Protestant Unit Denounced By Catholic Prelate

BOSTON, Dec. 5 —(P)— The Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing. Roman Catholic Archbishop of Boston, has denounced a protestant group as a "refined form of the Ku Kiux Klan."

The archbishop named Protestants and Others United for Separation of Church and State yesterday in one of his most vigorous speeches.

yesterday in one of his most vigorous speeches.

"The activities of organizations like Protestants and Others United for Separation of Church and State are, of course, the modern form of the old A.P.A., and the refined form of the Ku Klux Kian." the prelate declared.

(A.P.A. was the initials of the American Protective association, a late 19th century anti-Catholic organization which now is defunct.)

Archbishop Cushing told the annual convention of the arch-

Archbishop Cushing told the annual convention of the archdiocesan union of Holy Name societies "it is most important to remember that these people do not speak for all, or even most of our non-Catholic neighbors."

The archbishop said that "our people are in a very precarious position, thanks to the extremely hard, though evil, work which contemporary anti-Catholics have done."
