Battle Over "Two-Platoon" Football Due For Resumption At Coaches Assn. Meeting

By WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Get set for a knock-down drag-out rules battle this winter over "two-platoon" football. The subject is red hot again.

The small guys, snorting fire and brimstone, are agin' it. The big guys, with their multiple-unit squads and lush athletic coffers, are all for it.

The matter will come to a head at the meeting of the college rules committee here in January.

Chief spokesman for the opponents of the free substitution rule is Harvey Harman of Rutgers, former president of the Football Coaches association.

"I am convinced we can change the rules and kill the two-platoon system," Harman says. "I know 90 per cent of the coaches are against the present rule."

The liberalized substitution rule permits teams to shove players in and out of games in 11-man units. This has brought the age of specialization, with separate offensive and defensive elevens.

Harman and his crowd want the standards revised so that a coach can substitute only two or three men at a time.

The pro-platoon boys, you'd have to list Earl Ballew of Army and Left James of Cornell as the main champions, contend that free substitution is another step in the progress of the sport.

"The era of specialization is here and here to stay," contend the pro-platooners. "We shouldn't hamper the game just to equalize playing strength."

Lou Little of Columbia, chairman of the coaches rules committee, urges the boys not to be hasty in their judgement.

"This much I know," he said, "you can't equalize the playing strengths of teams by legislation."

If form prevails Saturday and Michigan defeats Ohio State while Minnesota is beating Wisconsin, count on Minnesota going to the Rose Bowl. Although the contenders would have similar records, the Gophers would have licked both the Buckeyes and Badgers.

Notre Dame Still Tops Grid Poll; Army Skids To 4

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(AP)—It's Notre Dame by a landslide with 86 per cent of the experts in the seventh weekly Associated Press poll.

The fighting Irish's first half score against North Carolina apparently didn't weaken their position.

On the strength of their final 42-6 victory over the Tarheels, Coach Frank Leahy's men were first on 140 of the 162 ballots submitted by sports writers and sportscasters across the nation.

Other members of the "Big Four"—Oklahoma, California and Army—which have been dominating the poll all season underwent a shakeup.

Because of its 14-13 squeaker against Pennsylvania, unbeaten Army fell from second to fourth and received only one first place vote.

Oklahoma's perfect record Sooner, 27-7 conquerors of Missouri, replaced Army as the No. 2 team, drawing 15 firsts. California also slid past Army into the No. 3 spot with five firsts after a 41-14 victory over Oregon.

The other first place vote went to ninth-place Virginia.

Michigan, Rice, Ohio State, Minnesota, Virginia and Southern Methodist follow the "big four" in that order. Ohio, moving up to seventh from 11th, and Southern Methodist, advancing to 10th from 12th, are the newcomers, replacing Cornell and Michigan State.

Basketball Clinic Will Be Held In December

Basketball officials, prospective officials and coaches of Douglas county and Roseburg will attend a basketball clinic at Senior high school early in December.

According to informed high school sources, A. Oden Hawes, of the Oregon Schools Activities association, will conduct the clinic and show a motion picture explaining latest rule changes in the game. Tests will be passed out at the end of the meeting, to those interested in working basketball games throughout the county.

Bosnich Hurt, New Foe For Joe Kahut Named

PORTLAND, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Ray Stevens of San Francisco has been substituted to fight Oregon's Joe Kahut in next Tuesday night's featured heavyweight boxing program.

National Boxing club matchmaker Tex Salkeld said today that Tony Bosnich, Oakland fighter originally slated to meet Kahut, had suffered a broken vertebrae in a training mishap.

Stevens fought here once before, flattening Kayo Hooker for the count on that occasion.

The first patent for the coaxial cable, designed for television relay, was filed on May 23, 1923. It was not until October 5, 1936, that the first circuit, from New York to Philadelphia, was opened for tests.

Joe Louis Wins Praise For Not Delivering K. O.

BOSTON, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Joe Louis left Boston "feelin' good" and with a sincere verbal pat on the back for Johnny Shkor, the Boston and Baltimore heavyweight with whom he went ten exhibition rounds.

Louis, who had a majority of the Boston garden fans rooting for him last night, drew the plaudits of reporters for his decency.

As he reclined on a rubbing table wrapped in towels the retired heavyweight king responded to a question.

"Sure I'd have knocked him out if I could've in one punch. But I didn't want to get him staggerin' around'n then do it. This was an exhibition."

There wasn't much doubt that Louis, who began a string of ten 10-round exhibitions here, could have "gone after" Shkor and cut him up considerably, eventually knocking out his opponent.

For the Brown Bomber still has his punch, even though his lack of timing from inactivity was obvious.

Nevertheless, he dropped Shkor three times for nine counts, once in the second and twice in the third.

Annual Oregon U. OSC Grid Battle Slated Saturday

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—The "Big Game," the annual intra-state battle between Oregon and Oregon State, climaxes the 1949 grid season for both schools Saturday, November 19, on Oregon's Hayward field.

The 1949 edition of the yearly struggle, the oldest series in Oregon football history, commencing in 1894, promises to be another titanic. Both clubs are out of post-season bowl contention, but previous performances mean nothing when these two teams meet.

The game will be Homecoming for Oregon alumni, and the Hayward field stands have been sold out for two weeks, with 23,000 spectators expected to jam the grandstands to watch the tilt.

As a result of Oregon State's recent improvement, and Oregon's string of defeats, the two elevens will enter the tilt on even terms. Oregon's Ducks have defeated the Beavers twice in a row under Jim Aiken, by scores of 14 to 6 and 10 to 0, but OSC, under its new Michigan-system Coach Kip Taylor, is definitely gunning to snap this string this season.

Fifty-two games have been played in this ancient series, and the Webfoots have walked off with 27 victories in that time. Oregon State has won 18, and seven games ended in ties. The Ducks have scored 463 points to OSC's 353.

Maxie Docusen Faces His Toughest Battle

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Unbeaten Maxie Docusen faces the toughest foe in his career tonight when he meets California lightweight champion Enrique Bolanos in a bout scheduled for 12 rounds.

Docusen, celebrating his 21st birthday today, has not been whipped in 66 bouts but Bolanos rates as the best fighter he has ever met. The Mexico City boxer,
