Rocky Graziano Decisions Horne

CLEVELAND, Dec. 7. — (AP) Rocky Graziano, once the kayo king of the middleweights, today shrugged off a rusty performance against George (Sonny) Horne and growled. "You can't knock 'em all out. Some nights you can't knock anybody out." Rocky meant his disgust, too. He won his third straight 10-round decision over Horne last night at the Cleveland News' 24th annual Christmas fund show. But he got socked pretty hard in the last five rounds. Graziano's trainer, Whitey Blin, said so pessimistic. "You did all right, considering it was only your second fight in just about a year," consoled Blin. "You needed that one under your belt." Rocky's last fight was a kayo over another hot title contender, Charley Fusari, in the 10th round. In the third round, Horne's face took on a silly expression when Graziano slammed his jaw with a hard right. He started sinking. Again in the fifth, the same thing happened. But in both cases the bell clanged in time. The life started to ooze out of

He raised a cut over Rocky's left eye in the sixth and worked studiously on that for the remainder of the bout. Cleveland's Chuck Hunter out-pointed the favored Dick Wagner of Portland, Oregon, in a light heavyweight 10-rounder.

OSC Edges NYU With Thrilling Rally, 49-45

By The Associated Press With a spine-ringing rally that netted six points in the final 13 seconds, Oregon State's Pacific Coast conference title defenders climbed back onto basketball's victory wagon last night by defeating New York University 49-45 in Madison Square garden. The Beavers trailed 45-43 when Bill Harper snared a violet pass in midcourt and raced in for a hook shot to knot the count. Five seconds later, with both sides fighting desperately to control the ball, New York's Bob Berlerian fouled Bob Payne and the sophomore forward converted to put OSC out in front. That was the game, but Len Rinerson used it as the final gun with a layin shot and added a free throw after the game ended. His 13 points were high for the victors. Oregon State trailed 19-9 early in the first half, fought back to a 24-24 deadlock at halftime and moved out to a seven-point advantage in the second period only to see it vanish before the New Yorkers' attack. The victory sent the Beavers off to Madison, Wis., with an even break in two road starts. They meet the Wisconsin Badgers tomorrow night. While Oregon State was taking intersectional honors, the Northwest's cage state was rather clear. Linfield put on a 17-point rally in the final four minutes to dump Oregon College of Education 67-56 at Monmouth; Gonzaga spoiled Whitman's home debut with a 54-37 verdict; Vanport whipped Clark Junior college 65-54 and Central Washington nipped Portland university 61-53 as reserve guard Larry Dowden scored from the floor and Dean Nicholson and Fred Peterson converted charity tosses in the closing minute and a half.

The Great Atlas, Dusette To Fight Again At Armory; Both Confident Of Victory

The Great Atlas, still boosting himself as the greatest strength-wrestler in the business, gets another chance to prove his prowess at the Roseburg armory Saturday night. The former "Mr. America," considered by his Hollywood cronies as the most handsome and muscular Adonis in California, will be meeting Georges Dusette, popular French-Canadian, in the one-hour headliner.

Cleveland Buys Portland Ace, Hal Saltzman

BALTIMORE. — (AP) — Bill Veeck, dynamic ex-president of the Cleveland club is gone but the Indians are still stealing the show from the rest of the major league clubs. While the others were feinting and fencing but apparently accomplishing nothing in their efforts to swing the first big trade at the minor league convention, the Indians came up with one of the finest pitching prizes in the minors. He is Hal Saltzman, 24-year-old righthander who won 23 and lost 13 for the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league. General Manager Hank Greenberg of the Indians, who announced the purchase Tuesday night, said Saltzman cost Cleveland five players besides an undisclosed amount of cash. He estimated the deal represented a $100,000 purchase. Saltzman, a University of Oregon product who had only a year and a half of professional baseball experience before joining the Beavers last year, is generally regarded as the top pitching prospect on the coast. He pitched 22 complete games last year and fanned 120 in 276 innings. To get the youngster, the Indians had to top the offers of three rival big league clubs. Greenberg said both New York clubs and the Chicago White Sox were after him. In addition to about $30,000 in cash, the Indians gave up outfielders Hal Peck and Luis Marquez from their own roster.

