"A very gay affair" is the way the veterans at the local VA Hospital described the Red Cross dance at the Recreation Hall on Monday, November 28. Kappa Alpha Theta sorority of the University of Oregon sent a busload of girls to act as dancing partners for the patients. Expenses of the bus and the trip were a donation of the Lane County chapter of the American Red Cross. Also in attendance were about 40 women of the other service organizations from Roseburg. Music for dancing was supplied by Vic Rice's Orchestra, with the sorority girls furnishing several vocal numbers at the intermission. They sang some of the college song as well as popular numbers and were well applauded by the audience. Between dances coffee and gingerbread were served to all attending. "Sometimes.... We're Tempted"

Because we're human we're sometimes tempted to try promotional methods such as giving something away with every diamond purchase.

Many jewelers offer "give-aways" to stimulate their diamond sales, but somehow we think most people don't approve of these methods. We know also that most people don't expect to get something for nothing, that they realize they are also paying for the "gift".

Because we are diamond jewelers, not promoters, we don't give anything away with the diamonds we sell except the box and our sincere congratulations, because our prices do not include the cost of a "free gift".

We have to be satisfied with just trying to be about the best diamond jewelers in town.

Extreme care is exercised in buying our diamonds and because we have highly trained diamond buyers you have the assurance that diamonds from Knudtson's are the finest for the price anywhere.

Come in to see our fine selection of Orange Blossom and Keepsake diamond rings. We invite your questions about diamonds and will be pleased to explain the merits of individual stones.
