and included: two piano selections for Suzanne Ott and Donna Davenport, pupils of Mrs. Clarence Trued; ballet dance by Joyce Johnson and Oriental dance by Patsy Scherner, pupils of Utah Rhoden's studio; piano solo by Bob Harrell, pupil of Mrs. Roland Quam. Mrs. Spackman's room won the prize for attendance for the second consecutive time. Refreshments were served by the first grade room mothers.

GREEN P.T.A. MEETING INCLUDES VARIED PROGRAM, SOCIAL TIME

A baton twirling exhibition by Miss Beryl Walker of Roseburg was a feature of the Green P.T.A. Friday at the schoolhouse. A Greek mythology play, "Perseus and the Mead of Medusa" was presented by the eighth grade under the supervision of Mrs. Dickinson. Mrs. John Cornilsen president was in charge of a short business meeting. The sixth grade won the P.T.A. membership contest. Sandra Heater and Merlyn Miller brought in the most memberships.

The seventh grade sang several numbers and Delores Warner, of the seventh grade, gave a baton twirling number. Mr. Stonebreaker the principal, explained grading under the new report card system. Refreshments closed the evening. In charge were the Mr. and Mrs. Foote, Carter, O'Neil, Erskine and McDaniel.

An announcement was made that the study club will sponsor a pie social at the schoolhouse November 18. The public is invited. The Rev. Walter MacArthur will be guest speaker at the December meeting of P.T.A.

The hostess served refreshments to Mrs. Frank, Alice Gill, Carla Gill, Edna Scofield, Addie Blanche Marr and Virginia Brittain.

The next meeting will be held at the Pfaff home with Gwen Frank as hostess. The meeting date is Nov. 17.

ROBERT HARVIE TALKS ON SAFETY AT P.T.A. MEETING

Rose school P.T.A. meeting Monday evening was devoted to discussion of Health and Safety. Guest speaker for the evening was Robert Harvie who presented a short and pertinent talk on this subject, pointing out that most accidents were the result of carelessness.

President Clyde Adair presided during the business session and heard a report on the boy patrol on South Stephens street, which is a local project of the Lions club. Plans were promoted to honor the boys for their volunteer service in an effort to improve the safety situation on the highway.

The membership drive, headed by Mrs. Carl Hill, showed a high percentage of parents had joined the association. Several projects were suggested for the P.T.A. and these were tabled until the December meeting.

LOYD PINKSTON HEADS OFFICERS FOR ELKHEAD CLUB

Lloyd Pinkston was elected chairman of the Elkhead community club at the meeting held Sunday in their hall. A potluck dinner preceded the business meeting.

Trustees will be Wilbur Briner and George Thompson; secretary treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Reeves and Meredith Freeman.

Plans were made for a potluck dinner and card party to be held at the hall Nov. 19 for residents of the community and their friends.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hovey, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Briner, Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Billings, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nimocks, Mrs. Larry Jazek and Dave Duncan.

Who's that cheerful guy who works out back at J. V. SPORTING GOODS? Why, that's Emery Williams. He has the shop with its own front door on Main street and a big sign in the shape of a key hanging over the sidewalk. But making keys isn't all he does—he's an expert solitaire-sharpener and sporting tackle repairman, too. And of course he knows all about guns, a subject that's popular these days. See him now, if you have a key or tackle problem.

That uncommon ingredient you find in people of surpassing judgment is: common sense.

Having troubles? Need something special for a party or cocktail sipping? Take your problem to CLEO'S QUALITY BAKERY, and the good folks there will help you if they possibly can. They'll help you plan your refreshments and bake your order for party shells or meringues or whatever you have in mind. Cleo's is the place where you'll always receive a friendly smile and a pleasant greeting, and you can count on special attention being given to special orders of any kind. Take a look in Cleo's window as you go by—you'll turn right around and go in when you see their yummy-looking individual pumpkin pies. Cleo and George Moats will have you know how to make wonderfully flaky, tender piecrust, filled to the brim with tasty creams or fruits or delicious mince or pumpkin. Try one this week.

Are you a baked ham luncher? Why not change and have a creamed dish once in a while? Vary your lunches from day to day with one of the ICE CREAMERY'S smoothly blended creamed tuna or chipped beef. They are made with cream sauce and peas, and served on toast. Of course, if you're too busy these pre-Yule days to go out for lunch, you may prefer a baked ham sandwich and milkshake to eat at your desk. Phone 948-R and the girls will have your order. The Ice Creamery is starting, and you can order what she wants for lunch "on the house."

Do you have a restless little convalescent at your house? We know just what to do for him—get one of these model kits from LESTER'S GIFT SHOP. Some of them are simple enough for even small children. There are airplane models of every kind from the Speed-Bilt Aeronca, Piper Cub or Boeing Kaydoid (P.T.T.) and gas-engine models to the miniature solid models made by Strombecker. There are cars, sailboats, steamships, and electric and wooden railroad train models. They are grand for keeping kids happy indoors during wet weather, and Sonny's more successful efforts make an appropriate addition to the decoration of his room when suspended from the ceiling on picture wire.

Here's good news for fall decorators and redecorators—JOSSE'S Drapery Department has a brand-new paint-blending machine. Now you don't have to wait while the paint is sent out-of-town for blending. The new machine takes about ten minutes to mix any shade you order from the Nu-Hue Custom Color charts. It's all done by a foolproof mathematical formula, and a fascinating process which you're welcome to watch. A record will be kept of your order, just like a doctor's prescription, in case you want to match it, later.

Drawing is SPEAKING to the eye; talking is PAINTING to the ear.

Junior high boy an outfit for Christmas—it'll keep him out of mischief!

Junior high girls will be happy to hear about the new Jean-Marie all wool cashmere sweaters, at LUYERNE'S. Long-sleeved pullovers come in enchanting shades of hyacinth, tangerine, minuet green, and more common colors. Short-sleeved cardigans are red, navy, green, or hyacinth blue. Part-angora pullovers with short sleeves are in soft pastels—blue, yellow, white, pink, cherry, jade green. There are short-sleeved cashmere pullovers, too, in gayer hues. Just to look is to drool, if you're a young sweater-girl. Buy several, and Bonnie Doon anklets to match each one. Then you'll have the beginnings of a color-scheme wardrobe. And Mom and Dad will like the prices, too—in the lower dollar brackets.

You're a camera amateur? Then you'll find whatever you need in photographic supplies at CLARK'S STUDIO, 105 South Jackson. Here are a complete library of books on developing, printing, and enlarging, which sell for 25c to 95c each. Here are tripods, reflectors, and film splitters for cutting your own home movies.
