

Reserved Seat Season Tickets Are Going Fast

Season reserved seat tickets to nine home basketball games at Senior high school are going at a fast clip, Varsity coach Jack Newby reports. The season tickets are currently being sold at J.V. Sporting Goods store.

By plunking down $6 for the reserved seat book, the fan is assured a bird's eye view of the game at all home games in the gymnasium.

The fan also avoids the fear of missing a game because of a possible sellout, a probability, with fan interest in basketball increasing continually.

After Friday, reserved seats may be purchased on an individual ticket basis, provided any are left, Newby said. The small seating capacity in the high school, listed at 750, maximum, is expected to fill rapidly and no guarantees can be made as to seating unless the fan holds a reserved seat ticket.

Tickets At OSC Over Half Sold

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 8.—More than half of the season tickets for Oregon State's eight home conference basketball games in mammoth new Gill Coliseum already have been sold, Athletic Director R. S. (Spec) Keene announced this week.

There are 3100 theater-type chair reserve seats in the structure which will be used for the first time in the opening home series against highly rated Utah on Dec. 16 and 17. Although the season ticket sale has been brisk, many seats are still available.

Season tickets do not include the six pre-conference contests for which tickets are being sold on an individual game basis. However, reserve seats for these games can be purchased in advance by sending orders to Memorial Union 204. Non-league games include Utah, Dec. 16 and 17; Indiana, Dec. 19 and 20; Minnesota, Dec. 27; and Stewart Chevrolet at San Francisco, Dec. 30.

The most modern type of glass backboards are being installed on the main playing floor this week while final sanding operations on the floor itself are underway. Large arm structures coming from the floor, extend out and support the backboards and baskets. When not in use, the whole structures can be hoisted to the ceiling.

As soon as the floor is sanded, filler will be applied with several coats of touch varnish topping coats of tough varnish topping

Varsity, Jayvee Indians Set Sights On Cottage Grove Tilt Friday Night

Only one day remains before Jack Newby tests his Roseburg Indian varsity against its first opponent at Cottage Grove Friday night. Coach Norm West's junior varsity will play the preliminary game against Cottage Grove Jayvees.

This final week of practice has been a hectic one for both players and coach. Newby reduced the traveling squad to a hard-core 12-man outfit that is steeped in fundamentals of offense and defense.

The Indians are a big question mark this year, with most of the team made up of new men up from last year's jayvee squad.

Only Bill Van Horn and Frank Olson, reserve forwards and Dexter Garey, starting forward from last year's third place district winners are back for another season of ball.

The veteran portion of the quintet has been cut to three men because Dale Blank, reserve guard, is still recuperating from an accident with a buzz-saw.

Of the nine men balancing out the squad, several appear to be in line for much comment from the fans if pre-season predictions pan out.

Mickey Coen, 16-year-old guard and junior, plays his first year on the varsity after coming up from the jayvees, where he was a capable starting guard. Ronnie Strickling, 17-year-old senior and guard, is another man that will be watched. He was credited with many courtballs that helped put the 1948 jayvees right on top at the end of the season.

Jerry Sconce, 16-year-old jayvee starter and now a varsity guard, is one of the biggest morale builders on the team, according to informants close to the Senior high basketball court. He is also a capable shooter—a necessary ingredient to a winning ball club.

Don Campbell and Tom Johnson will furnish a little height to a team lacking the same. Johnson is listed as the tallest man on the squad, a cool 6'1 1/2"—not impressive as basketball building up sufficiently for the initial series will be a nip and tuck proposition but the contractor has assured that the coliseum will be ready.

A parking lot with facilities for 900 cars has already been completed immediately south of the coliseum.

heights go. He is closely paced by Don Campbell's 5'11". Frank Olson also hits the 5-11 mark.

Kee Briggs, who saw some action on last year's varsity team before dropping back to the jayvees to knock off a few rough edges, is back again. The 18-year-old junior will play on the forward wall as will Campbell, a lean junior with a jayvee background.

Buddy Mathews, 17, senior and a guard, is one of the shortest men on the varsity at 5'9". He was a jayvee starter last year and made up in speed what he lacked in height. Gordon Conlay and Strickling are the other "shorties" on the squad at 5-9.

Roy Van Horn, brother of Bill is the remaining newcomer to the Indian varsity. A junior and 16, young Van Horn will play forward.

The Friday night action at Cottage Grove will be the first of a two-game series with the Lane county club. Saturday, both teams open the basketball season for Roseburg fans at Senior high school, in a scheduled night game. West's jayvees will play the preliminary here, too.

Sanders To Stay As UCLA Coach

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 8.—(AP)—UCLA has won a cross-country tug-of-war with the University of Florida for the football coaching talents of Henry (Red) Sanders.

University of California at Los Angeles officials announced last night that the humorous, likeable coach has decided to remain at the Bruin institution and implied that he has received a new contract.

The announcement, following a meeting of the school's board of control, ended a week of speculation stemming from reports that Sanders had received a juicy offer to move to Florida.

The UCLA statement quoted no figures. But persons close to the situation said the pact would run for 10 years and the stipend would be $15,000 per year, plus a substantial expense account.

Sanders himself was not available for comment.

But Eli Fink of Florida's state board of control was. He said at Jacksonville that Sanders' decision was no surprise.

"It is true we had made Sanders an offer," said Fink. "But his attitude long ago had led us to believe that he was merely using our offer to better his position at UCLA."

"He told us the other day that he had been promised a 10-year contract at $15,000 a year plus a healthy expense account. This is better than the deal we had proposed and which he accepted, apparently in good faith."

