Mrs. Thel Wilson Is Guest Speaker At Woman's Club

Mrs. Thel Wilson, Myrtle Creek, who is known from coast to coast for her excellent pottery and owner of a ceramics and sculpture studio, was guest speaker at the Roseburg Woman's club meeting at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Leland Van Allen very graciously introduced Mrs. Wilson, who gave an intensely interesting talk on "The Art of Pottery."

Mrs. Wilson studied at Mills college in San Francisco and in the School of Arts and Crafts at Berkeley, as well as studying design and oil painting, ceramics and sculpture in New York. Mrs. Wilson and her husband make their pottery from clay found right on their own farm property at Myrtle Creek. In 1948 Mrs. Wilson won first prize at the Oregon State fair pottery exhibit with a bowl made of her own backyard clay. Recently she created pottery for an exhibit by the Philadelphia Art Alliance, in which she was invited to participate and for the ceramics national exhibition. From this latter exhibit, individual pieces are selected to form a traveling show of pottery to be exhibited in museums through the United States. In 1948, a vase of Mrs. Wilson's was chosen for this traveling exhibit.

Mrs. J. M. Boyles, president, conducted the meeting with Mrs. Lucien Cobb, chaplain, giving the invocation. Mrs. Clyde Carstens accompanied the group singing. Miss Jennie Jorey gave the secretary's report and Mrs. Lester Nielsen gave the treasurer's report in the absence of Mrs. Vernon Keel.

Mrs. Lucien Cobb was elected first vice-president in the place of Mrs. James P. Joyce, who resigned.

A report from the Hobby Art show chairman, Mrs. Leland Van Allen, was given. The show will be an event of Nov. 29-30.
