for the Christmas party and other topics of interest were discussed. Mrs. McGeheey and Mrs. Brown served delicious refreshments to Mrs. R. A. Gray, Mrs. Harvey Tripp, Mrs. A. S. Morris, Mrs. Robert Schultz, Mrs. J. V. Romine, Mrs. Kenneth Ladd, Mrs. Bruce Lattin, Mrs. L. E. Moore, Mrs. Earl Bridges, Mrs. E. C. Jones, Mrs. Clifford Baxter and Mrs. M. M. Cowin. There will be no meeting in December on account of the Christmas holiday. The next regular meeting will be at one-thirty o'clock January 25, at the home of Mrs. L. E. Moore with Mrs. R. A. Gray, co-hostess.

Sidelights... Here and There

Roseburg's artist colony is growing every year as evidenced at the recent Arts and Crafts exhibit at the Methodist church. Browsing about during the final afternoon of the showing one found many interesting objects to view, especially the school's exhibit capably displayed by Miss Margaret Carr. Those youngsters will be a decided addition to the artistic element of the community in years to come.

C. W. Dishman's collection of advertising pencils, ever-sharps totalled 405. That Afghan by Erros Osterloh. A colorful hand embroidered flower picture by Mrs. Wolak. A display of beautiful fluorescent colors brought out by ultra violet light, arranged by Umpqua Mineral Club, attracted both young and old. Sue Brown's four pottery faces. A miniature shoe collection by Mildred Hrbmann. Mrs. Wm. Evans Jr's glass arrangement. And those buttons collected by Mrs. Iris Riddle, the picture buttons and Chinese too, a fascinating hobby. Strong exhibitors, Daisy Watkins and Mrs. R. Hearn with embroidery, crocheting, and hooked rugs. The school children watching the pottery demonstration. The Thel Wilson's individuality in pottery to provide a scholarship in art for a student. This was an eye and heart catcher to be sure. And by the way, "what's your hobby?"

MRS. RAY PUCKETT ENTERTAINS PINOCCHIO CLUB WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Ray Puckett graciously entertained her pinocchio club at a lovely eight o'clock dinner-supper at her home Wednesday evening. A lovely birthday gift was presented to Mrs. Verdun Boucock. Covers were placed for Mrs. Frank Hayner and Mrs. Donald White, guests, and Mrs. Verdun Boucock, Mrs. Clifford E. Smith, Mrs. Norman Hess, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. James Knudsen, Mrs. Ed Radigan and the hostess, Mrs. Puckett. High score for the evening's pinocchio play went to Mrs. Smith with Mrs. Hess receiving low score. The guest prize was won by Mrs. White.

MRS. ARTHUR CLARKE RETURNS TO ROSEBURG FROM EUROPEAN TRIP

Mrs. Arthur Clarke is being welcomed back to her home in Roseburg by her many friends, following an extended trip abroad. She arrived home in time to spend Thanksgiving at the home of friends and was joined here for the occasion by her daughter from Seattle. A sister, Mrs. Alan Carson, of Salem, has been spending the last few days here visiting and left Friday for her home.

Mrs. Clarke left Roseburg early in February for New York and stopped at numerous points en route east to visit relatives and friends. She sailed from New York Feb. 25, and arrived in Naples, Italy, March 11, where she was joined by her son, James Clarke, who had three weeks leave from Oxford, where he has a two years Rhodes fellowship. She reports she was amazed at how cold Italy was in the early spring. The Italian people are especially friendly to American tourists, Mrs. Clarke stated, and were anxious to please. A great amount of rubble and other evidences of World War II are to be seen in that country. From Italy, she traveled to Paris and then spent two weeks in Belgium, where she had made a special trip just to see the tulip and azalea gardens. She later visited points of interest in Spain and toured southern France which she left for England to again join her son.

Of special interest on her tour, was her visit to Scotland to attend the annual Music Festival. Mrs. Clarke states the English people were most friendly and during her ten weeks stay in that country, she enjoyed visiting historical points of interest, estates and gardens. She again returned to Paris in early September, where she resided with a French family, while enjoying trips in and near the city. Mrs. Clarke stated that food, while not plentiful in some countries, was good and that traveling conditions and treatment of tourists was splendid. She returned to the United States on the Isle de France, after nearly a year's absence from Roseburg. Mrs. Clarke reports the trip was most delightful and one most worthwhile.

Bacon drippings are excellent to use for pan-fried tomatoes. Make a cream sauce from the drippings, after the tomatoes are cooked, and serve over the slices.
