

Sat., Dec. 3, 1949-The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. Fight Fans May See Wild Affair Tonight At Armory When Weaver, Yaqui Meet

Tonight's wrestling feature at the Roseburg armory may be a far cry from fundamental wrestling—when Buck Weaver, ex-collegiate football player from Indiana, and The Yaqui Kid. Indian warrior from the Sonora hills of Mexico meet. Weaver, the coast light-heavyweight champ, usually em-loys a neck-breaker for his clinching hold. The Kid used an abdominal stretch taught to him by his coach and manager, abdominal stretch taught to him by his coach and manager, Yaqui Joe. But the bout may end up with Weaver throwing a few gridiron blocks and the youthful Indian attempting to perform a scalping—the rivelry is that hot. Weaver has been given the right to bring a second to the ring corner—to match Yaqui Joe. George Strickland, talented Denver Jap wristlock exponent, will meet Buck Davidson, Texas villain, in the three-fall pre-liminary. The answer averated to be a colorful affair will liminary. The opener, expected to be a colorful affair, will get under way at 8:30 p.m. Elton Owen will referee both bouts.

YMCA Basketball League

Teams Ready For Debut The YMCA basketball league will commence its schedule next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. when the Umpqua Plywood team will tan-gle with the National Guard and in the 9 o'clock game the First Christian church team will take on the JCs.

If it wins over an SMU team that hit the downgrade a month ago it will be four years without defeat, eclipsing the record of 1911, 1912 and 1913 when Notre Dame didn't lose a game. The general hope in the South-west is that thrice-beaten SMU might be able to hold the score to a respectable figure. But the Methodists won't have all-Ameri-ca Doak Walker today and they won't have a flock of other first-liners who were knocked out down the autumn stretch. Christian church team will take on the JCs. All games will be played in the armory. The schedule calls for two games every Tuesday evening. The public is invited to even them games see these games.

UO Ducks Lose Season Opener By 72-66 Count

By the Associated Press) Four coast conference north-ern division basketball teams saw action Friday night and wound up with a Mexican stand-off-two wins and two losses. On the credit side of the ledger were Washington's Huskies, who downed Canada's champion Clov-er Leafs at Vancouver. 59-49, and Washington State's platoon-deep Cougars, who defeated the Whit-man Missionaries, 68-48, at Pull-man.

Cougars, who defeated the Whil-man. In the red ink department were Oregon and Idaho. The Ducks dropped their season's opener to Utah State, 72-66, in Salt Lake City, and the Vandals were upset on their home court at Moscow by the Gonzaga Bulldogs, 54-48. Off to a slow start, Washington overcame an 8:1 deficit and led at the half, 25-17. Big Frank Guiness paced the Huskies with 20 points, followed by Russ Par-themer with 16. Washington plays again tonight in Vancouver, meeting the University of British Columbia Thunderbirds. Gene Conley, 6-foot 7-inch soph-omore center, looked like "mon-ey in the bank" to coach Jack Friel in his first varsity start for Washington State. He bucket-ed 13 points, 11 in the first half. Most of the first string rode the bench in the second half after building up a 37-30 lead over Whitman at the intermission. Oregon hit the skids in the sac-ond game of a twin bill, after Uah's Redskins had scored a surprisingly casy 65-44 win over Southern California. The Ducks threatened from the start but were never able to catch up with Utah State. They trailed at the half, 47-39, and pulled within four points at 70-66 with a minute to go. The American League pennant winners are particularly desirous of putting over a deal for a "real starting pitcher," General mana-ger George Weiss said Friday, Expert observers took this to mean righthander Rae Scarbor-ough, who won 13 and lost 11 with the lowly Washington senators the past season. It remains to be seen, however, whether the Yanks can pluck a star flinger, for most every other major team would like to get one, too. Weiss said he has been dick-cring with every other American League club except the Boston Red Sox. INDIANS HUSTLE Coach Is Having Trouble Picking Varsity Players

With the first game only seven days off, Jack Newby's varsity Indians have some real hustling to do before they board the bus to Cottage. Grow, where they open the season Friday night, Dec. 9. Coach Newby is still in a dilem-ma over what to do with two ex-tra players. The squad is limited to a maximum of 12 men, and there are 14 trying to hang on for a spot on the varsity. Newby emphasized it will be a difficult choice to make, but plans for this year's squad call for a small but efficient and hard-hitting club. Junic varsity positions are still open, but here too, the sup ply exceeds the domand. Only the tog 20 candidates will qualify here.

ply exceeds the domand. Only the top 20 candidates will qualify there. So far, three positions appear to be pretty well taken care of as far as starting positions go. Dexter Garey, senior, and back from last year's first string team, is almost assured of a spot either at forward or guard. Frank Olson has been dropping the ball in from all over the court in practice and looks like he may make the center position. Olson is up from last year's second string varsity. A real comer is Mickey Coen, who is also an outstanding pitch-er both for the high school and in junior legion ball team. He piayed junior varsity ball last year and is a real hustler on the basketball court this season. Still rough in spots. Coen may turn out to be one of the colorful play-ers on this year's squad. The remaining two positions appear to be wide open for any one of a number of candidates. Jerry Sconce, a reportedly con-sistent shooter, may get the nod as a starter, and Buddy Math-ews, a clever ball handler from last year's jayvee squad may also get a starting berth.

La Starza, a 5 to 9 favorite, handed out the more punishment with his effective counter-punching while Brion wasted his power with wild whistling rights. Brion weighed 192 1-4, La Starza 187. Referee Farnk Fullam voted for the kid from the Bronx, 6-4. Judge Jack O'Sullivan had it for Rollie, 5-3, with 2 even. Judge Charley Shortell scored it even in rounds, 4-4, with 2 even but gave La Starza the edge in points 6-5. The AP card agreed with O'Sullivan. La Starza remains an excellent prospect, but he will need a cou-ple of thumping victories before they again bring up the subject of Charles. There is no possibility of find-ing out the percentage of older spectators, and so statistics cam-not tell you at what age to stop watching football. But medical science has some good tips. First, what a football game does to your body. It does the same thing as getting angry, putting over a tough selling prop-osition, arguing fiercely or fight-ing or watching a fight or any stiff competiton. Drinking and eating and yelling along with games is an added hazard for bad hearts. And a special one is a blonde.
