

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sauvain

Picture by Paul Jenkins

Miss Bernice Gibson, of Roseburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Erner of Albany, became the bride of Vernon Sauvain, son of Mrs. Lillie Sauvain, of Oakland, Calif., at an impressive ceremony at eight o'clock Friday night, November 11, at the First Methodist church. Rev. W. A. MacArthur performed the nuptials in the presence of seventy friends and relatives.

White candles in a tall candelabra centered the altar, which was flanked by baskets of chrysanthemums in white, rose, pink and yellow.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Cecil Worden, of Albany, was charming in a blue suit with grey accessories and a white orchid corsage. Miss Gladys Rupp of Riddle was maid of honor and wore a blue suit with blue and white accessories and a pink camellia corsage.

Kenny Brew of Medford was best man and Don White was usher.

The bride's mother wore a dark blue suit with blue hat and blue accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a winter white suit with grey accessories and a corsage of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's table, beautifully decorated in white, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bridal couple. The cake was served by Mrs. Eva White and the punch was served by Mrs. Merle Loomis.

Following a honeymoon to Bandon, the couple will make their home in Roseburg. The bride is employed as a cashier at the Roseburg Safeway store and the bridegroom is employed by REA.

Honored At Reception On Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turner

Picture by Master Photo Studio.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turner, for many years, were honored on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary at a very charming reception given by Mr. and Mrs.

Society

MURIEL MITCHELL IS GUEST SPEAKER AT LADY LIONS DINNER

Miss Muriel Mitchell, new librarian, was guest speaker on "The Roseburg Public Library," at the seven o'clock dinner meeting of the Lady Lions Monday evening at Carl's Haven with Mrs. Bruce Tuck, Mrs. James Campbell and Mrs. Edell Bryant, hostesses.

Miss Mitchell gave a very interesting and educational talk on books and displayed a large number of the new books in the library. She told of plans for the library and gave a sketch from Dorothy Thompson's new book. Her talk was very greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the group.

Mrs. Buckley Bell, president, conducted the meeting, which was attended by thirty-three members and four guests. Guests were Mrs. E. R. Walton, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. Kenneth B. Graves and Mrs. A. F. Saar.

Members besides Mrs. Bell were Mrs. Walter Allen, Mrs. Robert Browning, Mrs. Edell Bryant, Mrs. E. R. Buckingham, Mrs. David Campbell, Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. Bruce Elliott, Mrs. Carl Felker, Mrs. Jerry Gilbo, Mrs. Thomas Hartfield, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. D. W. Hellwell, Mrs. Earl Henry, Mrs. Bruce Hetrick, Mrs. W. H. Klatt, Mrs. Arthur Kobernik, Mrs. Willard Livermore, Mrs. Forrest Losee, Mrs. Cecil Lowe, Mrs. Donald Metzger, Mrs. Ross Newcomb, Mrs. Keith Phillips, Mrs. Frank Purdy, Mrs. Bernard Saar, Mrs. Wayne Saffly, Mrs. Norman Siefarth, Mrs. Phil Sutton, Mrs. Bruce Tuck, Mrs. Ralph Turner, Mrs. Walter Welker and Mrs. Frank Long.

The formal Christmas party will be held December 12th at a seven o'clock dinner at Carl's Haven, at which time members are requested to bring a gift to exchange and of the value of about a dollar. Hostesses for the affair will be Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, Mrs. D. W. Hellwell, Mrs. Bruce Elliott and Mrs. Buckley Bell.

HAPPY HOUR CLUB PLANS CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR DEC. 14

Mrs. Ray LaMar and Mrs. Lewis Cottrell were hostesses to the Riverdale Happy Hour club with a business meeting followed by refreshments.

Attending were Mrs. Neil Christian, Mrs. Walter Bailey, Mrs. W. E. Buell, Mrs. L. W. Cottrell, Mrs. Glen Cox, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Don Gully, Mrs. Dale Gully, Mrs. Robert Harmon, Mrs. Don Harmon, Mrs. Charles Lee and the hostesses.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. W. E. Buell with an exchange of Christmas gifts priced at fifty cents.

Phil Harth and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher at the Motschenbacher home on Winchester street Sunday, Nov. 6. Guests were invited to call between three and six o'clock. About one hundred and fifty friends called to honor Mr. and Mrs. Turner.

The table was covered with a lovely drawn-work cloth and a tin bowl filled with pink chrysanthemums, six white tapers, in silver candelabra, flanked the centerpiece. The beautiful four-tiered cake was decorated in all white with silver leaves.

Mrs. Turner was charming in a dinner gown of American beauty color. She wore a large orchid corsage.

Guests were greeted at the door by Carolyn Turner, youngest daughter of the guests of honor, and Mr. Motschenbacher. Howard Turner Jr. had charge of the guest book.

The guests were received in front of the fireplace, which was decorated with seven graduated white candles arranged with silver bells and white button chrysanthemums.

