

GROVES DENIES ATOMIC SECRETS' THEFT

WHO DOES WHAT By Paul Jenkins

ADA WEAVER FOGLEMAN, at the left above, MAY ADAMS, JUNE TALLEY and JESSIE DAVIS, waitresses, help make a stop at the Hotel Rose dining room a very pleasant affair. Even a little time for a cup of coffee lightens the whole day—and in our time Ada has served me enough coffee to float a flat top.

When I dropped in yesterday with my camera—I had a date for a picture in the banquet room—the prettiest one of the four and each one is pert, asked who I was taking pictures for. "Life," I told her, assuming an importance I didn't feel. "Still life?" she inquired, artlessly. Or, was it. "Still," was the safest answer I could think of. Some people won't let you get away with anything.

I wish this corner of the paper consisted of more than just two columns. It's difficult to squeeze four girls in such a small space and do them justice. Oh shucks—you know what I mean.

"Ideal" Father Guns To Death Three Children

Deed Of Former Medford Resident, "Brilliant Engineer," Puzzles

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Dec. 7.—(AP)—A Fort Belvoir construction engineer today shot and killed his three children, police said, as they prepared to leave their home here for school.

The father, John Conner, 38, quietly came out when police ordered him to come from the kitchen of his home with his hands above his head.

His wife, Janet, had run screaming from their home in Cameron valley, a public housing project, to the home of neighbors.

Conner gave no reason for the shootings and showed no emotion, police said.

Mrs. Allen and the Mittens described Conner as "a quiet, intelligent man, a perfect father and husband." All said he had been working "too hard."

JAPANESE STILL HATED Pearl Harbor Date Finds Filipinos Remembering Attacks On Own Islands

By FRANK WHITE
MANILA, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Passage of eight years since Pearl Harbor has failed to soften the hostility of Filipinos toward the Japanese—hostility caused by the unprovoked attack upon the Philippines and brutal outrages during the occupation and liberation campaign.

The feeling still is so strong that the Philippines foreign office reliably is reported to have pointed to the U. S. military academy at West Point in 1929, was a civilian employee of the corps of engineers here from 1937 to 1939.

PORTLAND, Dec. 7.—(AP)—The father of John Conner, held in Alexandria, Va., in the slaying today of his three children, sobbed today as he said he was preparing to go east.

The father, Guy W. Conner, said he had received a letter from his son only a few days ago and it contained no hint of anything out of the ordinary.

"It was a beautiful letter," he said. "A really beautiful letter. I sent it to my daughter (Mrs. Carlye Burgoyne) in Eugene."

"He must just have gone berserk or something, I guess," the father said.

Associates here recalled the engineer as a brilliant man in his work and "extremely pleasant" socially.

Heirs To $750,000 Estate Asked To Join Democrats

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Dec. 7.—(AP)—A California peach grower who got rich during the democratic administration has willed his $750,000 estate to his brothers and sisters with the specific request that they become Democrats.

The will of Harvey B. Whitten, probated yesterday, specifically requested his heirs "to renounce the Republican national party, its policies and platform and to vote henceforth a straight Democratic national party ticket."

The will went on to explain that because Whitten made his money under the Democratic administration it was his "desire that no Republican party member receive anything" from the estate.

A sister, Mrs. Anne Whitten Ross of Charlottesville, Va., said she thought all members of the family were Democrats.

"They may have strayed now and then," Mrs. Ross remarked. "I think Harvey just wanted to be sure they stayed Democrats."

Winston A. Longlois, attorney for the executors, said the will did not disinherit any Republican member of the family but "it's a nice legal question."

Japan "Forgets" Pearl Harbor Day

(By the Associated Press)
Eight years ago today, a day to remember, a day that was to live in infamy.

The Japanese, whose naval fleet dealt the surprise blow at Pearl Harbor, however, weren't remembering. Nothing was done in Japan on this day to remind them.

Instead, the Japanese were worrying about a "day" of their own—perhaps a "Tokyo day." Many among them fear the cold war will turn hot. That, they believe, would inevitably involve Japan.

Japan never forgets the proximity of Russia. Now Russia says it has added atomic weapons to its arsenal. That makes Japan shiver.

The only observance of the day in the Pacific was at Pearl Harbor itself.

It was a simple service, held at the sad, rusting monument to the day that thrust the United States into the worst war in history.

That monument is the superstructure of the once-proud battleship Arizona. It pokes from the water of the naval anchorage. It has not been disturbed since Japanese bombs buried it there in the water.

Boy Scouts in Alaska To Have Shivery Yule

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Boy Scouts can do their daily good deeds with a shiver over the Christmas holidays.

The army's planning to take a troop of boy scouts to its arctic training center at Big Delta, where they can frolic in snow and possible 50 degrees below zero weather.

They will pack into the frozen Tanana valley with skis and heated tents. If the mercury goes beyond 50 below, special arctic equipment will be supplied.

Army ski instructors will teach the scouts cross-country skiing, and they'll be able to take photographs of the Big Delta buffalo herd.

