

California Wins Rose Bowl Entry

Bears Triumph Over Stanford By 33-14 Score

Oregon State Wallops Oregon, 20-10; Huskies Defeat Cougars, 34-21

By RUSS NEWLAND
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21 (AP)—Coast conference football saluted California as its champion and Rose Bowl representative today.

Jubilant California supporters, meanwhile, continued to celebrate the Bears' 33-14 victory Saturday over Stanford, the game that put them into the country's post-season classic at Pasadena for the second time in succession.

California earned the bid this year by seven league wins and neither defeat nor tie.

This California squad is regarded as stronger than last year's which lost to Northwestern, 20-14, in the Rose Bowl. Its line charges harder and the backfield is more explosive. The team has the material to come up with the long gainers necessary to break up a contest.

It was the consensus of this way today that Ohio State, expected to represent the Big Ten as the other half of the Rose Bowl clash Jan. 2, would have to show more than it did last Saturday. The Buckeyes tied Michigan 7-7 earlier in the season Ohio State played a 13-13 deadlock with Southern California, the latter subsequently beaten by California, 16-10.

Since it won from U.S.C., however, California has shown increasing improvement. It may be one of the hardest hitting teams in the country today.

Genial Lynn "Poppy" Waidorf was being boomed today for "coach of the year" honors over here. The bulky mentor achieved his greatest triumph with a club that many thought would finish no better than fourth this season.

While California was clinching the Rose Bowl invitation, the conference schedule war, being concluded on other fronts also.

Washington, after earlier defeats and disappointments, finished up in fine fashion with a 34-21 victory over Washington State. Washington overcame a seven-point lead by scoring two touchdowns in the opening quarter; built up a 27-7 margin in the third quarter and held off the

9 College Grid Teams Unbeaten

NEW YORK (AP)—Nine college football teams have completed perfect seasons and seven others are nearing that feat.

The country's list of unbeaten and untied colleges was whittled to 16 during the past weekend, four being blasted from the ranks.

The most important casualty was Virginia, whose skinn of seven triumphs was rudely ended by Tulane's Big Green, 28-14.

Muskingum (Ohio) bowed to Washington & Jefferson, 26-7, after having marched through seven straight opponents. The Westchester (Pa.) teachers were stopped in their ninth start by Delaware, 27-14.

The nine teams whose regular season has been completed are: California and Emory and Henry (Va.), each with 10 triumphs; Wayne (Neb.) Teachers, Hillsdale (Mich.) and St. Vincent (Pa.) with nine, and Trinity (Conn.), Ball State (Ind.), Hanover (Ind.) and St. Ambrose (Iowa) with eight.

Most of the seven teams still gunning for unbeaten, untied seasons appear in a very good position to turn the trick.

Oklahoma (9) has only Oklahoma A&M left to beat. College fighting W. S. C. Cougars to the end.

Oregon State, another slow starter, racked up a successful season for new Coach, Kip Taylor by defeating favored Oregon, 20-10. Oregon scored a field goal to lead 3-0 at the half. Oregon State surged back with powerful drives to score two touchdowns in the third quarter and another in the fourth. Left half Ken Carpenter, candidate for all coast laurels, was the prime factor in the yard gaining.

Pre-season favorite Southern California concluded an unsatisfactory conference schedule by defeating the University of California at Los Angeles 21-7. The Trojans had to come from behind but accomplished the feat convincingly with two touchdowns in the final quarter. The teams were tied 7-7 with four minutes to go.

Southern California meets Notre Dame at South Bend next Saturday.

Montana closed out its schedule with a non-conference win over Brigham Young, 25-6.

TEXAS HUNTER—Texas' youngest deer hunter, four-year-old James Dudley Morse of Austin, proudly displays his first buck. Young Morse, who learned to shoot at the age of two, killed the four-point buck with a neck shot on a ranch near Llano, Tex., using a .22-caliber rifle. Big or small—that's Texas!

of Pacific (9) will play California Poly and Hawaii. Oregon college of Education (9) has San Francisco State to hurdle.

