GOLD STAR MOTHERS HEAR SPEECH, ENTERTAIN STATE OFFICERS AT ARMORY

Roseburg Chapter of American Gold Star Mothers met recently at the armory with a group of state and local officers in attendance. The meeting was highlighted by a speech by Major C. J. Ansell who cleared up a misunderstanding in a recent talk he had given on military training and soldiers in modern warfare.

A report was heard on the carnival held at the Veterans hospital and plans for participation in the Christmas program. A bazaar and food sale will be held Dec. 4 at the Umpqua Valley Hardware.

Present were the newly-elected state department president, Magdalena Buttler of North Bend; state department recording secretary, Mary Lou Newhouse of Roseburg; state department color bearer, Mae Belle Christen-

American Apples To Be Bought By Great Britain

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration announces that Great Britain soon will buy about $4,000,000 worth of apples from American suppliers.

The recovery agency said it has earmarked $2,000,000 in Marshall plan funds to help finance the purchases. It was understood that the remaining sum will come through Department of Agriculture subsidy payments to the fruit growers.

ECA officials said the buying will be done by the British and that offers from growers and dealers will be received until November 21. The fruit must meet certain specifications and be packed for export shipment.

APPOINTMENT ASKED Ruth Buch, Oakland, has petitioned for appointment as administratrix of the estate of Rebecca E. Riggs, also of Oakland, who died intestate Oct. 15, 1949, leaving an estate estimated at $8,500.

The petition also names as qualified persons to act as appraisers Leo Sparks, Charles H. Davison and Homer Haines.

COLLEGE ROSTERS UP

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A record enrollment in the nation's colleges has been reported by the Office of Education despite a 16 percent drop in veterans.

The enrollment totaled 2,455,841, an increase of 48,000 over a year ago. The number of veterans studying under the G.I. bill dropped to 856,000 as compared to 1,022,000 a year ago.

Statewide fall totals for northwest colleges were: Oregon 25,388—188 over last year; Washington 43,983—1,689 over last year and Idaho 8,266—24 over last year.

In relation to livestock prices, the price for milk and its products in 1948 were the lowest on record.

Window Shopping with Corinne

Shirrell Graves is the water-colorist whose original flower pictures are a new addition to the gallery in JOSSE'S Drapery Department. Camellias, poppies, and other flowers have sat for their portraits, set in dark matted wooden frames 20" wide by 24" long. An exotic white magnolia with black leaves is framed under glass in lined oak. Sold separately or by pairs, these pictures are priced surprisingly low for genuine water colors. And they are a charming addition to any home. Why not a Christmas gift for the house, this year? Go in to Josse's and look at these water colors this week, and you'll decide your house needs a pair of them.

ASHCRAFT'S have some more of those glorious Old-World Jewels by Speidel, copies of royal gems of the old world. We told you about the Maria Theresa bracelet, some time ago. Now Ashcraft's have one in a similar setting with engraved oval gold center and matching engraved oval gold ear clips. This is the Cellini set. The Charlotte Corday bracelet is a square locket made to hold one picture, with a heart engraved on the face and pearls set along one side. The locket is attached to the same expansion-type bracelet that is used for the others. They're lovely for personal gifts to the queen of your heart.

Make the most of what you have and soon you have something better to make the most of.

It's time, stamped now, to order your Christmas cards. If you want them right now, LESTER'S GIFT SHOP has a fine selection of greeting cards for you to choose from—and he'll stamp your name on them if you wish. Whether you buy your cards from him or not, bring them in and he'll do the stamping. While you're there, you'll find a suitable gift for everyone on your list. A lovely and inexpensive gift for Christmas or a housewarming is the solid polished brass Rite A Note to mount on your doorway. In colonial styling, it contains pad and pencil for your friends' messages when they come and find you gone. It's attractively designed, with a name-plate on which Les will stamp your name in gold.