Routledge, as "the outstanding turkey judge in the U. S.," was assisted by Future Farmers of America in grading light young toms in the bronze division.

U. S. Bows To Korean Reds To Free Two Americans

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—The United States today announced it will comply with terms broadcast by the north Korea Communists for the release of two Americans held captive since September.

Secretary of State Acheson made the announcement at a news conference which did not, however, bring any word as to whether U. S. Consul General Angus Ward actually has begun his long trip to freedom from Manchuria.

The two men being held in north Korea are Economic cooperation administration officials.

A north Korean broadcast yesterday said the pair will be released if the United States sends someone to get them.

"BOSSY" COMES BACK

Gillis, Re-elected Mayor After Six Defeats, Vows Upheaval In City Jobs

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis, one-time "bad boy mayor" of this seaport city, came back after six straight setbacks to regain the mayoralty—"slowed down some, but still no diplomat."

Gillis, who amazed Newburyport residents with his antics during his three previous terms, yesterday defeated Mayor John M. Kelleher who was seeking his fifth consecutive term.

In one breath, the 52-year-old Gillis, insisted he was "too old to get as enthusiastic as I used to 22 years ago."

In the next breath he belied his lack of enthusiasm.

"My first act," he said, "will be to tear the police department apart and then fire the chief."

"I'm then going to give the highway department quite a shellacking and there are going to be some new faces in city hall."

Served Jail Term

The flamboyant filling station owner first gained notoriety while serving his first term as mayor in 1928. He was sentenced to two months in jail for cutting down elm trees to make an entrance for his gasoline station. He carried out the city's affairs from his cell.

Once he climbed in a second story window of the city's new high school to make an inspection because the school committee refused to give him a key.

On another occasion he indulged his sense of humor by ordering a policeman who worked against his election to ride an aged horse, living out its last few

Manslaughter Verdict Filed In Feud Killing

TOLEDO, Ore., Dec. 7.—(AP)—A circuit court jury early Monday convicted Homer Edwards of manslaughter in the backwoods feud shooting of Melvin Longyear.

Edwards, a 52-year-old rancher, also is accused of killing Melvin's brother, Charles, 22, but it has not been announced whether this trial will follow at once.

The verdict carries a possible penalty of 1 to 15 years in prison.

Edwards argued self-defense in the trial. He said the brothers had been quarreling with him and Charles was shot accidentally in a scuffle. He asserted he then shot Melvin in self-defense.

No Contact With Hopkins, Probers Told

Henry Wallace One Who Got Uranium To Russia, Fulton Lewis Declares

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Leslie R. Groves testified today that Harry Hopkins never tried to get any atomic blueprints or maps from him.

Groves, wartime head of the atomic bomb project, was before congressional investigators digging into a story of atomic materials going to Russia in lend-lease planes and a mysterious note signed "H. H.," saying "had a hell of a time getting these away from Groves."

C. Racey Jordan, former air force major, told the House Un-American activities committee on Monday that he opened a Russian suit case at Great Falls, Mont., in the winter of 1943-44 and found "Oak Ridge" materials and the "H. H." note.

Groves told the committee:

1. The Russians got some atomic material during the war, but that he doesn't know how many shipments "because we don't know how many leaked through."
2. He found evidence of Russian spying within a month of the time he took charge of the atomic bomb project in 1942.
3. He knows the lend-lease administration was under "pressure" to give the Russians "everything they sought" and that a "great deal of influence" was brought to bear. But he said he did not know who exerted the pressure.

Hopkins was at one time lend-lease administrator. A close friend

More Box Cars On Way, Advice From Ellsworth

Box cars are on the way to help relieve the current shortage on the Southern Pacific line, Congressman Harry Ellsworth told a group of loggers, lumbermen and other interested parties at a meeting sponsored by the Western Forest Industries association, Tuesday night in the county courthouse.

Spokesmen for the railroad assured Ellsworth they would build 3,100 new box cars and convert 900 other pieces of rolling stock, in a recent long-distance phone conversation. The Fourth district representative broached the subject of rail car shortages to railroad men while he was in the east, earlier in the year.

Ellsworth told his listeners 4,000 cars would be added to the number of cars currently engaged in shipping west coast products to other points, thereby reducing the stockpile of raw materials from the loading platforms of many Douglas county timber products shippers.

Congressman Ellsworth also described the alcohol plant in Springfield and what it would do for Oregon's lumber economy. Other topics touched on by Ellsworth were current legislation in Congress that would affect the timber industry, the access road bill and the amendment to the Clark-McNary act.

The Congressman also voiced his continued objections to CVA and cited possible undesirable effects it might have on the lumber industry.

Anti-Red Workers Form International Union

LONDON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Leaders of 50,000,000 anti-Communist trade union workers in 53 countries including the U.S. formally organized the International Confederation to fight for job security for members, and for their right to work where they choose.

No negative votes were cast. But leaders of the French and Belgian Christian (Catholic) Workers unions, representing 1,300,000 workers, abstained from the vote. They did not say why.

The new organization will carry the fight to Communism and the World Federation of Trade Unions. They quit the WFTU early this year because Reds controlled it.
