

Mrs. Francis W. Albro

Miss Bonnie Ann McMickle of Elkton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Weatherly, became the bride of Francis W. Albro, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Albro at the Church of Christ in Elkton, Saturday, November 19 at 3:30 p.m. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Elton Benedict.

The bride's gown was white lace over satin, fashioned with a short train, and a finger tip veil held in place by a satin head-dress. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom, a pearl wrist band and earrings, heirlooms of the bridegroom's mother.

Miss Joyce McMickle of Newport, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of orchid crepe with full skirt, short puffed sleeves and a Juliet cap with net ruffle and net mitts trimmed in matching sequins. Her flowers were a wristlet of yellow button chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Elaine Wilson of Albany, wore a yellow crepe gown with Juliet cap and matching mitts and a wristlet of orchid chrysanthemums. Little three year old Mabel- anne Wickdahl of Portland was flower girl. She wore a green faille gown trimmed with lace with matching bonnet and mitts, and mixed button chrysanthemums for her wristlet. She is a niece of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a dress of forest green with gold nailhead trim and a brown hat. The bridegroom's mother selected a teal blue dress with hat of winter white.

Best man was Richard Pharis of Albany, boyhood friend of the bridegroom. Ushers were Fred Weatherly, brother of the bride from Corvallis; Theodore Hansen and Douglas Fenley, both of Elkton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, and the bride party entered the church to traditional wedding music played by Mrs. Wade Henderson. The musician also accompanied Mrs. Elton Benedict, who sang "Because" and "Always."

The church rostrum was decorated with seven large baskets of orchid and yellow chrysanthemums with a background of ferns, and huckleberry foliage. Candelabra with lighted tapers completed the arrangement. The center aisle was roped with white satin ribbon and a white aisle cloth was laid for the bridal party. Mrs. Loren Wilson of Albany arranged the decorations.

A reception followed in the church parlor. The bride's table was covered with an imported, embroidered cut-work linen cloth and a three-tiered wedding cake surrounded with large white chrysanthemums. White tapers completed the decoration. Mrs. Robert Gardner of Wilbur completed cutting of the wedding cake after the bride and bridegroom cut the first piece.

Mrs. Vincent Stone of Multnomah, sister of the bride, served punch and Mrs. Albert Wickdahl of Portland, sister of the bride, presided at the silver coffee urn. Miss Catherine Tomlinson of Albany served the groom's cake and the guest book was in charge of Miss Joyce E. McMickle.

The young couple left immediately for a two weeks' motor trip to Carmel and other points of interest in California. For traveling the bride selected a suit of copper wool gabardine with brown accessories and a green onahid.

Mrs. Albro was graduated from Elkton High school in 1948 with highest honors and just completed a year's course at the Eugene Beauty college. The bridegroom also an Elkton High school graduate operates the Hillside Dairy ranch at Long Prairie.
