Roseburg was threatening again at the final whistle, with the game ending 20.14 in Grants Pass' favor.

Speaker for the meeting, at which Lady Lions were guests, was Glenn N. Riddle of Riddle, who spoke on early pioneer history.

We hear more and more each We hear more and more each day about what we should do in education tomorrow. I feel that we should spend more time in opening a window of learning today, so that the children will be able to better meet their problems of tomorrow.

The philosophy of the Roseburg school is to encourage and assist each pupil to successfully attain efficiency in the fundamental processes of reading, writing arithmetic, reasoning, good health habits, and in the development of social responsibility leading to successful citizenship in our democratic society.

We are working to achieve these ideals, and we wish to take this opportunity to thank the church and the home which are the other two great institutions that are helping us to reach this goal.

The citizens of the future are going to have to know more about the world than their pre-decessors. This is an inescapable fact, and through the cooperation of the church, the home, and the College 6.