Army (8) finishes in tradition style against Navy. Notre Dame (8) has two games left, with Southern California and Southern Methodist.

College of Pacific remains the high scorer of the perfect-record Powerhouses with 412 points to its opponents' 66. It is the only team among the 16 to have reached the 400-mark.

Bloodless Revolt Occurs In Panama

PANAMA, PANAMA, Nov. 21 (AP)—This little central American country, site of the Panama Canal, changed presidents over the weekend in a bloodless nighttime revolt staged by police force leaders.

President Daniel Channis, surgeon-politician who has been president less than four months, resigned after police surrounded his palace. Vice President Roberto F. Chiari, 44, was sworn in as president at 6 a. m. Sunday.

Emerging as the new "strong man" of Panama's turbulent politics was Police Chief Col. Jose Remon, 41.

Channis was swept out of office because he tried to fire Remon and two of his top aides in the 2,000-man police department that is Panama's only armed force. Channis said he demanded the resignation of the three police leaders because they held interests in two monopolies outlawed by the Supreme court—beef slaughtering houses and Commercial Bus companies.

Basketball Takes Activity Center In County Schools

Athletes throughout the county will exchange pads and helmets of football for the skimpy gear of basketball after a week's rest from the gridiron sport.

Meanwhile, new names and faces will make their appearance soon, after several rigorous weeks of loosening up rusty muscles under the backboards and on the maples.

Locally, coach Jack Newby is putting some 40 basketball hopefuls through a rugged routine of speedball—a combination of basketball and soccer—plus calisthenics and chalk talks.

Elsewhere in the county, Coach Frosty Loghry of Myrtle Creek and Orrin Hills of Sutherlin are giving their boys some of the same treatment. The Indians, along with Myrtle Creek, Sutherlin and Reedsport, will form the Douglas county league of A school basketball. Winner in this county will play the Coos county winner for the district championship and a bid to the state tournament.

Elsewhere in the county, Ellenton, Drain, Yoncalla, Oakland and Glendale, making up the north half, and Canyonville, Riddle, Glendale, Days Creek and Camas Valley, making up the south half, will commence league play for the B school championship of the county. Winners of the north and south half will play off for the district championship.

Cleveland Indians Sold For Reported $2,200,000

CLEVELAND, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Dynamic Bill Veeck sold the Cleveland Indians baseball club to a group of local business men today for a reported $2,200,000.

Ellis Ryan, insurance executive, is head of the new group that has been dickering with Veeck for weeks to buy the American league baseball club and its holdings.

Sutherlin Groups Plan To Sponsor Boxing

Plans for American Legion and Parent-Teachers association-sponsored amateur and professional boxing have been launched in Sutherlin and the two organizations expect to petition the city council to appoint a boxing commission to supervise Sutherlin boxing activity. The first boxing card may be held Wednesday, November 23, in connection with the school carnival. The matches would be held in the recently-completed American Legion hall.

Rod And Gun Club Meet Slated Tuesday Night

The final opportunity for local sportsmen to formulate proposed angling regulation changes will be afforded local sportsmen at a meeting Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the Roseburg Rod and Gun club house at Winchester. The alterations suggested must be prepared in time to be submitted to the State Game commission meeting in January. All sportsmen are invited.

Yaqui Kid Pins Weaver; Wallach Beats Yaqui Joe

Douglas county wrestling fans were treated to an unusual, almost drastic ending Saturday night at the armory, when the Yaqui Kid defeated Buck Weaver. Leo Wallach, a newcomer to the Roseburg arena showed plenty of endurance as he took on two different wrestlers in two different matches. First Wallach defeated Yaqui Joe in 15 minutes with a pile driver crash. Defined, the pile driver is simply turning a man upside down and bumping his head on the mat a few times.