At four o'clock, KRNR radio station played the transcription of the interview of Del McKay for Lawson's Jewelry store with Mr. and Mrs. Turner chosen as the bride and bridegroom of the week.

Cloyd Riffe sang, "I'll Walk Beside You" and "Because" and Leroy Hiatt sang, "Just a Love Nest," "Sweetest, Story Ever Told," and "The Lord's Prayer." Incidental music was played during the reception hours by Mrs. Gordon Stewart.

Presiding at the serving table from three to four o'clock were Mrs. R. D. Williams and Mrs. A. J. Ellison. Mrs. G. C. Finlay and Mrs. Leslie C. Cummings presided at the table from four to five o'clock and Mrs. A. J. Young and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly Sr. presided from five to six o'clock.

Mrs. A. B. Taylor served the wedding cake. Assisting in serving and about the rooms were Mrs. Leroy Hiatt, Miss Yvonne Hiatt, Mrs. Chester Hercher, Mrs. Cecil Sherwood, Mrs. Forrest Losee and Miss Susan Motschenbacher. The hostesses and those assisting with the affair wore attractive formal afternoon gowns.

Many lovely gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner met while students at Lombard college in Galesburg, Ill. They were married in Corvallis, Nov. 8, 1924, at which time Mr. Turner was freshman coach at Oregon State college. He has served as an athletic coach in the Roseburg school system since coming to Roseburg a short time after their marriage. All of their children were born in this city and include: Mrs. Chet (Barbara) Rich of Astoria; Miss Cynthia Sue Turner, student at Oregon State college; Howard Jr., and Carolyn, of Roseburg. Both Mr. and Mrs. Turner are active in numerous civic and fraternal organizations of this city.

Republican Women Hold Informal Afternoon Tea At Umpqua Hotel

Staff Photos

Among those attending the informal Republican women's tea at the Umpqua hotel were Miss Anita Young, Mrs. Merton Cole and Miss Jane Ellsworth who are being served by Mrs. Eugene Springer. Miss Ellsworth is the daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth of Roseburg and is spending some time here during adjournment of Congress.

Douglas county Republican women and friends gathered at the Umpqua hotel during the afternoon hours Saturday to meet four women prominent in Republican circles. The occasion was highlighted by the visit of Congressman Harris Ellsworth, Sig Unander, of Portland, state chairman of the Republican party and H. O. Pargeter, head of Douglas County Republican central committee.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Guy Cordon, wife of Senator Guy Cordon; Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, wife of Congressman Ellsworth; Mrs. Marshall Cornett, national Republican committeewoman from Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Freda Peterson, state vice chairman, of Salem.

Music for the occasion was provided by a group of Roseburg musicians with Mrs. Gordon Stewart heading the committee for arrangements. Mrs. Leon Mulkey accompanied by Mrs. Stewart played violin numbers and Mr. R. Cloyd Riffe, accompanied by the latter, sang several selections. Mrs. Richard Cronshaw presented two vocal numbers with Mrs. Clarence Trued as accompanist.

The tea table was centered with an arrangement of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums with large lighted candles. Serving during the tea hours were Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. C. E. Marks, Mrs. R. G. Davis, Mrs. Eugene Springer, Miss Irene Walker and Mrs. T. B. Virden. Arrangements for the decorations were in charge of Mrs. Vel Broadway, chairman; Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. J. B. Josse and Mrs. George Wharton.

Mrs. Roy O. Young, county vice chairman and member of the state Republican executive committee was in charge of the afternoon arrangements. Hostesses were Mrs. Tom Parkinson, Mrs.

R. C. Gile, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. H. C. Berg and Mrs. R. L. Whipple.

Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Mrs. Cornett and Mrs. Peterson pose in the receiving line at the informal Republican Women's tea Saturday afternoon at the Umpqua hotel civic clubroom. All are well-known in Republican circles. Mrs. Peterson has many friends in Roseburg, having been connected with Junior Woman's club work for many years.

RECENTLY MARRIED COUPLE HONORED BY GROUP OF FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Balmbridge of Oakland were surprised at their country home Friday evening, Nov. 11 by a group of friends who honored them on their recent marriage. The evening was spent playing games. The Balmbridges were presented a lamp by the group. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening to about 45 guests.

DRESSMAKING ALTERATIONS
Zoe Newman
925 Cobb St. Phone 387-R

Head Majorette Of O. S. C. Band

Miss Raeda Reece

Miss Raeda Reece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reece of this city, has been appointed head majorette of the Oregon State college band. She will also serve as assistant to Drum Major Dick Peterson.

Miss Reece was one of the two local girls chosen last fall as Majorettes of the College band. The other girl was Miss Lorraine Losee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Losee. Both girls are in their first year of college.

A Group Picture of your family makes a wonderful Christmas gift for parents and grandparents... (and one that will be appreciated in your own home, too).

May we show you examples of our work?

Clark's Studio & Camera Store
105 N. Jackson Phone 331