Underprivileged Children To Get Aid From Kids' Day

CHICAGO—Upwards of 1,000,000 underprivileged children will benefit from programs initiating on National Kids' day, Saturday, Nov. 19. In hundreds of communities throughout the United States and Canada, O. E. Peterson, executive secretary of Kiwanis International, estimated on the basis of reports received at the general office here.

In Roseburg the day will be observed Friday at 7:30 p.m. by a football jamboree, which the local Kiwanis club is sponsoring for students of Rose, Benson, Fullerton and Riverside grade school children. The jamboree, to be held at Finlay field, will include cheer section competition for the represented schools.

Kiwanis International, with its

3,000 local Kiwanis clubs and the National Kids' Day Foundation, Inc., are sponsoring the observance which will be devoted to the problems of underprivileged boys and girls and to attract public attention to youth accomplishments. Hundreds of Kiwanis clubs already have completed plans for their local programs, according to reports arriving at the general office.

Aid On Local Basis Planned

An outstanding feature of National Kids' Day, explained Peterson, is the fact that programs to aid the underprivileged are being developed on a local basis. Money raised to provide educational, medical and recreational facilities for the less fortunate youth will be spent in the local communities.

"The problem of underprivileged children," commented Peterson, "is a local one and must be solved on a community basis. Problems of both the underprivileged and juvenile delinquency are tied together and in meeting the former we can reduce the dangers of the latter. Through National Kids' Day, Kiwanis hopes to rally all of the forces of enthusiasm with which Kiwanis their local programs.

"The local programs are non-commercial, and the day will not be observed as a gift-giving occasion. If we can provide aid and inspire hope in the future for the less fortunate, National Kids' Day will have accomplished its purpose."

Lumber Orders Exceed Output For 11th Week In Row

PORTLAND, Nov. 17.—(AP)—For the 11th straight week orders for west coast lumber exceeded production from the Douglas fir sawmills of western Washington and Oregon, according to H. V. Simpson, executive vice president of the West Coast Lumbermen's association. Orders averaged 185,654,000 feet per week during October as against production averages of 168,626,000 feet per week.

Unfilled order files at west coast mills stood at 609,049,000 feet at the end of October, Simpson pointed out, which is highest point reached since March of this year. Gross stocks at Douglas fir mills shrank during October to 918,508,000 feet, lowest they have been since October of 1948.

Continued strong demand for all west coast species is best indicated by total orders for the first 43 weeks of this year of 7,077,288,000 board feet as compared to 6,927,584,000 for same period last year, Simpson said.

An unusually heavy demand from Atlantic coast states has accounted for 908,308,000 board feet shipments by water so far this year as against 599,829,000 to the same area for the first 43 weeks of last year. Shipments of 6,916,233,000 board feet for the ten months of 1949 top production for the same period by 143 million feet, the lumber leader stated.

Shah Of Iran In U. S. To Ask Boost In Military Aid

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—(AP)—The Shah of Iran said today he "certainly" will propose to President Truman an increase in American military aid to his country.

"Iran is important to the peace of the world and especially to the security of the Middle East," the Shah said in a news conference.

The youthful Shah, who arrived yesterday for a month's good will visit, said also:

1. Iran's relations with its neighbor, Soviet Russia, "have improved a little lately." The Iranians "are always willing to be friendly with our neighbors, but always on a basis of mutual respect and independence."
2. Iran is interested in the future creation of a Middle Eastern defense pact, like the North Atlantic treaty, but the time is "a little too early." The country's economy should be strengthened first.
3. What has impressed him about the United States thus far is "the well being of your people." He said "they have happy faces, are well attired, and look friendly."

4. Iran's attitude toward the new state of Israel will be determined after discussions with other Moslem countries.

5. He is not looking for a bride during his stay here. The Shah is 30 and matrimonially eligible since divorcing the former queen Fawzia, a sister of the king of Egypt.

Needs U.S. Friendship

The Shah's plain statement that he wants more military aid for his country was only a little more direct than remarks he had made last night.

The young monarch addressed himself directly to President Truman last night at a state dinner which followed by a few hours his arrival from Tehran in Mr. Truman's plane, the Independence.

Iran, he said, needs American friendship, and hopes for "even closer cooperation and intensified help in the future."

The Shah—his Imperial Majesty Mohammed Reza Shah Pahlavi—made his remarks in response to words of greeting offered by the President.

His oil-rich nation, an uneasy neighbor of Soviet Russia, already is receiving some American assistance. Iran is one of 14 countries sharing in the new U.S. $1,314,010,000 Arms-aid program, and its 115,000-man army has American advisers.

President Truman, in a dinner toast to the Shah, said that the U.S. and Iran honor their pledges, but that America has been dealing with "a great power that does not believe in keeping its contracts." He was obviously referring to Russia.

After four days in the capital area the Shah leaves for New York on Sunday for the start of a tour which will take him to the Pacific coast.