Then Wallach took on Paavo Katonen when it was learned that Tex Hager was unable to appear, due to an injured back Wallach and Katonen staged an exciting slugfest with neither winning a fall and the time limit ran out.

In the main event, the Yaqui Kid won the first fall from Weaver with an abdominal stretch. Weaver had the kid groggy from a series of headlocks and was ready to take an easy fall, when Yaqui Joe, the Kid's manager, pounded the mat and yelled something. The Kid immediately pounced on Weaver and applied the stretch, catching Weaver off guard and taking the fall.

In the second fall, Weaver came back to take the next fall with his clever backward leap and neck cracker in 10 minutes.

The unusual decisive ending came after about 30 minutes of wrestling. Weaver was thrown out of the ring by the kid, and faked a sore elbow upon returning to the mat. As the kid approached him, Weaver suddenly smashed him to the mat with a blow to the face. It happened that the Kid fell into the ropes and Weaver, maneuvering the Kid's neck over the rope, stood on the back of the Kid's head, choking him. It took the referee quite a spell to pull Weaver off, and when he finally succeeded Yaqui Joe attacked Weaver and Weaver knocked him down. Then suddenly the Yaqui Kid jumped at Weaver, knocked him to the mat and started choking him. The Kid was in such a fury, it took both Joe and the referee to pull him off and they didn't succeed without a fight. The Kid was in such a rage that Joe had to wrap a towel around his neck and lead him out of the ring. The referee awarded the match to the Yaqui Kid because of Weaver's dirty tactics.

The referee was Harry Elliott of Portland, who came in Elton Owen's absence.

Malin, Bandon Victors In Class B Football

By The Associated Press
The semi-final opponents of the class B high school football championship series were lined up today after weekend games.

Malin thumped Moro, 28 to 0, and Bandon defeated Lowell, 18 to 0, to complete the picture. They lined up with Banks and Union.

Playoff sites for this weekend's games will be announced by the Oregon High School Activities association secretary.

The games will pit Banks against Bandon and Malin against Union.

Antlerless Deer Hunting Planned

PORTLAND, Nov. 21.—(AP)—An antlerless deer hunting season for late December in the John Day country is planned by the State Game commission.

Commissioner J. H. Van Winkle said an estimated 4,000 mature does in a 30-mile sector between John Day and Prater City face starvation this winter. He said a hearing would be held Wednesday at the offices here on a proposal to issue 750 special tags for the season.

Plans to create a game refuge and public shooting area in the Ladd Marsh section south of La Grande have been dropped, the commission reported. The decision was made after civic and farm groups said the area was needed for crops and pasture.

The commission said it would sell 200 acres of land it owns there.

Bill Young Tops College Players In Grid Scoring

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Bill Young, who sparked the Hillsdale (Mich.) team to an unbeaten, untied season, is the new leader of the country's college grid scorers.

Perseverance paid off for the hard-hitting halfback. After weeks of attempting to overhaul the pacemaking Brad Rowland, halfback for McMurry college of Abilene, Tex., Young caught fire Saturday in Hillsdale's 48-0 rout of Indiana State.

The midwesterner scored 24 points—three touchdowns and six conversions. That made his season total 121 for nine games, scored via 16 touchdowns and 25 conversions.

Meanwhile, Rowland went scoreless for a second straight week and finished the 1949 campaign with 108 points on 18 touchdowns in 10 games. Two weeks ago Brad held a 20-point lead over Young. One week ago, his margin was 11.

Now, with the shouting and shoving over for both players, Rowland trails the Hillsdale Hearty by 13.

While Young is resting on his laurels, there's a chance that George Thomas, the Big Seven leader from Oklahoma, might spurt to the top come Saturday. The Sooners wind up their regular season against Oklahoma A & M. that day and if Thomas can match his 18-point performance of the past weekend, he'll pass Young. The Big Seven Ace has 105 points now.

That total gave Thomas a new scoring record for the conference eclipsing the 97 made in 1942 by Missouri's Bob Steuber.
