Six Children Taken From Their Neglectful Parents

PORTLAND, — (AP) — Six children were taken from their sobbing mother and will be reared in foster homes. Judge Donald E. Long of the court of domestic relations said the action was a warning to parents against neglect of their children. He withheld all names. Publicity, he said, would lessen the children's chances for rehabilitation. The mother's immorality and neglect of the children, leading to molestation of a 9 year old daughter and a 12-year-old son by a truck farmer, prompted the order taking the children from their parents, the judge said. Judge Long reported that the case came to his attention when the eldest son, 16, told probation officers that neighbors had told him two of his sisters, twins, 3 1/2 years old, were Filipino. The family is not.

The twins and their 9-year-old sister played in the courtroom during today's hearing. The husband was told he must contribute to the support of the children in their foster homes. Six years ago, the court reported, the family was investigated because of squalid conditions in which the children lived.

Mersin, which has a population of 30,000, is Turkey's third ranking port. In ancient times it was known as Mersina.
