

"COME HERE, YOU," says a cook to one of the girls in noon grubline at the Dillard school, who momentarily is inattentive to her oats. Are ALL girls in Dillard as pretty as these, did I hear you say? You'll excuse me, please, if I stay neutral. And, er—all in one piece. (By Paul Jenkins)

Titled Lady Who Knows Her Wolves—That's Miss Margaret Phelan

By Hal Boyle
 NEW YORK. — (P) — Democratic America has a passion for conferring titles on pretty girls. One who has practically been nominated "Miss everything" is Margaret Phelan, an ex-choir singer and star songbird of the nation's supper club circuit. So far Miss Phelan, a Texas Irish lass with dark red hair and eyes like fireflies, has been chosen: "The girl with the most perfect shoulders in the world"—by the Artists League of America. "Miss Gung Ho"—by the marine corps' first division. "One of the ten best tailored women in America"—by the Custom Tailors guild. Runnerup in the "ten best dressed women in America"—by the Fashion academy. "Miss sharp look of 1949"—by the Associated Cutlery industry. "One of the ten best non-professional dancers in America"—by the Dance Educators of America. "Miss Ambassador of National Flower Week"—by the American Society of Florists. "The girl we'd most like to regiment"—by an army regiment. These honors rest lightly on Miss Phelan's beautiful shoulders, which unfortunately were covered by a throat-high green dress the afternoon I talked to her in the Peacock Alley at the Waldorf. (Incidentally, you see more quail in that alley than peacocks.) "I thought that 'Miss Gung Ho' business topped them all," said Maggie. "I understand it's sort of a marine invasion cry." The title she herself feels she has most earned, however, is "Miss Wolf Expert." Her throaty soprano and intimate songs make many a lonely night club patron want to howl his woes into her ears at a post-supper table for two. Margaret has found the average American wolf about as subtle in his approach as a circus parade—or a horse on tiptoe. "Men are the same everywhere—in or out of a night club," she said. "There are no unusual approaches. "Of course, some men say they want to put you in a moving picture—or something. But that's not unusual." As a matter of policy, Miss Phelan turns down all invitations. She said the nicest man she never met was a fellow who heard her sing in Chicago and sent a bottle of champagne to her room. "And only a single glass came with the champagne," she laughed. She thinks it an odd coincidence that the name Phelan itself originally meant "wolf." "In old Ireland the wolf was highly regarded and respected, too," she said, "something like the cow is today in India." Margaret is the daughter of Art Phelan, a former big league ball player. She studied to be an opera singer. In 1941 she married a young naval flyer. Three months later he was killed on a battle mission in the Pacific. The young widow came to Manhattan to try to resume the career she had given up at her marriage. "I worked as a secretary and got a job in a church choir," she said. Margaret didn't get a chance at opera, but an agent did get her a week's booking at a Buffalo night club. In the years since then Maggie has worked herself into the $1,000-a-week-and-up bracket.

PARADERS SENTENCED
 NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 14. — (P) — Seventeen men were convicted Saturday on charges of contempt of court resulting from a mass parade of about 500 unionists through the Bell Aircraft corp. plant during a recent strike. Justice William H. Munson sentenced all but three to the maximum penalty of 30 days in jail and $250 fine. The three received the fines but no jail sentences.

COLISEUM NOT PAVILION
 PORTLAND, Nov. 14. — (P) — The vast basketball building at Oregon State college, Corvallis, will be known in the future as the coliseum and not the pavilion as it has been referred to since construction. This designation was agreed upon Friday by the State Board of Higher Education's building committee on recommendation of Dr. A. L. Strand, president of OSC.

Correspondent Is Confident Reds Will Not Attack

EDMONTON, Alberta. — (P) — One foreign correspondent is so confident that the Chinese Communists won't soon attempt an assault on Hong Kong that he is taking his bride back to that potential far eastern trouble spot. Seymour Topping of the Associated Press, married yesterday in Camrose, Alberta, said here last night that Hong Kong is the sole trading contact the Communist regime has with the Democracies. The Reds, Topping said, are anxious to maintain that link. If and when the Communist decide to try to take the British Crown colony, Topping said, they probably will try to do it from within. He considered a CHILD SURVIVES ORDEAL.

SEATTLE. — (P) — One-year-old Carolyn Wood of Spokane, born with her bladder outside her body, has undergone successfully an operation to correct her condition. It was the first of three scheduled operations to make her normal. Her condition was reported satisfactory by Children's Orthopedic hospital attendants after the lengthy surgery. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Wood.

frontal attack on the reinforced British garrison unlikely.

Topping met his bride, Audrey Ronning, last year in Nanking, the former Nationalist capital. Her father, C. A. Ronning, was Canadian consul there.

The couple left Edmonton last night by plane for New York on the first lap of their journey to the far east.

Woman Shot To Death As Officer Looks On

WICHITA FALLS, Texas. — (P) — Mrs. C. C. Crowson was shot to death in the driveway of her home as a policeman looked on. W. S. Bourland, 53, a next-door neighbor, surrendered and was charged with murder. Police Officer Ernest Deaton knocked the barrel of a shotgun down after Mrs. Crowson had been shot twice and mortally wounded. She died 30 minutes later. Officers said Bourland and Mrs. Crowson had been in disputes during the last several months. One dispute was the community driveway between their homes. Deaton had gone to the scene just prior to the shooting. He had pushed an automobile out of the driveway and was taking the number of the car when the shots were fired, he said.
