Window Shopping with Corinne

Here are smart new Chinese modern lamps just uncured at JOSSE'S and on display in the Drapery Department. The floor lamp is brass and ebony cleverly combined to form a sturdy standard. The Chinese shade is of shantung covered parchment, trimmed with Chinese characters in black. The matching table lamp has a brass base and the floor lamp. A novelty lamp is the boomerang, red-stained wood polished to a high luster. Each end of the boomerang holds a light globe and matching shades of red and white parchment. For the modernistic home these young folks fancy nowadays, nothing could be smarter. Give the young folks one of these lamps for Christmas.

Those fragrant, yummy-tasting cookies you ate at your club's tea party probably came from CLEO'S QUALITY BAKERY. You can't buy better home-baked and hand-made cookies anywhere for your own tea party. Dainty cookies for this purpose will be made on order, from chewy macaroons to butter wafers that simply melt in your mouth. For the man with an appetite, Cleo's has old-fashioned sugar cookies, oatmeal, brown sugar walnut, chocolate chip, peanut butter, and date-nut drop cookies made with buttermilk. Buy them by the dozens to put in his lunch—he'll enjoy a variety of cookies and you'll be spared the fuss of making them.

You Christmas shoppers with tired feet will find the ICE CREAMERY conveniently located for lunching. Stop in any time from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. for a good hot lunch or an afternoon snack. The Ice Creamery has a variety of sandwiches, toasted or grilled if you like, and your choice of cream ed tuna or creamed chipped beef with peas and served on toast. The prices are set to fit your pocketbook, too—just compare them with prices elsewhere and you'll agree. Afternoon snack-time will be an enjoyable relaxation period, if you drop in at the Ice Creamery for hot chocolate served with a marshmallow. This week, the high sign goes to Joan Davis. If she'll clip this coupon out of Window Shopping and take it to the Ice Creamery, she will be treated to lunch FREE, any day next week.

Looking for something just luscious for that special gift? Go to ASHCRAFT'S and look over their collection of Deltah pearls. A luxurious AND PRACTICAL gift—a double strand of pearls with a rhinestone pendant which may be removed and worn as a pin. For everyday, the pearls may be worn with a separate rhinestone clasp. We haven't seen anything lovelier in a long time. A single strand of large pearls has a rhinestone medallion pendant, and another with smaller pearls has a rhinestone-studded heart. This type was worn by Shirley Temple in a recent picture. These Deltah necklaces were designed by Majeska, a world-famous stylist, who took the new Paris dress fashions for her inspiration. All Deltah necklaces are made with beautifully-matched pearls on carefully-knotted strands. Tuck one into her Christmas stocking—you couldn't please her more.

Another gift suggestion—in the low-price brackets—for Grandma or Aunt Lucile, are the salt and pepper sets at LESLIE'S GIFT SHOP. They are only 95c to $1.25 a pair, and some of the cutest we've ever seen. There are Hugging Bears in pink or yellow, Flivvers, Hot Dogs, and Rolling Pins of hand-painted pottery. If you want something expensive-looking that is reasonably priced, you'll find gorgeous English bone china cup and saucer sets marked "way down. Look at them on display in Les' window. There are demi-tasse cups and saucers, too. Buy several for your friends' knickknack shelves.

What shall the family do on these long winter evenings? Well, why not rent a projector and films from CLARK'S STUDIO? Go to 105 South Jackson today and look over their selection of SOUND films and projectors for rent or sale. There are travelogues on distant places like Vermont and Costa Rica. There are Walt Disney cartoons and Abbott and Costello comedies. There are cowboy pictures and pictures of major events in sports. There are several musicals featuring your favorite musical stars—Ted Lewis and Deanna Durbin—and a reel of Christmas carols. Give the family some of these for Christmas, and you'll solve the problem of keeping the kids happy on winter evenings.

Want something warm to wear to work these chilling days? LUYERNE'S has just what you need—toasty wool jersey blouses in rich scarlet, bright kelly green, heavenly royal blue. Rayon prints for your dress-up suits, like this over-bustle with a plain round neckline, perfect backdrop for your favorite necklace. The shoulders and sides are shirred. It has cap sleeves and self-covered buttons up the back. The print is a sidewalk cafe scene, to remind HIM of his days in gay Paree. And just in case HE is reading this, himself, we'll offer to find out your size for him, so he can give you one of these blouses for Christmas!

Yes, fellows, whether you are young or old chances are you'll give your best girl hosiery or lingerie for Christmas. So, just to help you surprise her, we'll find out her size in everything so you can be sure of getting exactly the right gift. Just write Corinne a letter and tell her your girl's name, address, and phone number. She'll call up or write and get the needed details for you. Be sure to enclose a stamped envelope addressed to yourself, so Corinne can send you her reply.
