Drills Resume Monday; Roseburg High Squads Open At Cottage Grove

The Douglas county sports picture—as of Thanksgiving day—is a bleak one indeed. Baskethall courts throughout the county are bare, while prospective hoopsters recover from the after effects of too much turkey.

It will be a different story starting Monday. At that time, coaches from Glide to Reedsport and from Elkton to Glendale will bear down on the boys in preparation for the opening of the basketball season on December 9th.

Locally, Coach Jack Newby reports season tickets go on sale Monday at 8 a.m., in J-V Sporting goods store. He points out only 85 season reserved seats will be available. This includes seats that will go to parents of players. Newby said the parents will have first choice of seats.

An $8 book of tickets will entitle the holder to a reserved seat at nine home games. This does not include the sub-district finais to be played here.

First Game Dec. 9th

Newby said the 12 men that will make up the varsity will be chosen December 7th. Eight practice days remain for those who aspire to the Indians varsity team. Locally, Coach Jack Newby re practice days remain for those who aspire to the Indians variity team.

The Indians start their season with a game at Cottage Grove on Dec. 9th. Norm West's Jayvees will play the preliminary tilt.

Elsewhere in the county, both the north and south half B league schools will hold basketball jamborees Dec. 9th.

Oakland, Yoncalla, Drain, Glide and Elkton high schools will meet in a jamboree at Drain, while south half schools, made up of Riddle, Camas Valley, Days Creek, Canyonville and Glendale, hold their jamboree at Riddle.

Roseburg will participate in league play that includes Sutherlin, Myrtle Creek and Reedsport high school varsities.

This year, the Coos-Douglas district was divided into two leagues, due to financial problems involved in moving the teams. The Coos league will be made up of Marshfield, Coquille, Myrtle Point and North Bend. The winners in the Douglas and Coos districts will play off to decide the state tournament entry.

THE GREAT ATLAS displays the muscular arms and shoulders with which he will endeavor to conquer Georges Dusette, the Herculean French-Canadian, in the headliner of the weekly wrestling program at the Roseburg armory tonight. Both grap-plers are full-nesion hold specialists, and anything can happen.

Full-Nelson Battle On Tap In Three-Star Mat Show

A full-nelson battle, involving two of the most muscular grappling giants in the junior heavyweight class, will feature a threestar wrestling show at the Roseburg armory arena Saturday night. Time of the opener will be 8:30 p. m., and a capacity crowd appears

The heavy-muscled principals are The Great Atlas, a former "Mr. America" from Hollywood, and Georges Dusette', a French-Canadian who has one of the greatest following of any matman in the nation. With bulging shoulder and arm muscles, the two grapplers are almost certain to have to resort to some tactics other than fullnelsons, headlocks and the like. It should be a classic in which the ability of the winner to adapt himself to a situation is the answer.

Two other burly matmen will vie in a three-fall skirmish, sending Maurice LaChappele, France, against Leo Wallick, Boston. Pete Bartu, a villainous New Mexico grappler, meets Dale Kiser, young Portlander, in the curtain raiser.

Elton Owen will referee all three bouts.

About the only deception came in the third quarter and it produced a touchdown. It came after a 46-yard march to the Marsh-field 20-yard line, It was the old statue of liberty play and half-back Chuck Brackett lugged the ball 20 yards for a touchdown.

That tied the score at 6-6, and the 3,000 fans groaned as the kick for the extra point failed. But Marshfield was offside and La Grande got a second chance. This time Fullback Wayne Berry took the ball, plunging over for the vinning point.
