KRNR DIAL-LOG

It would seem the more ridiculous a song-writer can be when he sets down the lyrics for a tune—the farther in popularity his song mushrooms. Take for instance "Dreamer's Holiday" . . . First line suggests that you "climb upon a butterfly" and go shooting all over them—there half-acres . . . then promises "a dish of scrambled stars for breakfast every day" . . . "Scuse us while we raise an eyebrow—assume a more-than-usual blank expression—and shrug our shoulders. Then there are dreamy lyrics like those in "Tenderly," by Jack Lawrence (music by Walter Gross) . . . and nobody notices . . . Moral of the story being . . . absolutely nothing.

Ya-shure-you-betcha Monday's "Linger Awhile" interview session was a good one with its Swedish lad Stig (Steg) Nedstrom tossing his accent and informative comments over the KRNR air-waves. Immediately following the broadcast, Mr. and Mrs. Charnstrom (Rt. 2, Roseburg) made a bee-line for our studios and Stig . . . because he hails from Mr. Charnstrom's home-town in Sweden . . . Skelleftea. An hour-long Swedish reunion then took place in our front office. Today's "Linger Awhile" guest was Clover (Kerr) Taylor, nationally famous personality who completely captivated Lyle Fenner with her lovely complexion and sparkling smile.

Tune in "What's the Name of that Song?" tonight at eight . . . "Tex Bencke" at 8:45 . . . "Music You Want" at 10 . . . "I Love a Mystery" at 10:30 . . . and "McPherson in Person"—11 to 11:30.

STARTS GIANT PROJECT
ADAMINABY, Australia. — (P) — Australia's Snowy river has been a waster. It has poured a half-million gallons of water each minute into the sea. All this waste is to be stopped with the greatest engineering project ever attempted in Australia. The Snowy river hydro electric scheme has been talked about in this country for 70 years. Now it has been started. The entire project will cost an estimated $440 million and take 20 years to complete. The government plans to use teams of migrant labor, employing as many as 10,000 men on the project. Special towns will be built to house workers near the jobs.

First American troops to land in Cuba during the Spanish American War were U. S. Marines who established a beachhead at Guantanamo Bay in June, 1898.

Hanford Council, Atomic Board Are In Controversy

RICHLAND, Wash. — (P) — Friction between local representatives of the atomic energy commission and the city council may result in an appeal to the commission's general manager, Mayor David McDonald said.

McDonald has accused the AEC's town management body with failure to consult the council on civic policies and changes. The mayor told the Chronicle in Spokane that the nine-man council may go directly to Carroll Wilson, manager of the AEC, or resign. Possibly it would do both, he said.

"We are certainly not accomplishing much under the present system," McDonald said. "If the civic policy is not altered, I, for one, feel that the council will have no alternative but to go directly to Carroll Wilson."

He added, "It is my sincere belief that on one point alone, that of the proposed civic charter, that at least some of the council members wish to either appeal to Wilson or resign if the council's wishes continue to be ignored on the charter proposals."

McDonald charged that the local AEC representatives have not complied with a letter written by Wilson directing that civic councils in the atomic energy towns be consulted on policies and changes.

The mayor said in an Armistice day speech: "Our local government here is not democratic. It would be called a benevolent dictatorship."

He listed among his complaints increases in rents and telephone rates, changes in medical staff operations, and town planning. McDonald said the council had not been consulted on any of the matters.

years. The count was 11,948 for Gamblin; 10,466 for Christenson. The presidency of the council, which includes Washington, Oregon, northern California, Idaho and Montana, is not a full time office.

Kenneth Davis, the council's executive secretary, was re-elected without opposition. His headquarters are in Portland.

Swedes Angered By Remarks Of U. S. Senators

ATHENS, Greece — (P) — The senators and the Swedes were still swapping harsh words today. Their dispute revolved around the reception in Sweden recently of a Europe-touring U. S. senate appropriations subcommittee. It also took in Sweden's need—or lack of it—for American financial aid, and the part Sweden played in World War Two.

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) was the latest touring senator heard from. He said Sweden needed no American help, "profited greatly during the past war and has one of the highest living standards in the world."

"In the case of another international crisis," McClellan added, "she'd go with whoever looked like the winner."

Sweden's press directed such words as "liar" and "twaddling nonsense" at the senate subcommittee chairman, Sen. Elmer

Thomas (D-Okla.). He started the whole fuss when he told reporters in Vienna that government officials in one country "acted as if they did not know we were within a thousand miles of the place."

Other committee members said Thomas was talking about Sweden. The Oklahoma senator confirmed this.

Sweden's biggest newspaper, the liberal Dagens Nyheter, termed Thomas' remarks "twaddling nonsense," and expressed doubts about the senator's "mental acumen and his qualifications to represent abroad the mightiest country in the world."
