

Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Boss

Picture by P. B. Grenon of Eugene

Miss M. Ruth Snoddy, daughter of Mrs. Charles P. Snoddy and the late Mr. Snoddy, became the bride of John Edward Boss in an eight o'clock ceremony at First Baptist Church last Saturday evening. Both young people are of Eugene. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John Boss of Seattle, Wash. White chrysanthemums, palms and white candelabra decorated the altar of the church for the ceremony, which was read by Dr. Vance H. Webster. Margaret Zimmerman Anderson sang two solos "Thine Alone" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. E. B. Barnes, who also played a musical prelude before the ceremony. The bride and bridegroom were attired in identical suits. With hers the bride wore accessories in brown and beige and a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. Her flowers were brown tiger orchids tied with gold ribbon. Theodore R. Flury of Medford, gave his niece in marriage. Mrs. Howard Wells of San Francisco was matron of honor. She wore a cocoa brown suit with pink and brown accessories and corsage of Tallman roses. Roger L. Griffin of Eugene was best man and Peter Flury of Medford, cousin of the bride and John L. McGinnis of Eugene were ushers. A reception in the Mirror Room of Eugene Hotel, at which white chrysanthemums and tall white tapers were used in decoration, followed the wedding. Mrs. John McGinnis poured punch and Mrs. Roger L. Griffin and Miss Bonnie Glenger cut and served the cake. Mrs. James Baker played incidental music throughout the reception and Miss Carol Lou Baker had charge of the guest book. The couple left Eugene the day following the wedding, driving Mrs. Wells to San Francisco. They planned to spend a week in the south. For going away Mrs. Boss wore her wedding suit and accessories and carried a red fox fur. The bride spent one year at Linfield College and two years in the SPARS. She is a member of the Willamette Women's Legion Post. Mr. Boss was a member of Admiral Byrd's party on his last trip to Little America. He spent five years in the navy as a gunner on an aircraft carrier and is a member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Fall flowers and autumn leaves formed the background for a double ring ceremony at the First Baptist church Friday, Nov. 4, when Miss Ruby Jean Davis and Merlin Foss were married by Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor of the Baptist church. Given in marriage by her father, R. W. Davis, the bride wore a white crepe wedding gown with fingertip veil held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses with satin streamers.

Attending the bride was her cousin, Mrs. J. D. Anglin as matron of honor. Her bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Davis, sister of the bride and Miss Donna Sandersky. Best man was Frank Hoffman of Myrtle Point. Bobby Davis, brother of the bride, lighted the candles prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Sam Warg played the wedding music and accompanied Gene Yates who sang, "Because" and "Oh, Promise Me." A reception followed at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Davis on Sunset Lane. The three-tiered wedding cake which was centered on the lace-covered bride's table, was first cut by the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Foss is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davis of this city and the bridegroom is the son of Harris Foss of LaCrosse, Wis. They are making their home in this city.

Krohn and Mrs. Andy Murray. The tables were set with brown and white cloths decorated with orange tapers and a centerpiece of apples and firethorn. Turkey favors marked individual places. Following the dinner the business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Harold Jokela at which time reports were given on the community chest collections by Mrs. B. L. Reding, Mrs. A. J. Farenbaugh and Mrs. Glen Miller. Mrs. Benj. O. DuFresne reported that the club yearbooks will be ready for distribution at the next meeting. The president urged all members to appear at Mercy hospital, Nov. 28 at 7:30 p.m. for blood typing. This is being done in cooperation with a local effort to establish a blood bank in Roseburg. Contact chairman, Mrs. E. J. Taucher, reminded members to attend the Arts and Crafts display to be held Nov. 29 and 30 by the senior Woman's club.
