Oregon State In Top Shape For Tilt With Oregon

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, CORVALLIS, Nov. 18 — When two high-scoring football machines, neither of which has been particularly strong on defense, collide, anything can happen.

And that will be the case when grid football players of the two clubs in Oregon State's history travel to Eugene Saturday for the traditional big game again, starch rival Oregon, who also has rolled up big totals all season only to have the opposition collect even more on five occasions.

In nine games to date the Beavers have run up 212 points to better the former record for a regular season of 202, held jointly by the 1928 and 1948 teams. Coach Kip Taylor's offense-minded club has averaged just a fraction under 23 points a game. Undeclared California is the only opponent to keep the Orange from crossing the goal this fall.

In winning six out of nine starts the Beavers have proved almost equally effective in the air as on the ground. The talented Orange backs have rumped 1274 yards on the ground and connected on 74 aerials for 1229 yards. Ken Carpenter, brilliant left half, tops the club in total offense with 925 yards, 643 of which came rushing and 281 passing. If he can make more than 75 yards against the Webfoots, he will be the first Beaver in history to pass the 1000 mark for one season.

Fifteen Oregon State seniors will be playing their last game against Oregon. Rounding out their career in the vastly improved line are such stalwarts as Bud Gibbs and Craig McMick, line and Jim Rupples, ends; Simon and Rudy Inglesby, tackles; DeSylvia and Ed Carmichael, guards; and Jim Clements, center.

The Orange backfield will be hit even harder by graduation. Three of the four starters — Gray, Carpenter and Twenge — depart along with Dick Vaillancourt and Knudsen, Duane Moore and Don Mast.

Woman's Mystery Death

WANCOUER, B. C., Nov. 18 — A $2,500 reward was posted yesterday for a solution to the death of Fern Blanchette Fisher, 48-year-old store clerk.

A coroner's jury returned an open verdict yesterday, that death had been caused by drowning after the bruises on her body had been inflicted by an unknown person.

Dr. T. R. Harmon, coroner's pathologist, said the middle-aged woman had been molested.

Miss Fisher's shaven body was found floating in false creek here Nov. 9. One month and a day earlier, the body of another woman, Joyce Monasterski, 25, was found on a nearby beach. Police said they believed both women to have been murdered.

DEGREE APPEALED

Notice of appeal to the supreme court of Oregon has been filed in circuit court by S. W. and Emma van Voorst, defendants in a suit brought against them and Ward C. Watson by Frank Joseph and Berdanna Hatfield Norton.

A decree favoring the plaintiffs was entered at Roseburg Oct. 12, 1949, in which the court purported to decree the specific performance of a real property contract by ordering the defendant to execute a deed of conveyance and accept $3,838.43, plus $82.24 in addition to full satisfaction of the terms, states the appeal.

FINED FOR BOTTLE

Amendius Joseph Bottla Reedsport paid a fine of $40 on a charge of being drunk on a public highway, upon a plea of guilty in Justice court Wednesday, Justice of Peace A. J. Geddes reported.

3 Oregon Prep Gridiron Titles At Stake Tonight

By The Associated Press
The big race for Oregon's three prep gridiron championships starts tonight, with only one defending champion back in the running for a second straight crown.

Mohawk of Marcola, the six-man football champion last year, is the only contestant with a chance to retain its title.

But the school which has taken more titles than anybody else will be out for still another one—and favored to hurdle at least the quarter-final mark.

That is Grant High of Portland, three-time class A titlist, which will meet Central Catholic of Portland in Multnomah stadium tonight.

Marshfield, Hillsboro and Klamath Falls are favored to win tonight's other class A quarter-finals and more into semi-final berths.

Both Marshfield and Hillsboro will be playing repeat performances. Marshfield, pitted against Eugene in the quarter-final, beat the Eugene Axemen, 19-6, only two weeks ago.

Hillsboro, undefeated and undefeated this year, opened the gridiron season by stopping Milwaukie, 20-7, and is the odds-on favorite to down Milwaukie again tonight.

The odds are slightly in favor of Klamath Falls over La Grande in the remaining big school playoff. The Klamath Pelicans have one loss to La Grande's unbeaten, untied record—but they've also met tougher opponents.

The smaller class B schools also open action tonight in quarter-final play-offs. The slate: Banks vs. St. Paul; Lowell vs. Vandor; Malin vs. Moro; Echo vs. Union.

The weekend play-offs among still smaller schools will bring three six-man contests: Marcola vs. Coos River, Weston vs. Eagle Valley of Richland, and Westport vs. Falls City. Talent has already downed Dufur, 46-6, in the first six-man playoff.

Reported ill — Mrs. H. C. Church is reported to be ill at her home on South Kane street.

Back From San Francisco—Atorney and Mrs. A. N. Orcutt have returned to their home on North Jackson street, following a trip to San Francisco.

Go to Idaho—Mrs. W. C. Callison of Roseburg has left for Idaho to spend a week visiting her mother, who is celebrating her ninety-second birthday in a few days.

Spend Thursday Here—Mrs. O. D. McAllister and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Paul Hult, of Diland spent Thursday in Roseburg visiting friends and attending to business.

Return to Roseburg—Mrs. M. E. Ritter St. and Mrs. A. F. Shukle returned to their homes in Roseburg Thursday, following a trip to Eugene, Portland and Seattle.