There are only a few days left in which you can use those gift certificates from LUVERNE'S. You may apply the amount on the purchase of any dress, suit, or coat in her store, and she has some beautiful new ones. Her party dresses for the young girls are irresistible. One in jacquard taffeta has shiny blue-green clover leaves on the changeable taffeta background. Black velvet trims the neck and tiny puff sleeves, and outlines the yoke-style waist. Velvet buttons fasten the back. Another new one is a tailored grey self-check rayon, made by Demitasse, it buttons all the way down the front with flat pet-covered buttons, and has stunning side pockets for a pegged silhouette. With three-quarter length sleeves and a loop low on the left shoulder, this simple style comes in the popular half sizes. Hurry, hurry, hurry... get your dress now, and you'll be set for the holiday whirl and many days thereafter.

CLARK'S STUDIO just got in some brand new Viewmaster projectors, for only $9.95. This is a fair-traded item at this price, so be wary of inferior projectors masquerading under the Viewmaster name at lower prices. Clark's have a large variety of reels for these projectors, from fairy tales and travelogues at 3 for $1.00 to Bible stories at 50c each. It's fun to operate a Viewmaster, and so simple—you just press the knob and the slides change. A modern version of the old-fashioned stereoscope with its intricate three-dimensional projection is the little viewer by Viewmaster. The same reels fit it that fit the projectors, but of course only one person may view them at a time. For children's parties, a Viewmaster projector and reels offers a splendid solution for the entertainment of little folks. Slip one under the Christmas tree for Christmas day enjoyment and many other occasions.

Working late, these nights? Drop over to the ICE CREAMERY for a hot bowl of chili, spaghetti, or baked beans to warm your innards and a cheery smile to warm your heart. Toasted or grilled sandwiches make good suppertime eating, with hot chocolate to drink. Or drop in for a snack after the show. The Ice Creamery is open on Sundays, too, from eleven in the morning till eleven at night, but it will be closed on Thanksgiving day. Folks are enjoying their take-out lunches from the Ice Creamery, and a few phone their orders ahead to avoid waiting when they go over to get it. Why don't you try it? Call 948-R and ask the girls to make up your lunch for you to eat at your desk, these busy days. This week, the lucky winner of the Betty Jewel. If she'll clip out this coupon and bring it to the Ice Creamery any day next week, she'll be treated to lunch "on the house."

We're almost afraid to mention the Russell "Bird Shooter" boots at J. V. SPORTING GOODS, because Mr. Voeller assures us that you'll probably mob the place to get the few sizes available from stock. But if you aren't one of the lucky individuals to get there first, he'll be glad to order them tailor-made for you. Remember, they're waterproof, light-weight, and have a non-slip sole.

So you won't be disappointed by finding the pies and rolls all gone at CLEO'S QUALITY BAKERY, order them now for your Thanksgiving dinner. There will be rich fruit cake and mince and pumpkin pies for holiday dessert, and your choice of pan rolls, potato rolls, napkin rolls, parkerhouse rolls, or butter puffs. Phone 981-J and tell Cleo what you want, so it will be ready for you to pick up fresh from the oven on Thanksgiving Eve.

Sometimes it pays to get mad, but not beyond the border of good judgment.

Defendants Win Jury Verdict in Damage Action

A circuit court jury found for the defendants, Theodore G. Moore and one John G. Moore, as "Tyece Lumber company, and Robert Fox, in a suit brought by Darlene M. Bringle, administratrix for the estate of Carl S. Bringle, deceased.

The plaintiff received nothing in the case and was ordered to pay the cost of litigation.

The following money suits have been filed in Circuit court: L. R. Gordon and George Lyett vs. Coyne Amul Parker and Renzo Julius Parker, doing business as Parker Bros. Logging company, and M. R. Madison.

On the first cause of suit, plaintiffs demand judgment for $694.15, plus interest, special costs and $150 attorney's fees. On the second cause of suit, plaintiffs demand judgment for $145.03, plus interest and special costs and attorney's fees of $75.

Plaintiffs allege they performed work and services for which they were not paid. Douglas County State bank vs. Maxine Patchett. Plaintiff demand judgment for $238.50, plus costs and attorney's fees of $100, allegedly due on unpaid balance of a loan.
