

Atlas Wins When Dusette Suffers Injury

Fall Through Ropes Ends Mat Battle; Wallick and LaChapelle Stage Draw

Douglas County wrestling fans were treated to three thrilling battles at the armory Saturday night, with the Great Atlas taking the main event match over George Dusette. In the semi-final, Maurice La Chapelle and Leo Wallick fought to an exciting draw in a thirty-minute time limit, and in the opener, Dale Kiser defeated Pete Bartu in a one-fall battle.

Dusette outfought Atlas all the way in the final bout, but an unfortunate accident forced him out of a win. Both men, noted for their strength, dodged each other's holds and both seemed to be able to break the other's holds. Dusette won the first fall with a full-nelson. The popular French-Canadian put one full-nelson on Atlas, and the hold was broken, but Dusette, after a few elbow slams was able to make Atlas give up.

Atlas came back to take the second fall with the same hold. This followed an accident which prevented Dusette from re-entering the ring. Dusette clamped a full-nelson on Atlas and threw him. They both fell through the ropes on to the floor. Dusette fell on his head and was dizzy enough as it was, but Atlas stood on the back of Dusette's neck until referee Elton Owen finally shoved him off. Dusette, after a long count by the referee, climbed back in the ring, still out on his feet and he was easy meat for Atlas.

It was learned in the dressing room that Dusette could not move his shoulder without great pain, so Owen ruled that he not re-enter the ring. In the semi-final, Maurice La Chapelle and Leo Wallick put on a great scientific match which ended in a draw after 30 minutes of fast, thrilling action. Both boys were rough and tough and they wrestled a good crowd-pleasing match.

The opener featured Dale Kiser, brother of Jack Kiser, and Pete Bartu. Bartu got a little rough in the match, which seemed to peeve Kiser, and the young man proceeded to throw Bartu bodily around the ring, ending up with hip throws and taking the fall with leg stomps.

Throat-Cutting Of Girl Laid To Ex-Gi

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Nov. 28.—(AP)—Throat-slashing victim Millie M. Summs is "holding her own" at Riverside hospital here, but doctors say the extent of injuries to nerves in her throat will determine whether she ever again will be able to speak above a whisper.

Doctors said last night the attractive, 18-year-old Warwick high school senior will pull through if she "can get by another 48 hours without complications."

Unable to speak since she was taken to the hospital late Friday night with her throat cut from ear to ear, the girl on Saturday scribbled a note to police accusing Jesse Wilmer Worley, 20-year-old neighbor, of the crime. "Bill Worley did it," the note read, said Warwick county Police Chief Leroy Woody. Worley, who has a police record and who was discharged from the Army as "undesirable," is being held by police on a mauling charge.

Worley has denied knowing anything about the attack or participating in it, the chief said, although the youth admitted he visited the girl Friday evening.

Youth Held For Attack On 14-Month-Old Girl

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(AP)—A tall, husky youth was taken into custody today in connection with an attack on a 14-month-old girl in her Staten Island home early Thanksgiving morning.

Chief of detectives William T. Whalen identified the youth as George Kane, 20, of Staten Island. No charge was placed against him immediately. "I can't explain why I did it," he quoted the youth as telling police in an oral statement. "The child, dazed and bleeding from injuries and bruises, was found lying unclothed in her bed by her parents last Thursday morning."

Eighteen College Football Teams Unbeaten, Untied

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Eighteen college football teams sported unbeaten, untied records today and only one of them—mighty Notre Dame—had a game left to complete the regular season.

The Irish wind up their campaign next Saturday against Southern Methodist. They'll be shooting for their 10th triumph of the year and their 38th straight game without defeat. The Thanksgiving weekend brought nary a casualty among the teams boasting perfect records. Seven of them played and stretched their streaks, all except Notre Dame closing out their regular campaigns.

Notre Dame snowed under Southern California, 32-0; Oklahoma routed Oklahoma A. & M., 41-0; Army sank Navy, 38-0; college of Pacific ran over California Poly, 88-0; Gammon (Pa.) downed Steubenville, 19-0; Maryland State rolled past the Fayetteville (N.C.) teachers, 69-0; and Morgan State beat Virginia State 34-7.

By far the biggest scorer of the unbeaten, untied squads was college of the Pacific, which finished with a total of exactly 500 points for 10 games while permitting its opponents 66. Oklahoma's Sooners were second highest with 364, also for 10 games.

St. Vincent (Pa.) came closest to a perfect defense, giving up six points to its foes in nine games while scoring 220.

Wofford won the most games, 11. The list included Oregon college of Education with 304 points against 41 in winning nine games.

CONFESSES MURDER

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Police said yesterday that a 50-year-old freight handler had admitted that he strangled a woman in her hotel room then carried the body to his own room.

They quoted the man, Otto Zintel, as saying he killed Mrs. Mildred Garlock, also 50, because of her attentions to other men. Zintel was held without charge.

Zintel's wife, Anne, 37, told police she left her husband Nov. 19 because he was "violent." She also was held for questioning.

HAPPY SPINSTER

PASADENA, Calif.—(AP)—Here is a 97-year-old spinster's formula for happiness: Bob your hair, read the Bible and stay single. That's the advice Miss Heien Van Voorhis offered guests at her 97th birthday party.

"Look at me," she chortled, her blue eyes twinkling. "Don't I look like I had a happy life?"

Season Reserved Tickets To Hoop Game Available

Roseburg Indians basketball fans are able to purchase a limited amount of season reserved seat tickets to nine home games, starting this morning at the J.V. Sporting Goods store.

Coach Jack Newby of the high school varsity team said only 85 season books would be available. Already, this amount has been depleted, because parents of players were given first choice at the reserved seats.