Back From Portland — Tom Fargeter, of the insurance department of the Douglas Abstract company, has returned to Roseburg from a business trip to Portland.

Rummage Sale — Mu chapter, Beta Sigma Phi will sponsor a rummage sale Saturday, Nov. 19, at the Episcopal parish hall on East Cass street. A special feature of the sale will be a large assortment of children's clothing.

Losers to Entertain—The losing side in the pest hunt contest, captained by Leroy Selgrist, will entertain the winning team at a hamburger feed at the South Deer Creek Grange meeting Saturday night. A social hour will follow.

Potluck Supper—The Relief Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints is having a potluck supper Saturday night, Nov. 19 at 7:30 p.m. at the K. of P. hall. Those attending are asked to bring silverware. Proceeds from the supper will be placed in a building fund.

Boys Is Born—A son, William Scott, weighing seven pounds and eight ounces, was born November 12, in Eugene in Mr. and Mrs. Sy Rodakowski. Mrs. Rodakowski, formerly Madlyn Stakowsky, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stearns of Oakland. Mrs. Stearns left this morning for Eugene to spend several days at the Rodakowski home.

Visiting Parents — Mrs. Ann Smith Rhoades and her four-year-old son, Thomas, and eight-month-old daughter, Linda, of San Leandro, Calif., have arrived in Roseburg to visit Mrs. Rhoades' parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, having been called here by the illness of Mr. Smith. The Rhoades family has resided in San Leandro for the last year and a half. Mrs. Rhoades expects to remain in Oregon until the first of the year and will visit relatives in Portland prior to returning to California.

Lifelong Resident Of Reedsport Passes

William V. Peterson, 37, a lifetime resident of Reedsport, died Monday in a Eugene hospital. He was born December 16, 1911, and came to Reedsport as an infant. He was married to Miss Laura Harris Dec. 26, 1935.

Surviving are the widow, Laura; a son, Peter, 9; a daughter, Joyce, 5; a brother, Alden, and his mother, Mrs. Ada Peterson, all of Reedsport.

Funeral services in charge of Unger's chapel will be Thursday at 1 p.m. Interment will be in the Reedsport Masonic cemetery.

Monroe Store Safe

MONROE, Ore. — (AP) — Burglars carried off the safe of the Monroe Furniture store with about $500 in it. In addition, they took an undetermined amount of merchandise, apparently backing a truck up to the freight doors and loading it, according to Bob Blair, store manager.

Entrance to the building was made by breaking two windows to get into the main store.

Runaway Facing Frost Bite Fight

SEATTLE — (AP) — A 12-year-old Kirkland boy is in the county hospital for frost bite treatment after five days of hiding in the woods.

He had run away to escape what he thought might be a whipping from his father. When other boys found him Tuesday, his toes and fingers were swollen nearly twice their normal size.

The boy is Gary Lee Osborne, one of nine children of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Osborne, residents of a housing project on the east side of Lake Washington.

Mrs. Osborne said Gary ran away after she warned him of possible punishment for the mess he made of his new dress shoes. The boy had grabbed them on the advice of friends, hoping to preserve them.

He said he spent five days in a "camp house" in a wooded area near Kirkland. He was wet much of the time and said he had only candy bars to eat until he got a hot lunch at school the fifth day.

His mother said he had run away once previously.

Death Claims Grandson Of Lindsay Applegate

GRANTS PASS, Nov. 18 — (AP) — Elmer I. Applegate, 82, grandson of Lindsay Applegate, one of the blazers of the famed Applegate trail, died Wednesday at his home at Williams, near here.

He was born on the Lindsay Applegate claim near Ashland. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. Luellen B. Applegate.

The deceased was the holder of honorary degrees from Stanford University and other schools for his contributions in the field of botany. His collection of botanical papers and materials is being left to Stanford.

A brother, Fred, resides in Salem. Three sisters are Williams residents. They are Mrs. Minnie Chtwood, Miss Evelyn Applegate and Mrs. Elsie Applegate Miller. The funeral will be held in Klamath Falls at the Whitlock funeral home today.

Truman Sticks To Tax Boost Plan To Meet Deficit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 — (AP) — President Truman repeated Thursday that he does not know of any way to wipe out the federal deficit without increasing taxes.

However, he declined to say at a news conference whether he plans to recommend a tax increase to Congress in January.

Several members of Congress called for a cut in spending after Mr. Truman talked about a possible tax increase at a recent news conference.

The president recalled a suggestion by Senator Douglas (D-Ill) that $4,500,000,000 could be lopped off the budget next year.

Mr. Truman remarked that the place for a member of Congress to take such action was on Capitol Hill.

He said it was an easy thing to talk about cutting federal spending, but a harder thing to accomplish it.

He said the budget he will submit in January—like the one he submitted last January—will be a tight budget and one that is hard to cut.

He wouldn't say whether next year's budget would be smaller or larger than the one he handed Congress last January. He said that when Congress got through with appropriations at the last session it had called for more spending than he had recommended.

To SPEAK AT MEETING — Congressman Harris Ellsworth will be speaker at a public meeting at the Melrose Grange hall Tuesday, Nov. 22, at 8 o'clock.