Sanders said earlier this week that he had discussed the matter with a member of the Florida board of control but had received no official offer.

Unofficial reports from the south said Florida was willing to pay him $15,000 yearly and $5,000 for expenses.

At UCLA, Sanders took a squad which had lost seven and won three games and converted it into the second highest-scoring team in Bruin history. It piled up 227 points. UCLA was a contender for the Pacific Coast conference title until the last game and defeated six opponents, while losing to three.

Stars Get New Catcher

BALTIMORE, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Catcher Cliff Dapper, player manager of the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern association last season, was sold today to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast league.

Dapper succeeded Monday as Atlanta manager by Dixie Walker, veteran major league outfielder.

Dapper hit .280 in 115 games for Atlanta in 1949.

FOOTBALL ODDITIES

Washington And Lee, Virginia Game Films Show Best Freak

By MILO FARNETTI

NEW YORK (AP)—An enthusiastic Washington & Lee sub who made an illegal tackle that wasn't detected for two days furnished the football oddity of the 1949 college football season.

Here's what sports writers and broadcasters voted the most unusual incident of a rather screwy season:

Washington & Lee tackle Bob Smith, who had sat on the bench, was walking to the showers in the final seconds of the Virginia game.

End Ed Dessell of Virginia caught a pass and was running across. Smith raced in to drop him inches short of the goal.

He explained, "I just had a hunch a Virginia player might score on the last play of the game, and when Bessell came by me, I couldn't resist tackling him."

But Smith's good work went for nothing. Bessell fumbled over the goal line and a Virginia recovered for a score. Virginia won, 27-7.

WSC Cautious In Coach Choice

PULLMAN, Wash., Dec. 8.—(AP)—Washington State college is receiving application from football coaches all over the county but the selection of a new coach won't be made hastily.

Bob Brumley, acting director of intercollegiate athletics, said the school is receiving, in addition to applications, letters recommending men for the job.

Phil Sarboe, head football coach since 1945, resigned last week.

"The selection of a head coach for Washington State will not be a hasty matter," Brumley said. "We intend to investigate thoroughly every candidate considered. The alumni and friends of the college, and the students, can be assured that we will leave no stone unturned in finding a man for the football skipper's job."

Brumley added that "we do not intend to de-emphasize football or any intercollegiate athletics at Washington State."

The consideration of Sarboe's resignation and possible discussion of a new coach will be taken up at a meeting of the athletic council tentatively set for Dec. 16.

McQuire Wins 2 Top Awards

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 8.—Stan McQuire, standout junior right end, edged out with two of the top honors awarded at the first annual Oregon State football banquet at the Multnomah hotel's grand ballroom in Portland Monday night.

More than 700 persons attended the huge affair sponsored by the Beaver alumni association to honor the Orange in general and 15 graduating seniors in particular.

The curly-haired McQuire, who made most all-coast squads this year and won the "lineman of the week" award for his brilliant play in the Michigan State game, was named team captain for the 1950 season. He also was presented with the Otto Sitton award as the outstanding OSC lineman of the year as selected by the coaches of the Beavers' opponents.

Right Halfback Dick Gray, McQuire's buddy and teammate since their high school days at Roosevelt of Portland, received the most valuable player award as voted by the squad members.

Coach Kip Taylor described the last of the three backfield playing Gray brothers as the most underrated back in the conference.

A brand new award, the Bob Chrisman trophy for the best downfield blocker for the season, went to John Thomas, the big sophomore end from Newark, N. J. In addition to receiving an individual loving cup, Thomas will have his name engraved on a huge silver bowl trophy topped by the figure of a football player.

Another new tradition was inaugurated when the 15 graduating seniors were presented with gold "O" rings by the Portland alumni group. Receiving rings were Ken Carpenter, Dick Gray, Dick Twenge, Bud Cahill, Andy Knudsen, Jim Inglesby, Capt. Tom DeSylvia, Bud Gibbs, Don Mast, Rudy Ruppe, Ed Carmichael, Duane Moore, Craig McKickel, Duane Moore, Craig McKickel, Duane Moore, Craig McKickel.

Joe Louis Still The Best, Says Exhibition Loser

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Joe Louis will continue boxing, but "strictly on an exhibition basis," he said last night after knocking out Pat Valentino, of San Francisco, in the eighth round at Chicago stadium.

The retired heavyweight champion, receding in his dressing room with an ice bag over his slightly-bruised left eye, held court for newsmen after the finish of his scheduled 10-round exhibition with Valentino.

"I'm fighting an exhibition with Lee Oma in Detroit next Wednesday night and another with Al Hootman in Oakland, Calif., on Dec. 19 after the first of the year. I'm planning an exhibition tour in South America. I've never boxed there."

Valentino, outweighed 39 pounds, was no match for the Brown Bomber. Even at the age of 35, Louis convinced a small crowd of 5,726 that he is the tops among the current crop of battlers.

The gate amounted to $28,933 including taxes. Valentino received a flat $6,000 guarantee with Pritchett, Joe Grove, Nick Stallworth, Dick Geisler and George Rey tend to make other coaches treat the classification lightly. All played extensively last year.

Those other coaches have two wishes about the 6-foot 3-inch Pritchett. They wish he was with them or they wish he was in some other league. The agile forward led the Vandal team in scoring last year and drew praise from all opponents.

The Idaho club will be stronger in the reserve department this year. Working behind Stallworth, the 6-foot 4-inch starting center, will be Bob Wheeler. Only an inch shorter than Stallworth, Wheeler has shown flashes of real skill in early games.
