

"Can't" or "Can"?

IT'S A FALLACY to say "It can't happen here!" Just about then it does happen—and it will happen again whether fire, windstorm, explosion or other calamity.

There's one way to prevent financial loss—ask this Hartford Agency.

DIAL-LOG

The last local football events of the season will come to a final climax tonight, when the all-star KID Day Jamboree is held at Finlay field. Highlights of the occasion will be broadcast over KRNR tonight from ten to approximately 10:30. Immediately following the rally feature, "I Love a Mystery," will be aired, neatly tying-up the outcome of this week's whodunit series.

From the lines of Don Lee network tonight comes a special "Football Rally" featuring coaches of U. S. C., California, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State in a half-hour session of pre-football game statements. (11-11:30 p. m.). Of particular interest to Oregonians will be the remarks tossed around by Oregon and Oregon State's football coaches in regard to tomorrow's big homecoming clash between their two teams. This last and biggest game of the season will be broadcast over KRNR tomorrow . . . 1:45 p. m. to conclusion.

Jeffrey Barnes, radio's "Mystery Theater" narrator, will make a guest appearance on tomorrow's "Quick as a Flash" program to present the capsule mystery to be guessed by contestants. Win Elliott emcees, 6:00-6:25 p. m.) Booth Tarkington's perennial comedy favorite, "Clarence," will be the special "Comedy Playhouse" adaptation tomorrow night at 7, with Jonathan Holes in the title role and the Gold Coast Players featured in supporting roles. On "Meet the Press" Saturday night at 8:30 will be Brigadier General Frank L. Howley, for the regular weekly press-interview.

PARROT OUTDOES CUCKOO
MARGATE, N. J. — (AP) — Time is cuckoo these days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edison Hedges. Their daughter, Clarissa, recently brought a cuckoo clock from Switzerland. The Hedges' pet parrot, "Joey," was fascinated by the cuckoo in the clock. Joey learned to out-cuckoo the clock. He usually adds a few licks of his own to those of the cuckoo. Frequently now, when the Hedges sit down for dinner, it appears to be 15 o'clock—Joey time, of course.

APPRAISERS NAMED
Upon petition of the administratrix, Helene E. Wimberly, Circuit Judge Carl E. Wimberly, acting in the absence of the county judge, has issued an order appointing G. V. Wimberly, Harry Black and F. G. Stewart as appraisers of the estate of Louise V. Smith.

RACCOONS BECOME NUISANCE
WASHINGTON — (AP) — The whims of civilization are often echoed in nature. Raccoon is out of favor for fur coats. So trappers don't catch coons any more. So there are more coons—so many that they're beginning to damage truck farms and corn fields in some sections. They're even killing themselves by following trap lines and damaging pelts of other animals, muskrats mostly. So the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service is sending coon pelts to factories and laboratories in a search for other uses that will cut down on the little masked animals again.

African natives sometimes make human sacrifices to trees.
