

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wheeler Anderson

Picture by Paul Jenkins

Miss Patricia Ann Crouch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Black of Roseburg, became the bride of Kenneth Wheeler Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wheeler Anderson of Gaston, Ore., Friday evening, Nov. 18, at the Methodist parsonage in Roseburg. Rev. W. A. MacArthur performed the impressive ceremony at seven o'clock in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

The bride was charming in a burgundy-colored suit with matching shoes and hat and accessories in dusty rose. She carried a white Bible topped by a large orchid.

Mrs. Jeffery Currier (Priscilla Wade) of Eugene was matron of honor and wore a navy suit with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. James Dziarnoga of Roseburg was best man.

The bride's mother wore an ensemble of black with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses.

A reception followed at Carl's Haven. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of shell-pink carnations surrounded with pink heather and white chrysanthemums, flanked by candelabra holding tall pink tapers. The two-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

For traveling the bride wore the suit she was married in and her corsage was an orchid. Following the reception, the couple left for points north on their honeymoon.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High school in 1947. She attended Northwestern Business college and is now employed as a secretary by the Todd Building company. The bridegroom was graduated from Grants Pass High school. He attended California State Polytechnic school at San Luis Obispo and Oregon State college at Corvallis. During the war he served as radio technician in the U.S. Navy. He is now employed in the engineering department of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will make their home after December 1st in their new residence in Round Heights.
