MR. AND MRS. SMITH ENTERTAIN AT DINNER ON SATURDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Smith entertained at a delightful dinner Saturday evening at their home. Covers were placed at an attractively appointed table for Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pittam, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wilkerson and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

The Masonic Temple was filled to capacity Saturday night when Roseburg chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star honored two of its members: Leila Wimberly, Associate Grand Conductress of the Grand Chapter; and Alda Williams, Grand Representative of the Province of Sasatchewan. About thirty official members of the Grand Chapter were here from all over the state. Frances Ellison, worthy matron, presided in the East. The program opened with the escort of the Worthy Grand Matron, Edna Throne, and the Worthy Grand Patron, Leslie Bass. Then the conductresses escorted the honored members, Leila Wimberly and Alda Williams, who were presented and seated in the East. Other distinguished guests seated in the East were: Faye Ambrose, Lorena McNair, Catherine Felger, and Ilma Thum, Past Grand Matrons of the Grand Chapter.

Judge Carl Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberly Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wimberly, and R. D. Williams, families of the honored members were introduced. After the flag escort a welcome to all those present was given by the worthy matron. The worthy patron announced the program.

The Eastern Star choir in pale green evening dresses, sang the following numbers under the direction of R. Cloyd Riffe and accompanied by Lois Stewart: "The Star," "Four Leaf Clover," dedicated to Alda Williams, "Through the Years," dedicated to Leila Wimberly, and "Memories."

A radio television skit with Star members depicting the different events in the lives of Leila Wimberly and Alda Williams was presented. Ray Hiam was the announcer and Cloyd Riffe played background music. The events portrayed were: birth announcements, school days, graduations, weddings and worthy matrons. The spotlights were turned on the two honored members in the East to show how they look today.

The Courtesy Girls gave an addendum using various colored balloons and at the close they escorted Leila Wimberly and Alda Williams into a heart formation and presented each with a guest book bearing the signatures of all those attending the occasion.

The following responded with short talks when called upon: Edna Throne, Worthy Grand Matron; Leslie Bass, Worthy Grand Patron; Catherine Felger, Committee member of the General Grand Chapter; and Past Grand Matron; Lorena McNair, Past Grand Matron; Alice Robinson, Grand Conductress; Buelah Faber, member of traveling flags committee of Grand Chapter; Bertha Burton, Grand Representative of North Carolina; Leila Wimberly and Alda Williams.

At the close of the responses, Irene McKinley, Grand Organist, was asked to whistle several numbers accompanied by Myrtle Burr, chapter organist. The guests were served from two beautifully decorated tea tables, one in the dining room and one in the reception room. The latter table was covered with a lace table cloth made by the late Marie Flint McCall and given to the chapter. The candleabra and candle sticks had been presented to Mrs. McCall by the White Shrine and Eastern Star at the close of her year in each organization.

Those serving at the tea tables were, Mesdames Myrtle Kent, Anne Wimberly, Ana Cordon, Helene Wimberly, Mada Whipple, Mary Marshall, Florence Hercher and Nelle Motschenbacher.

Sunday morning at 9:30 a lovely breakfast was served in the dining room to the out of town guests, past matrons, past patrons and officers of the Roseburg Chapter. The tables were beautifully decorated with gourds, fruit and autumn leaves. Singing and visiting were enjoyed.