The varsity basketball mentor indicated a brisk sale of tickets was enjoyed today and it is doubtful that any season tickets will be available by Dec. 10, the date that the Indians play their first home game at the Senior high gymnasium, with Cottage Grove the opponent. One day earlier, the Indians travel to Cottage Grove, to start the season there.

In addition to the varsity game, fans may see Coach Norm West's junior varsity perform in preliminary engagements at most of the home games. Half-time entertainment will include feats of tumbling by Newby's classes.

The varsity and junior varsity teams will be picked a week from Wednesday. So far, 52 candidates have been turning out for practice sessions.

Drills were continued tonight for both junior and senior high school groups. Papoose teams will be coached by Hod Turner, Ed Wyatt and Al Hoffman. No junior high schedule has been released yet.

New Republic Editor Heads American Vets

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—(AP)—The American Veterans Committee elected Michael Straight, 33, of New York as its chairman yesterday and adopted a program supported by a right wing group.

Pepper, who frequently differs with his southern colleagues in the senate, aimed his criticism of Byrnes at remarks the former government official and senator has made about administration spending programs. Byrnes, like many Republicans, has said these programs would make the nation a "welfare state."

"Byrnes wants to be the great shilling knight leading the people back to the glorious past," Pepper said. "I don't know if he wants to go as far back as the golden age of Pericles or just the magnolia days of the south."

"He always had some reservations about the new deal when he was in the senate. "The south is going forward. It is progressing politically. So-called southern statesmen who believe they are going to lead the people back to the glorious dead days of the past are thinking like wrong-way Corrigan—they've lost their sense of direction," Pepper said Byrnes is more

Sen. Pepper Hits Back At Byrnes' Rap At Spending

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—(AP) Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) lashed out at former Secretary of State James P. Byrnes here, charging he is trying to take the south back to the "magnolia days" of the Civil War period.

Those days, Pepper told newsmen after a White House visit, were "wonderful for the guys who owned plantations," but not so wonderful for other people.

Pepper, who frequently differs with his southern colleagues in the senate, aimed his criticism of Byrnes at remarks the former government official and senator has made about administration spending programs. Byrnes, like many Republicans, has said these programs would make the nation a "welfare state."

"Byrnes wants to be the great shilling knight leading the people back to the glorious past," Pepper said. "I don't know if he wants to go as far back as the golden age of Pericles or just the magnolia days of the south."

Leading Football Scorer's Margin Only Four Points

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Bill Young, halfback of Hillsdale (Mich.), is the leading scorer of the college football season—but by less than a touchdown.

Although Young and his unbeaten, untied team completed their regular 1949 campaign two Saturdays ago, Bill had a scare the past weekend. He watched another halfback, George Thomas of powerful Oklahoma, drive to two touchdowns.

That gave Thomas a complete season record of 117 points, just four away from Young's 121.

Young, in nine games, had 16 touchdowns and 25 conversions. Thomas' count for 10 games was 19 touchdowns and three extra points.

Being a member of the Big Seven champions, Thomas has the distinction of being top scorer among major colleges.

In third place on the national standing and only three points behind Thomas is Randy Cooper of West Virginia Tech, who clicked for 19 touchdowns in nine games.

Johnny Freeman of Portland University is tops of the Pacific coast and sixth in the nation with 16 touchdowns in eight games for a total of 96 points. Jim Monachino, California, leads coast conference schools with 79 points—13 touchdowns—in 10 games.

Grant High Defeats Hillsboro; Score 33-0

PORTLAND, Nov. 28.—(AP)—The Generals from Grant high of Portland powerhouse their way to the Oregon high school football finals by defeating Hillsboro, 33 to 0, here Saturday.

The wallowing game the Generals a favored status for their fourth state title when they came up against La Grande here Saturday. La Grande squeezed past Marshfield of Coos Bay, 7 to 6, Friday night in the other semi-final.

Double Charges Hit "Love Burglar"

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 28.—(AP)—District Attorney Will Wilson today planned to present to the Dallas county grand jury a rape charge against Fred Felix Adair Jr., accused as Dallas "love burglar."

Adair, 25-year-old father of a young daughter, Saturday repudiated admissions of attacks he had made to officers.

"I'm going to fight this thing now," he said after a visit with his wife at the city jail. Adair was formally charged Saturday with raping a 31-year-old woman while her two children looked on and cried.

City officers said he had previously signed a statement admitting he assaulted the woman. Detective Lieut. James A. Bohart said Adair's subsequent denial "makes no difference in our case against him. He has signed statements admitting attacks and burglaries and been identified by witnesses. He has told us things that only the love burglar could know."

Adair was arrested Thanksgiving day. The woman he is charged with raping was one of seven who identified Adair as the prowler who attacked them in their homes at night.

Portable one-man-saws, driven by small gasoline engines, have considerably lightened the labor of the lumberman.

Illness Strikes 70 Youngsters After Thanksgiving Feed

KLAMATH FALLS, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Turkey dressing served at a Thanksgiving dinner at Altamont elementary school here was suspected as the source of food poisoning which made an estimated 70 youngsters violently sick over the holiday.

County Sanitarian John Edge said he was unable to determine just how many children became sick after eating the meal, but the estimate was 70 with still more cases being reported.

Mothers of several children said they believed the dressing was at fault, but Edge said the point had not been settled.

The children, one mother explained, were urged as an economy measure to "clean up their plates"—to eat all their turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, ice cream and cookies. A few of the children became ill at the school but most had to be put to bed after they reached home.

One tot, a first grader, was found lying in the front yard of an Altamont street residence, a few blocks from the school. Both Arthur Millard, school principal, and the school cafeteria cook were out of town today and had not been contacted by the county health department.

The soybean was once a "sacred" grain of the Chinese.