YMCA Basketball League Standings

TEAM	W	L
Christian Church	1	0
Umpqua Plywood	1	0
Jayecees	0	1
National Guard	0	1

Last night, the armory was the scene of two rather ragged, but hard-fought YMCA league games. Most players had a hard time hitting the hoop, except Bill Benson of Umpqua Plywood. At the first game, the short National Guard team lost to the Umpqua Plywood team, 36-22. Some very nice ball handling was featured in the first quarter but the boys were a little off on their shots. The Plywood "Redskins" built up a lead of 4-0 midway in the quarter only to see the "Mites" of the National Guard whistle it down to a 6-5 lead at the quarter.

The National Guard five dominated the second quarter and left the floor at the half leading 15-12. However, in the second half the "Redskins," led by Benson, began hitting the hoop regularly and held the "Mites" to two points in the third quarter to lead at this point 22-17. Benson was really hot in the fourth quarter and Umpqua Plywood won the game 36-22. Benson was leading scorer with 22 points. McFarlane and Mathey led the National Guards, with six and five points, respectively.

The second game found the "Blues" of the Christian church meeting the "Whites" of the Jaycees. This game saw neither team able to hit the hoop with any regularity as only five baskets were scored in the entire game. At the end of the first quarter the Christian church five was showing the way with a 4-1 count. The determined "Whites" fought back and held the "Blues" scoreless while they rolled in three points and at the half the game was deadlocked at 4-4. The third quarter was a very tightly fought stanza with neither team able to do much scoring and it ended up the Christian church ahead 8-7. In the final quarter the "Whites" found their shooting eyes and scored seven points while holding the Jaycees to three and finally won the game 15-10. Both teams showed well spread scoring power with Buckcock of the Christian church leading the point getters with six points and Moon of the Jaycees getting three points.

Winds Hamper Trapsshooters

Trapsshooters participating in Sunday's weekly shoot at the Roseburg Rod and Gun club grounds found difficult shooting in the gusty winds prevailing during the afternoon. Thirty-one squads participated, with high scores turned in by George Cornish, Ray Cole and Scott Goodman, each with 24 birds. Scores of 23 each were made by Roy Hill, Dallas Bennett, Geo. Baird, Earl Duncan and C. D. Anlauf, Charles Klinger, Roy Strader, Ray Laurance, Ken Gilkeson, George Roberts and Ted Shircliff were in the 22 class. Shooting scores of 21 were Dean Bubar, Dave Kenes, Bruce Yeager, Frank Chapin, Henry Shircliff, Roy Medley, Virgil Sanders, Jack Culver, Walt Edmonds, Bob Gardner, E. C. Chapman, Ted Rice and C. Gray each scored 20 birds. Prize winners in the merchandise events were Scott Goodman, Dallas Bennett, Dean B. Bubar, Ted Shircliff, Ted Rice, Perry Thiele, Ray Cole. Fred Kuck, chairman of the trapshoot committee, reports plans are being made for a turkey shoot to be held Sunday, Dec. 18.

Honor System To Take Bow In Hoop League

SALEM, Dec. 7. — (AP) — The honor system makes its bow in basketball here Saturday night. It's the idea of Fred Cords, Salem YMCA physical director, and works this way: If a player believes he has fouled some one, he'll yell "foul" and the opponent will go to the foul line. No one else can call an infraction. There will be no whistle-blowing. In fact, there's no one to blow a whistle. There's no referee—only a "supervisor" to check in the substitutes and toss up jump balls. Participants in the experimental game will be two church league fives, First Christian and First Presbyterian.

High School Wrestling, Boxing Start Monday

Coach Cece Sherwood reports the high school and junior high school boxing and wrestling program starts Monday for both schools. Sherwood will handle the wrestling candidates, while Coach Ray Brown instructs the prospective boxers. No details as to returning let-terms and new prospects are available yet, Sherwood said, but he indicated no competition would be scheduled until after the first of the year.

Coast Independents May Form New Circuit

PORTLAND, Dec. 7. — (AP) — Formation of a new West Coast college circuit may be in the offing, according to Father Robert Sweeney, chairman of the Portland University Athletic board. Tentatively it would include Portland, San Francisco university, Santa Clara, St. Mary's, San Jose State, Loyola, College of Pacific and Nevada. All now operate as independents. "We expect concrete moves soon," Father Sweeney said.

Pee-wees, Heavies Start

Grade school Pee-wees and Heavies have launched their practice in the four Roseburg schools, but no competition is scheduled until after Christmas, according to Athletic Director Cece Sherwood. Riverside and Benson schools will practice in the new Benson gymnasium. Only the floors remain to be sanded and few minor improvements need to be made before the kids will be turned loose inside. Fullerton and Rose basketballers will practice in their own gymnasiums.
